The Hale Koa is more than a hotel. It's a Hawaiian lifestyle. The Hale Koa Hotel lies centrally at the sand and surf of Waikiki Beach, where visitors from around the world come to sun, stroll and loaf. It is a place to watch the world go by.

The accommodations are second to none, fourteen stories containing 416 modern rooms, each equipped with a color television set, and all offering spectacular views of the tropical Koolau mountains or the sun-drenched Pacific.

But for the military person lucky enough to spend a tour of duty in Hawaii, it is a place to play, to stay or to visit anytime off duty.

WHERE OLD & NEW FRIENDS MEET

Several cocktail lounges and restaurants give the Hale Koa regulars a chance to enjoy themselves at preferred prices, in styles suited to individual tastes and moods. It is a place to meet new friends or rendezvous with old.

Hale Koa Room
Continental style dining at its best can be found in the romantic Hale Koa Room, the pride of our hotel. Offering superb starlit views of the Pacific.

Territorial Coffee House
For those who prefer a hearty but moderately priced breakfast, lunch or dinner in an informal relaxed atmosphere, the Territorial Coffee House is for you. Our Coffee House, suggesting an old Hawaiian courtyard, offers a wide variety of snacks, complete dinners and island specialties. The Territorial Coffee House is open at 6 a.m. till late evenings. A special children's menu offers fun favorites, all at children's prices.

Mauka Lounge
Our pre-show Lounge is ideal for quiet conversation or planning the evening's activities. Comfortable chairs set amidst hanging plants and a view of the Koolau mountains make for a relaxed atmosphere with an exotic Mai Tai. Free pupus and entertainment nightly.

Barefoot Bar
Exactly what the name suggests, come barefoot and in your swimsuit. The mood is young and fun is the order of the day. Drinks are at bargain prices.

Beach Terrace Snack Bar
For picnickers or sun bathers, the Beach Terrace Snack Bar serves hot dogs, french fries, hamburgers and nothing stronger than beer, a pineapple slush or cokes to drink. Take-out service available.

Diamond Head Sandwich Hut
A small Polynesian grass shack, The Sandwich Hut is located on Diamond Head end of the beach. Our surfboard sign shows the way to light sandwiches and refreshments. Bathers come as you are.

HISTORY REPEATED

From the landing of the first Polynesian canoes, the ocean has shaped the recreational pleasures of those who live on Oahu. Surfing, swimming, scuba diving and even sailboating are available at the Hale Koa, with equipment furnished for moderate rentals. Fully equipped locker rooms, showers, and sauna rooms are at beach level, as is a lava rock walled fresh water swimming pool.

FINEST SPORT FACILITIES

The Hale Koa schedules transportation to military golf courses, some of the finest in the world. Tennis and paddleball courts are available on the landscaped grounds, and expert personnel at a hotel travel desk can make arrangements for jaunts throughout the islands.

EVERY CONVENIENCE

Located in the lobby is the Special Activities Desk where you can purchase tickets to any Hale Koa show or make dining room reservations. The PX is on the lower level. Other Hale Koa services include a car rental concession offering military rates, barber shop, beauty salon, flower shop, baby-sitting service, automatic ice dispensers and coin-operated laundry/dryer equipment.

A UNIQUE CONCEPT

The Hale Koa is unique, even in the way it was planned and financed. It was built for servicemen and women from their own funds... funds generated by profits from military clubs and exchanges worldwide. In short, the Hale Koa was built for Servicepeople by Servicepeople. Hale Koa means “House of the Warrior” in the Hawaiian language. From the very beginning its successful goal has been to provide the best in resort facilities to all members of the military and their families, to all ranks and grades, retired and active.

HALE KOA— A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Because it lies at the center of Waikiki Beach, the hub of island activity, the Hale Koa serves as an economical “home base” for any off-duty hour.

Friendly get-togethers can happen by chance in the Mauka Lounge, or planned as a beachside party for 500 of your friends. Whatever your personal style, you’ll find the Hale Koa Hotel a home.

IF YOU WANT TO STAY AT HALE KOA...

Eligibility
All active duty and retired military personnel from all branches of the service, both officers and enlisted personnel, are eligible to use Hale Koa guest room accommodations. Cadets and midshipmen from the service academies and personnel on active duty for training are also eligible, as well as individuals classified by the Veterans Administration as 100% Disabled. Eligible sponsored guests include immediate family members, defined as parents, persons in local parentis, siblings, in-laws, and non-dependent children.

Reservations
Contact the hotel. The hotel requires a one-night deposit that’s refundable with 30 days notice before scheduled arrival.

Rates
Rates are based on pay grade and present status, active/retired, as well as location in the building relating to height and ocean view. The range for double occupancy is between $23 - $56 per day. Each additional person is charged at $7 daily.

Location
Along with being on the beachfront, the Hale Koa is only three blocks from Waikiki’s main avenue. Other popular attractions are within easy access by public bus.
