Week of April 15, 2019

Chancellor Benham: Consider attending the May 4 Commencement

We need you to sign up to attend and march OR attend and volunteer! This is shaping up to be one of the biggest graduating classes thus far -- the sheer spectacle of seeing our graduates in academic regalia will fill the morning air with electricity and excitement. In fact, I cannot wait to hear the cheers for our student emcee and our student speaker, the first to represent our distance education learners!! Wow!! And, I know many of you can't wait to share in your students jubilant victory of enduring their academic marathons!

I have to say, our graduations take my breath away. It is always an incredible sight to behold!

So, please do not consider being in absentia this spring convocation! I am so very inspired and grateful when I meet with faculty and staff of how engaged you are with your students. That is, ensuring each person is challenging their own status quo, venturing to new landscapes, and building toward greater, bolder aspirations! I don't see indifference from faculty and staff, but instead I see respect, deep thinking and teaching, and true cultivation of both academic rigor and warmth/aloha! I encourage you to be at graduation in person (and not just in spirit).

To all Faculty, Instructors, Lecturers and OVCSA Specialists: If you are marching please check-in with Clinton Nishida ASAP. <https://forms.gle/twqMWDUXJ5GKDCPM6>. If you are volunteering please ensure you fill out this form for your volunteer T-Shirt: <https://forms.gle/vKQ3zDErjf2uBNZ86>. If you are not marching or volunteering please let the Chancellor know by email at uhwochan@hawaii.edu.

No School This Friday, April 15 - It's the Good Friday state Holiday

This week is a four-day week because of the Good Friday holiday, which falls on April 15. The next state holiday is Monday, May 27.

UH West O'ahu Alumni 'Ohana to pay for Veteran Honor Cords

Know of a graduating veteran, military student or ROTC cadet? The UH West O'ahu Alumni 'Ohana will pick up the cost of Veteran Honor Cords for graduating veterans, military students and ROTC cadets who can present verification of their status when picking up the cords at the UH West O'ahu Bookstore.

Introducing Brand Identity - a design system for unified campus messaging

The UH West O'ahu Communications and IT departments are excited to introduce the UH West O'ahu Design System – we call it our Brand Identity.

Our design system is meant to establish, define, inform, guide, and document our guidelines, decisions, and requirements for all of UH West O'ahu external, marketing materials, including our website, microsites, and print collateral (i.e. flyers, brochures, posters, etc.). It is intended to be a one-stop resource for our campus community to refer to when making design decisions for communications to our external constituencies and stakeholders.

The goal is for our campus to be represented with unified and consistent messaging. Part of this is accomplished by a uniform look, feel, voice, and tone – all components of our UH West O'ahu brand. We hope to accomplish this through our design system, an ever-evolving site that responds to the marketing, design, and accessibility needs of our campus community. We often receive questions about templates and resources – all which we tried to address or include (or they are on their way) on this site.

The beta-testing period will run throughout June. You can access a feedback form either via the design system site or via this link: <https://forms.gle/4c8NpNafZavWtoX7A>. Your suggestions are appreciated! Please note that the design system site is only accessible on campus.

We would like to hold a presentation to introduce our design system to you on Tuesday, April 23, at 10 a.m. in C225. Learn about the intentionality of our design, upcoming applications, and how your input into our focus group discussions are helping to formulate components of the site. Check out our Brand Identity site, and then come to the presentation and ask questions!

UH West O’ahu Foodbank Drive - There’s only nine days to the can-petition

The UH West O’ahu donation drive for the Hawai’i Foodbank runs to May, but there are only only nine days left until the start of the competition pitting departments against each other. The can-petition being run as part of the food drive will feature the building of structures in the library created with donated food items. If you haven’t given already, please consider doing so. Both monetary and food items are welcomed as donations. A donation of $10 helps the Foodbank provide 25 meals!

Bring items for the Can-petition to the department Foodbank coordinator. They will collect donations and update you on events happening throughout the season. Department coordinators are:

- Chancellor's Office - Chris Neves (cabralch@hawaii.edu)
- Academic Affairs - Michiko Joseph (msjoseph@hawaii.edu)
- Student Affairs - Ryan Perreira (rperreir@hawaii.edu)
- Administration - Gary Nakamura (garyn@hawaii.edu)

Humanities Writing Intensive Assessment Review slated for April 26

UH West O'ahu faculty and lecturers are invited to attend the Humanities Writing Intensive Review, which will present assessment strategies for faculty teaching writing intensive courses as well as present the results from the Fall 2018-Spring 2019 assessment cycle for 300- and 400-level writing intensive courses and discuss the future direction of writing intensive assessment projects. The review is scheduled for 2 to 3 p.m., Friday, April 26, in D140. Want more information? Contact Dr. Yasmine Romero at yromer@hawaii.edu.

Library adds information on Scholarly Communications to its website

The James & Abigail Campbell Library has added a new section on Scholarly Communications to its website. The page includes links to issues concerning the communications, including Copyright, Open Access, Scholarly Publishing, and Textbook Affordability. The Library's staff plan to improve and refine the pages as they receive feedback from campus.

Dr. Rosenlee speaks to prestigious symposium in Beijing
