The question of whether or not Goro Hokama's name should appear on the General Election ballot is yet to be resolved.

County Clerk G. N. Toshi Enomoto said he has referred the matter to the County Attorney's office and expects an opinion before the General Election ballots are printed.

Why is this question so important? First here is the background:

Mr. Hokama, a Democrat running from Lanai, is assured of a seat on the ballot because 1-14 is the only one running for the Lanai seat from either party; 2- the law, passed during the 1953 Legislature, provides that Lanai will have "at least one member on the Board of Supervisors."

Knowing that Mr. Hokama is assured of election, should Mr. Enomoto go ahead and have the Supervisor's name printed on the General Election ballot?

At first glance, it would seem that such would not be necessary since, after today (Saturday), Mr. Hokama is "in."

But County Clerk Enomoto is concerned with:

If Mr. Hokama's name does not appear on the General Election ballot, can he legally write instructions on the ballot, telling voters to vote for only seven candidates for an

Tam Requests Special Efforts For Fire Safety

Civic bodies and service organizations on the Valley Island and the related departments of the local government have joined with the General Insurance Association of Maui in a campaign to conserve lives and property through a program of fire safety and of the home.

The campaign will extend from Sunday, October 7, to Friday, October 12. County Chairman Eddie Tam has established "the duration of the campaign as a period for special effort in the promotion of measures designed to bring about fire safety and of the home," and urges the public to cooperate in making the campaign successful.

Hui Akoni O Hemolele Lauole Set Today

Hui Akoni O Hemolele of the St. Anthony Parish is planning a Lauole sale today (Saturday), according to Francis Rodriguez, chairman of the fund-raising project. The Lauole will be ready this morning and may be purchased at the parish hall or ordered through any of the club members. The proceeds will be used to finance sanctuary needs.

eight-man Board?

—And if the instructions are to vote for seven only, think of the many unhappy citizens who will not vote for eight — especially that group who had no intention of voting for Mr. Hokama in the General Election.

Deputy County Attorney Thomas S. Ogata is studying the problem. He should have an answer pretty soon.

Democrat Board candidate Robert V. Shimada has been asking voters to place him in the "vacancy which will exist this year because Supervisor S. George Fukuoka is running for the Senate."

Just the other night, Alfred C. Franco also a Board candidate, put in his application for the "vacancy."

And there are others also interested in it.

OBSERVATION

Kenneth E. Young, who is seeking to become the Democrat Party's nominee for Delegate to Congress, spoke before a large gathering in Waikuku on Thursday night.

Just an observation—He was escorted to the speaker's stand by County Chairman Eddie F. Tam and House candidate Henry M. Silva.

Dr. Wayman To Judge 4-H Steers At Fair

Dr. Oliver Wayman, head of the animal science department of the University of Hawaii Agriculture Experiment Station, will judge the 30 4-H steers which will be exhibited at the 34th Maui County Fair.

Dr. Wayman has been conducting feeding trials at the University and has judged shows held on Oahu and Maui.

Judging of the 4-H steers start at 9 a.m. Friday, October 12, in the livestock section. In addition to selecting the top winners in the 4-H section, Dr. Wayman will also judge the showmanship and best records contests.

Assisting him with the record judging will be Harvey Vollrath, Extension animal husbandman, and Charles M. Bice, Extension poultry husbandman.

The Kiwanis Club of Maui, Maui Farmers Supply, E. O. Hall & Son, Pacific Chemical & Fertilizer Company as well as the Maui County Fair are awarding trophies and cash prizes.

The 4-H livestock project has made it possible to have a yearly livestock show," says David A. Akana, AES County agent. "It could be said that without the 4-Hers participating, there could be no livestock show at the Fair," he added.

lect from the County for the past two years.

The $1,350 is the amount Mr. Gallas says the County owes him for his work with the Civil Service.

The Board at that time, however, failed to appropriate the necessary amount to pay the claim. And that bill has been left pending until now.

Mr. Gallas was one of the men who testified before the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday.

At the close of the session, the Board voted to refer the testimony to its finance committee for study and action.

Democrat Delegate Will Be Elected, Young Says

The Democrats, according to Kenneth E. Young, will "have the greatest victory this Territory has ever seen" in the coming elections.

Mr. Young, who is seeking the Democrat Party's nomination for Delegate to Congress, spoke at a Wells Park rally in Waikuku on Thursday night.

"I believe that the Territory will have a Democrat delegate this year for the first time in 25 years," he said.

He assumed the incumbent, Elizabeth P. Farrington, as carrying on a "lazy campaign," because she was not interested in the campaign. He said the following: First, she says that she knows her way around; second, she says that she knows important people; and third, she tells her audience to look at her record.

Mr. Young said that legislation passed during Mrs. Farrington's tenure as Delegate were 90 44, 100 percent "you-time."

"But what about the real important issues like allowing the people to elect their own Governor?" he asked. "I see now where the incumbent is heading and this suit is on."

"It's like what former President Herbert Hoover said: 'I want to serve notice that if the Republican candidate wants a man's job, she is going to have to fight like a man,' he said.

Mr. Young also said he strongly believes in party unity and will "fight" for that.

"If the party becomes strong and more unified even if I lose, then the battle will have been worth it," he said.

Mr. Young's appearance at the Thursday night rally lengthened the program so much that a large portion of the crowd got together in his talk—taking his opponent's name, and the program was extended.

County Treasurer K. K. Kam got together in his talk—taking his opponent's name, and the program was extended.

His opponent, Rep. Robert N. Kimura, meanwhile, continued with the same speech he has been using throughout the primary campaign.

Rep. David K. Trask Jr. took aim at Republican House candidate Marquis Calmes, who defended Governor Samuel W. King's votes in his campaign talks.

Rep. Trask read off list of projects for Maui which he associated with the Democrat Legislature, but were vetoed by Governor King. Included in the projects were the Kahului library, Lahaina Memorial Gymnasium and two other projects.

wins the primary election will be assured of a seat in the House of Representatives. Incumbent K. Kam and Robert N. Kimura, both Democrats, are the contestants.

The Republicans did not offer a candidate for the Treasurer's race.

Auditor Rodriguez was first selected to his present position in 1954, when he defeated the Republican Sam Alo. Previous to 1954, he served four terms on the Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Enomoto was elected County Clerk in 1948 and has been re-elected ever since. He is the only Republican cabinet officer in Maui County at the present time.

'Gop' Greeting Given Hatonaka By New Son

Thomas T. Hatonaka, Republican Maui County Committee Chairman, is more a Republican than he is a father.

His wife, the former Lily Takakura, gave birth to the couple's second son at the Central Maui Memorial Hospital at about 4 p.m. Thursday.

A Maui News reporter called Mr. Hatonaka and inquired: "Is it a boy — or a girl?"

"Sir," replied Mr. Hatonaka. "The baby is a Republican."

The father also insists that the baby's first word was "gop," a term often associated with "bab" talk and the Republican Party. (No offense intended.)

Name of the 8 pound, two ounce child was John Thomas. His three-year-old brother is Robert.

The odds are stiff for the Maui candidates since the law prevents the Valley Island from having more than six seats on the Board of Representatives. 11 candidates from Maui. Also to be eliminated is one of seven Democrat House candidates for the House of Representatives.

Democrat voters will choose six from the following seven: Ray F. Adams, "Elmer F. Cravalho, John E. Pires, Henry M. Silva, Mrs. Lillian Thompson, "David K. Trask Jr. and "Naduo Yoshinaga.

Hints on your Health

By DR. FOOK HING TONG
(County Health Officer)

HEARING (I)
Back in the days when I was learning my ABCs, there were only a few ways to find out if a youngster was having trouble hearing. One was simple to notice if a child didn't hear what was said to him and another was to see if a child could hear a watch or metronome ticking at various distances across a room. Both had one great drawback — hearing trouble was discovered only after it had already progressed pretty far.

Today we have a much better system known as audiometric testing. The test itself is one that many children enjoy. The child listens through earphones, then to an imaginary child seem to be part of an airplane pilot's equipment. As the child listens tones of varying pitch are sent through the earphones and the child must decide whether or not he can hear each tone.

The great advantage of this type of testing is that the equipment can send to the child's ears very high tones above 10,000 cycles on the musical scale. Loss of hearing begins with a failure to hear high tones. When older methods of testing hearing could find loss of only lower tones, the audiometric test is the beginning of trouble when low tones can still be heard and the child is not yet really deaf. Finding out that the high tones cannot be heard gives an invaluable warning that the child must have medical diagnosis and treatment before hearing loss progresses.

On Maui, the Maui Women's Club is doing wonderful volunteer work. The women have been taught to give the preliminary audiometric testing to children. Children who show some signs of hearing loss are then given additional tests by hearing technicians from the department of public instruction or the department of health. The Maui Women's Club merits a very hearty "thank you" for doing this important preliminary testing.

After preliminary tests and intensive and detailed second tests, his parents are notified. This is a signal for parents to take their child to their family physician or a specialist in hearing for diagnosis and treatment. In the great majority of cases, children's hearing can be preserved by prompt medical attention.

Here on Maui not too long ago notifications of hearing children who showed some hearing loss. Ninety percent of the parents took their children to a physician without delay. Maui obviously has a lot of very good parents. However, the other 10 percent of the children are still risking deafness.

When children with hearing loss are given a thorough examination and the physician makes his diagnosis, the news is good news about three out of four times. About three-fourths of children with hearing losses discovered early have the type of trouble that can be treated successfully so that real deafness can be prevented. For the smaller number of children who cannot be treated medically or surgically, early discovery is still a great benefit. In these cases special training can be started early in life so the child can grow up knowing, for example, lip reading. This early training cannot restore hearing but it can and does help a youngster to grow up able to communicate with others and with much less of the sense of isolation that could damage his whole emotional and personality adjustment.

I want to explain in more detail the type of hearing loss usually found in children but it's impossible to do that in a paragraph or two. We'll take that up in next week's column.

BPW Tour Group May Visit Maui

Two Yakima Members
'Overwhelmed' By Hospitality

Maui may be included in the post convention itinerary of the 1957 Western Regional Business & Professional Women's Convention tour next July, thanks to the preliminary efforts of an alert and aggressive Maui BPW member.

Mrs. Eva Dupont, a past Hawaii Federation secretary, successfully persuaded two Yakima, Washington, BPW members, the last at the recent ASTA Convention in Honolulu to come to Maui. She sold them MAUI, lock, stock and barrel.

Despite their very brief visit to Maui last Friday, Mrs. Claire Hillier and Mrs. Theo. Mays, a mother and daughter travel business team, were "simply thrilled and overwhelmed" with Maui Hospitality.

They were met at Kahului Airport by Mrs. Helen Foss, Mrs. Dupont, Abia Davison, Lucille Berg and Fumie Shimizu, members of the Maui Club, and were specially entertained at the airport by the Maui Island Tour Orchestra and the Kupahua and their bus troupe.

They were presented with orchid corsages, coconut hats, pineapples, Hawaiian candles, and less by various members of the Maui BPW for presentation to the Yakima Club women who were scheduled to meet Tuesday night (October 2).

Mrs. Hillier and her daughter purchased Hawaiian muumuu, pakemuu, and sarongs, and learned to dance the "Hula-hula," which they expect to perform before BPW members throughout Washington State. They also hope to visit at many local clubs in Washington State and show slides of Hawaii.

As operators of the Central Washington Travel Bureau Mrs. Hillier and Mrs. Mays expect to bring 300 Washington State BPW members to Hawaii next July for the Western Regional Biennial BPW Convention.

Two Polio Cases On September Diseases List

Two paralytic poliomyelitis cases, the first to be reported in Maui County this year, head the list of diseases reported to the Maui County Health Department in September by physicians on Maui, Molokai, and Lanai.

The monthly report issued by Dr. F. H. Tong, County health officer, reveals that both cases occurred on Maui. He also pointed out that one case of non-paralytic poliomyelitis was reported in February.

Other cases reported by Maui physicians follow: Chick-pox, 1; diphtheria, 1; impetigo, 6; measles, 2; German measles, 1; pneumonia, 4; syphilis, 1; tuberculosis, 2; and typhus fever.

The first visit to Hawaii and Maui for Mrs. Mays. It was the fifth visit for Mrs. Hillier, who first came to Hawaii about 20 years ago, when travel between the islands was by boat.

According to Mrs. Mays, TPA Aloha Airlines has already offered to assist them in promoting the convention in Honolulu by sending a delegation of the Hawaiian entertainers for the Washington State Board meeting in January.

A past Yakima Club president, Mrs. Mays is also the recipient of the BPW Woman of Achievement Award.

HIA Seeks Irrigation Job Funds

Application Made For Loan To Construct
Molokai Project

Steps have been taken by the Hawaii Irrigation Authority to make the Molokai irrigation project a reality.

At a meeting held on September 29, the commissioners directed Manager-Chief Engineer H. Herschler to make an application for a loan of $5 million for construction of the project through the Soil Conservation Survey office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, as provided for by the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act.

Under this Act, which was recently amended by Congress to include irrigation projects, federal funds can be made available up to $5 million for irrigation projects not exceeding the cost of $10 million.

The estimated cost of the Molokai irrigation project with a tunnel to Waikolu Valley is $7 million.

The commissioners also decided to discuss with Delegate Farrington the advisability of introducing a special bill in Congress for federal financing of the Molokai project.

They are of the opinion that both methods of federal financing of the project should be followed through to determine which would provide the greater benefits to the Territory.

Safety Course Attended By 3 HCGS Men

Three supervisory personnel of the HC&S Co. were among 250 safety men who attended the safety course presented in Honolulu by the U. S. Department of Labor recently.

They are Al Clayton, assistant safety coordinator; Alex Milikin, central shops superintendent; and William Foster, safety coordinator.

The course was conducted by Jacob Gold, federal safety consultant from Washington, D. C.

Molokai physicians submitted a combined report for the months of August and September. It showed a total of 183 cases, including 171 of influenza and 21 of mumps. One case of tuberculosis was reported in September.

Lahai had no disease cases in September, according to Dr. Tong's report.

Kansas Twister Visits Valley Island Friday

Kansas residents on Maui who happened to be looking out over the Central Maui plain about 2 p.m. Friday suddenly felt a sharp pang of homesickness as they saw rising into the high clouds a real old-fashioned rain cloud.

The twisting formation of dust apparently emanated from a recently-harvested field in the Punene-Spreckelsville area and, according to Mrs. J. M. Hendershot and Mrs. Erling P. Wick, from whose home the phenomenon was witnessed and reported to The Maui News, the twister rose into the air in perfect formation for more than 500 feet.

Before a camera could be brought into focus, however, the stranger disappeared into the clouds hanging over Haleakala.

G. Stanley McKenzies Visit Frank Hoogs At Their Waipuku Home

Mr. and Mrs. G. Stanley McKenzie of Los Angeles, where Mr. McKenzie is president of Creameries of America, were visitors on Maui last week with Mr. McKenzie's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoogs of Waipuku.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoogs entertained a few old and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie at cocktails to meet the visitors last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were residents of Honolulu for more than 30 years while he was head of Dairymen's Association.

They returned to Hawaii twice yearly and always include a Maui visit in their itinerary.

Mrs. Brown Is Violin, General Music Teacher

Maui will have only one music supervisor, instead of five as announced in the last issue of The Maui News.

The Maui supervisor, whose title is violin instructor and general music teacher, is Mrs. James Brown, of Kahului.

Her program this year will include five schools in Central Maui, according to Franklyn E. Skinner, district superintendent of schools. Mr. Skinner is confident that Mrs. Brown can do a great deal to get the program established.

The board of commissioners of the department of public instruction recently approved five traveling music teachers in a new program for Hawaii's public schools. The original release said "five music supervisors for the island of Maui were approved."

Lahaina Youth In Jail For Assault, Battery

A 20-year-old Lahaina youth is now serving six months in the County Jail following conviction on a charge of assault and battery.

Alfred Thomas Arellano was sentenced to one year in jail by Wailuku Magistrate Andrew H. Wong. Six months of the sentence, however, was suspended for one year.

The prisoner was convicted of attacking a 38-year-old woman, who offered him a ride near Olowalu.

The Maui News erroneously stated that the youth's sentence was wholly suspended.

Miss Canubida Wins Molokai Scholarship

KANAKAKAI, Molokai, Oct. 4.—The Molokai Chamber of Commerce has awarded a scholarship to Miss Mercedes Canubida, of Kula, to the St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing.

Miss Canubida, who began her nurse training at St. Francis on August 20, was a straight A student while she attended Sacred Heart Academy on Oahu. The Chamber of Commerce scholarship, together with Mercedes, a Phil-American scholarship which she also received, will pay the full tuition and board and room fees for Miss Canubida's three years of nurse training.

The Chamber of Commerce awards the scholarship to a Molokai girl interested in nursing, who is able to meet the qualifications of nursing school and who agrees to return to Molokai for 2 years of work at the Molokai Community Hospital. (LB)

Engagement Of Emily Medeiros Is Revealed

Mrs. Lucille Medeiros of Wailuku last week announced the engagement of her daughter, Emily Mae (Miss Aloha Maui, 1955) to PFC Marion P. Fernandez Jr., USMC, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion P. Fernandez Sr. of Pala.

The marriage is planned for November 24, this year.

Miss Medeiros, whose father was the late Jason Medeiros, is a 1954 graduate of Baldwin High School. She served for three years in "The Sweethearts of the Valley" and was also the winner in the Miss Libby contest in 1953.

After bowing out as Maui's hostess at the Maui County Fair last year, she took up a sales position with Sears and Roebuck, distributors of electrical appliances, in Honolulu. She later had charge of selling crews making door-to-door visits.

PFC Fernandez has one year more to serve in the Marine Corps. He attended St. Anthony School and was formerly employed at the Maui Pineapple Company.

The young people, while both Valley Islanders, did not meet until they were living in Honolulu.

Hospitalers To Provide Aide For Pathologist

Six of the eight members present at the meeting of the Trustees of the Maui Community Hospital on Monday night granted a request made by Dr. Clifford Moran, pathologist, for the service of an assistant for autopsy work.

On motion of Mrs. Ellen Townsley, seconded by Dr. Frank A. St. Sure Jr., the Trustees referred to Administrator Thomas Vance the assignment of a hospital employee as Dr. Moran's assistant.

Voting no were Thomas Yagi and William DeRigo. Mr. Yagi said he objected to Dr. Moran's "take it or leave it" attitude, referring to the pathologist's statement that he could get along with or without an assistant. Mr. DeRigo contended that John Amaral, hospital laundry worker, should be given the job because he is a license mortician.

Dr. Moran informed the Trustees that he wanted "someone who will work with me... and do what I tell him to do." He added that the assistant would be spending about 12 hours a month on autopsy work.

MHC To Hold Demonstration On Gift Ideas

A demonstration of Christmas gift ideas by local home demonstration agents will be presented at the Maui Home Council meeting at 1:30 p.m. today (Saturday), at the Wailuku Hongwanji Mission.

Mrs. Mary Oda, council president, is asking representatives of all clubs to bring home-made Christmas articles for display at the meeting.

The business phase of the meeting will include discussion on the council's participation at the 34th Maui County Fair next week and the local achievement day program scheduled for November 11.

BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN

We're back in the saddle again. By half-past eight in the morning everyone has left for school, and I am left alone with breakfast dishes, laundry, and sundries.

Seven is the first one back. After school the first day she came home, took an apple from the cupboard, climbed on my lap and said, "I love second grade!" She changed her clothes and went outdoors barefooted, to find the first autumn leaves for her teacher.

Glenn and Thirteen came home next. Thirteen goes to the school where Glenn teaches, so they travel together. We looked at her new books (remember your clean, home next. Thirteen goes to the school where Glenn teaches, so they travel together. We looked at her new books (remember your clean,

Ambulance Pool Rules Announced

Hospitalers Approve Recommendations On Drivers' Duties

Recommendations submitted by the special committee on the duties of ambulance drivers were accepted by Maui Community Hospital's trustees at the semi-monthly meeting held Monday night at the Memorial Hospital.

The mimeographed report signed by Thomas Yagi, chairman, and William DeRigo and William Sakamoto, members, pointed out that "your committee doubts that all of the drivers are fully satisfied with this statement (but) . . . is of the opinion that the recommendations are in the best interests of the drivers themselves and the patients of the hospital."

The recommendations, drafted by the committee after a meeting with all drivers and with Administrator Thomas Vance on September 20, follow:

1.—That the ambulance pool organization on an 8-hour day and 40-hour week be continued.

2.—That drivers continue to operate telephone switchboard on 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. shift, and that special duties performed in conjunction with this shift be continued; that is, admitting patients, turning on the boiler, turning on the steam in the kitchen, and raising the flag, etc.

3.—That the specific reference to floor duty be discontinued in favor of the terminology "essential services." It is the belief of the committee that this change will eliminate much of the fear on the part of the ambulance drivers that other assigned duties will result in lowering their classifications.

4.—That the time schedule of duties shall be worked out by the supervising ambulance driver and that the head of the nursing service on duty shall assign the essential service duties.

5.—That enemas and catheterization be eliminated from the duties of employees in the ambulance pool since such duties might interfere with quick response to ambulance calls. No other effort, however, was made by your committee to delineate "essential services." The committee was of the opinion that these would have to be worked out by Miss Bepu, Mrs. Higa and the supervising nurses in accordance with the basic principles enumerated in the foregoing.

HC&S Mills Break 24-Hour Grinding Record

A new grinding record for the plantation was set by the HC&S's Puenene and Paila mills during a 24-hour period commencing at 6 a.m. on September 19, when 8,603 tons of net cane were ground.

Contributing to the record were 5,342 tons ground at Puenene and 3,278 tons ground at Paila. Neither of these amounts were records for the respective mills, but combined they added up a new high.

Farmers May Get Loans For Buildings, Repairs

Eligible farm owners in Maui county may borrow from the Farmers Home Administration to build or repair farm houses and other essential farm buildings, George C. Raymond, the agency's county supervisor serving local farm families said this week.

He said the farm housing loans were made available under recent legislation. A total of $50,000,000 has been provided for these loans.

Interest on the loans will be 4 percent per year on the unpaid principal. Repayments will be scheduled over periods up to 35 years.

A housing loan will be secured by a mortgage on the borrower's farm.

"The agency expects applicants to obtain the building plans and specifications for the improvements to be financed with the loans," Mr. Raymond said. "To help the borrower obtain construction that meets generally accepted standards of soundness, the Farmers Home Administration will review the plans and inspect the construction as it progresses."

"The local Farmers Home Administration county committee will determine whether or not an applicant is eligible for a housing loan. To be eligible, an applicant must be the owner of a farm, be unable to obtain suitable credit for dwellings and other buildings from other lenders, and have enough income from the farm or from the farm and other sources to meet family living and farm operating expenses and repay his debts.

Farm housing loans are made under the authority of Title V of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended.

Further information on the loans may be obtained at the County office of the Farmers Home Administration located in the Wadsworth Building at the corner of High and Wells streets in Wailuku.

Temporary Court Clerk Post For Lahaina Okayed

A position of temporary clerk (SR-3) for the Lahaina District Court was created by the Board of Supervisors at its Wednesday meeting.

The Board created the position following a request from Magistrate George K. Hasegawa, who said that his permanent clerk will be on vacation from October 8 to November 9.

It is imperative and essential that this Court has a temporary clerk for 1 as the magistrate, will not be able to perform two duties simultaneously," Magistrate Hasegawa wrote.

In other matters, the Board: 1—Requested the Territory to forward to Maui County a total of $21,000 to pay for plans and specifications for the Waihee School and the Maui High School cafeteria. Both jobs are Act 280 projects.

2—Requested the Territorial Department of Health to study the water shortage problem at Maunaloa, Molokai.

Small Crowd At Democrat Rally On Pine Island

By ALFRED HEE
LANAI CITY, Oct. 4—The Democrats staged their primary campaign rally before a small crowd at the Lanai Community Welfare Association gymnasium on Thursday night, September 27.

Most of the candidates stressed the fact that the Democrat Party was offering the people of Maui County the choice of candidates for the primary election, in contrast to the Republican party's slate.

Goro Hokama, supervisor from Lanai, was master of ceremony. He attacked Governor King's unsuccessful attempt to slash funds earmarked for Lanai High School.

Robert Shimada, candidate for the Board of Supervisors, went on record to support more road construction on Lanai.

Specialist Uemura entered the Army in June 1954 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

Kiwanians To Treat Youngsters

Children's Home Boys And Girls Bound For Fair

Arrangements have been completed by the Kiwanis Club of Kahului to make Children's Day at the Maui County Fair (Friday, October 12) a memorable one for the youngsters at the Maui Children's Home.

The underprivileged children's committee, headed by Edward K. Tam as chairman, is handling the project.

The Kiwanians will provide the youngsters with bus transportation to and from the Children's Home. The bus will leave the Home at about 9:30 a.m. on Friday. The return trip is scheduled after the Maui High-Lahaina football game at the fair.

While at the fair, the youngsters will be accompanied by Kiwanians, who have arranged for them to receive free admission to the grounds, plus candied apples, hot dogs, maladas, and Joy Zone rides, the latter through the courtesy of E. K. Fernandez. They will also be admitted free to the football game.

In addition, the children will be provided with spending money by the Kiwanians.

Plans for this project were adopted by the club's board of directors on Monday night, and approved by the membership on Tuesday.

500 Attend GOP Rally Saturday On West Side

LAHAINA, Oct. 4—Republicans drew larger crowds than the Democrats in primary campaign rallies staged by the rival parties on the West Side over the weekend.

The Republican candidates spoke to about 100 citizens at Honolulu Theater on Saturday afternoon, and addressed a crowd of 500 at Malu-ulu-ole Park that night.

The Democrats called off their scheduled Sunday afternoon rally at Honolulu Theater due to a lack of listeners. Their rally at Malu-ulu-ole Park that night attracted 350 listeners, but only a handful were present when the street lights went out at 10 p.m., a few minutes before the close of the program. (CSA).

MUSIC

... Hath Charms

Our primary item this week of course concerns the opening of the local concert season tonight (Saturday), Leonard Pennario, gifted young American piano virtuoso, will perform at 8 p.m. at Baldwin.

He gave two matinees for our school audiences Friday afternoon. This year the Philharmonic is offering a four-concert package deal to the schools in order both to reduce the cost to the students and also to try to get some advance estimate as to the number of students from each participating school who wish to attend, so as to make maximum use of the available seating. We hope this is acceptable to the schools: from where we sit it seems like the only equitable way of adjusting the desires and needs of the various schools to the limited space available. We only wish the same situation prevailed with regard to the evening adult performances!

The meagre attendances these last few years at the evening concerts has been not only discouraging to the officers of the Philharmonic, but an unfortunate waste of cultural opportunity by the Maui public. Of course, the Philharmonic officers can quit any time and save themselves the headaches, but there is no remedy for the lost opportunities.

And while we are in the business of selling Maui to visitors, our poor evening audiences are un-selling the Valley Isle culturally. What would you think if you were a talented artist and played to around 2,000 children in the afternoon, but found that in the evening only about 150-200 of the parents were even interested to find out what their children had been listening to, let alone taking advantage of one of the extremely limited local opportunities to hear a live concert? Well, that's what the artist thinks — and he travels and he talks. Nuff said.

After complementing one of our bands recently for breaking off its music when play was resumed on the football field, we were pained to observe the hands the next weekend blithely playing on after time was in again of the field. You know, fellows, finishing a piece isn't that important. And

Europe In Postwar Comeback

Otto Hasse Speaks On Recovery To Rotarians

Europe is in the midst of a remarkable postwar reconstruction program that is working miracles throughout the war-torn areas. Otto Hasse, longtime Maui resident and member of the DPT, told members of the Maui Rotary Club at their noon meeting Wednesday at the Country Club.

Illustrating his address with slides taken on his Summer tour, Mr. Hasse gave a brief travelogue on the progress he and the famous Zander Zee, he said, is being steadily drained and the land recovered for agriculture. This entails building dikes, pumping sea water, and flushing the land to remove embedded salt.

The Maui Tech teacher had been visiting his daughter in Scotland during the vacation months. Together with Mrs. Hasse he toured the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Scandinavia, Switzerland, and Italy.

His slides covered the major points of scenic and historic interest in these countries which he accompanied with a short verbal description of the history and points of interest behind the places he showed. The local clubmen were most intrigued with Mr. Hasse's slide of the leaning tower of Pisa. Still slipping because of a weak foundation, the tower in Mr. Hasse's pictures stood at a frightening angle.

Tom Whitcraft, new head of Maui's Haleakala National Park, was introduced to the Club as a new member by Karl Berg.

Judges Named For Preserved Fruit Exhibit

Judges for the preserved fruit section of the forthcoming Maui County Fair have been selected by the Kahului U.E. Club, according to Mrs. Constance Kekuna, president-elect of the organization. The Kahului Club is in charge of the preserved fruit section.

Judges appointed were: Jeanette Browning, Mrs. Gertrude Milne, Mrs. Chieko Wong, Mrs. Takayo Kobayashi, Mrs. Hisao Onishi, and Mrs. Kiyoko Noda. The appointments were made at the Monday meeting of the club.

At that meeting 1957 officers were elected by the group. The new officers are Mrs. Kekuna, president; Mrs. Dorothy Hayashi, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Shimada, secretary; and Mrs. Kimie Kamitaki, treasurer.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Lily Tom of the Kahului 4-H Club.

Kahului School PTA To Stage Benefit Movie

To raise funds to carry out plans for the coming year, the Kahului School PTA is staging a benefit movie, "Naked Jungle," at Kin Theater in Wailuku on October 19 and 20. The program will include a school talent show.

The PTA is sending eight delegates to the Hawaii Congress of Parents and Teachers convention in Honolulu on October 26 and 27. They are: Frank Takahashi, William Chang, Soren Yogi, Kenneth Kubo, Hilda Akana, Elizabeth Murray, Sam Goo, and Ethel Miyahira.

Cecilia Soule, Yoshito Inamatsu and Leo Kupo are the alternate delegates.

Two Injured In Car-Pole Crash Near Makawao

Two persons were slightly injured at about 5:55 p.m. Thursday when the car they were riding in ran off the Haleakala Highway and crashed into an electric pole.

Injured were John Kahahane, 18, the driver, and Gerald Andrade, 16. Both were treated at the Central Maui Memorial Hospital and released.

Police said the accident occurred about one mile North of Makawao Avenue. Damage to the car was estimated at $300.

VOTERS OF MAUI COUNTY:

Your generous support in the last election made it possible for me to have the honor to become the first member of the Board of Supervisors from the island of Lanai.

I want to thank each and every one of you for this honor, and my special thanks to those who worked so untriflingly on my behalf.

I have tried—to the very best of my ability—to work for the County of Maui as a whole.

When you go to the polls today, October 6, I humbly ask that you seriously consider Goro Hokama, and if you feel he has honestly worked for better government, please give me your vote of confidence. Thank you again.

Democratically yours,

Hawaiiana Exhibits At Fair

Historical Society To Handle Display And Demonstrations

A new exhibit will be featured in the Hawaiian Building at the Maui County Fair this year.

The space formerly occupied by the photography section will be used by the revitalized Maui Historical Society for displays and demonstrations of Hawaiiana.

According to Mrs. Richard Thomas, who is in charge of the Historical Society committee handling the exhibit, there will be demonstrations in lei making by Mrs. Rebecca Kaopuki, Mrs. Mary Aikau, Mrs. Keala Aikau, Mrs. Rebecca Morlon, and Mrs. Margaret Silva. Alice Johnson is in charge of getting the flowers for the leis.

Mrs. Eloise Richards, David Kaohokuie and J. Pia Cockett will demonstrate Hawaiian medical herbs and describe their uses.

On display will be Hawaiiana design quilts made by Mrs. Louise Cummings and wooden saddle hand-carved by William DeRego.

The special attraction will be photographs of petroglyphs found by the Waihehu Stream, and petroglyphs at Olouli; paintings of petroglyph figures by Miss Maim Cameron; sketches of the Halekili Heiau by Solomon Moike; and cases of Hawaiian art objects found on Lanai and borrowed from the Bishop Museum.

The petroglyphs, found only on Maui, show how the Hawaiians used red ochre clay to draw on the rocks.

Also on display will be photographs of the soon-to-be-restored Halekili Heiau. These were taken by Wesley Wain, Ted Hotta and Stephen Okada.

A great Hawaiian holiday flag will dominate the end of the building, according to Mrs. Thomas. She also said that Mr. 4-Mutt show will fill out membership cards for people interested in joining the Maui Historical Society.

Fujimura In Chicago

PFC Walter S. Fujimura, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Fujimura of Punahoa, is assigned to the 5th Machine Records Unit in Chicago.

Children's Fair Day Plans Told

Armed Forces Sending Entertainers For Friday Program

Entertainment by representatives of the armed forces will be featured on Children's Day (Friday, October 12) at the 34th Maui County Fair.

The program also includes a contest of awards to winners in the Fire Prevention Week essay competition, a show, and the treasure hunt, according to Morley Nakamura, Paia School principal, who is chairman of Children's Day events.

James Fujimoto of Baldwin High School and Principal Thomas Furukawa of Punahoa School are serving on Mr. Nakamura's committee.

The committee has announced that the talent show and folk dancing program will not be held. These are being replaced by the armed forces program, which includes a concert by the Air Force band from 6:15 to 9:30 a.m., Army Scout Dog Platoon demonstration at 9:45 a.m., and a performance by the Women's Air Force drill platoon at 10:15.

The Children's Day program is to be presented in front of the grandstand starting at 9 a.m. Tentative order of events follows:

- 1 — Patriotic ceremony. Presentation of colors, West of the Hawaiian Islands, the Flag, led by Sally Shimamoto of Paia School, and "America," by audience, led by Masami Hirakawa.
- 2 — Presentation of awards for Fire Prevention Week essay contest sponsored by the Maui Chamber of Commerce. The General Insurance Association of Maui is awarding a $25 bond and $10 cash prize to first and second place winners respectively in the grammar school and the high school divisions of the contest.
- 3 — Air Force Band concert.
- 4 — Scout show.
- 5 — Army Scout Dog Platoon.
- 6 — WAF Drill Platoon.
- 7 — Treasure hunt, followed by opening at 11 a.m. of Joy Zone.

Maui's school children are also participating in the hobby show to be held in conjunction with the Fair. The schools will hold their own contests on Tuesday. The contest at the Fair will be sponsored by the Kiwanis clubs of Maui and Kahului and judging is scheduled for 9 a.m. on Thursday, October 10.

Only entries receiving ribbons in school shows will be accepted by the Kiwanis. There will be two classes of hobbies, creative and collected. Also at the Fair will be the Kiwanis arrangements done by the school children. The schools will hold their contests on Tuesday, with the prize-winning exhibits being entered in the Fair competition on Friday.

UE Notes...

Porttown Club
The Kahului Porttown University Extension Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Onizuka on September 17.

President Betty Akiyama called the meeting to order, and the usual order of business was reversed by having the demonstration before the business portion due to the project being "Pot-Luck" dishes, which involved some time in preparing. This project was demonstrated by Mrs. Hayato Yasuoka and Mrs. Yasuo Onizuka, who were also the hostesses for refreshments.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected to serve for the year 1967: President, Mrs. Robert Onizuka; vice president, Mrs. Yasuo Onizuka; secretary, Mrs. Akiko Saito; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry Shishido; treasurer, Mrs. Seichi Machida; reporter, Mrs. Noboru Onizuka; project leader, Mrs. Teruichi Akiyama; and recreation leader, Mrs. Takeru Yori-moto.

An important project for the club members will be the sponsoring of a new 4-H club for girls in Kahului. Mrs. Rose Kurihara will head this program with all the members cooperating. (AK)

Holy Innocents Episcopal Church

"I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the House of the Lord." Psalm 122. Services this Sunday: 7 a.m. Holy Communion; 8:45 a.m. Family Worship and Sunday School; 10 a.m. Holy Communion and sermon.

Thomas Nakata and Dan Serra were the acolytes at the early service last Sunday. Carson Wright, Danny Wright, and Stuart Hanchett at the Family Worship, and Ronald DeMello at the late service.

The Vestry will meet in the parish hall this Sunday after the 10 a.m. service.

We were pleased to have as our guests at the late service last Sunday, Vera Lindberg, Lucille Ball, and Lucille Rockett.

The third lecture on basic Christianity will deal with the Incarnation and the Atonement. These classes are being given by the Vicar each Wednesday evening in the vicarage, beginning at 7:15.

Kaolu Imamura has seven several linen purificators for use in the Communion service and has given them to the church. They are very well made and we thank her for her gift.

A great deal was accomplished by the group who met in the parish hall last Friday evening to work on articles for the bazaar. While some of the folk were busy engaged with sewing, another group applied themselves to preparing several gallons of onions. These Friday evening affairs have been fun.

The Girls' Friendly Society participated in a very lovely Candlelight service last Friday evening as its officers and members were officially received into the national organization. The Vicar served as installing officer and Irene Asato, the advisor, presented the girls who make up the unit. They are: Suzanne Hanchett, Leinani Leong, Diane Ueda, Pamela DeMello, Peter Libed, Amy Nakata, Jean Nakata, and Robin Hirasima.

The islandwide meeting with Bishop Kennedy takes place next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the Church of the Good Shepherd. The Vestries and any other interested persons will meet with the Bishop and members of his staff, while the women meet with Barbara Oes, Diocesan Secretary, and Mrs. Lawrence Ozaki.

The Vicar and his family, the Rudolph Donnan family, and the Thomas Nakata family spent Sunday afternoon at Camp Pecos cutting grass and doing other odd jobs at the camp site. The DuTrell family stopped in and lent a helping hand also. The grounds looked very good when the work was completed.

Sally Ann DeMello remembered her birthday with coins in the Birthday Thank Offering box last Sunday morning. The congregation all joined in with a birthday prayer for her.

The last Saturday in October has been set aside as a "grass planting" day at Camp Pecos. Members from the three Episcopal Churches on Maui are being asked to turn out and help with planting the remainder of the bare areas with grass and also to plant a hedge along a portion of the boundary.

A number of the women met in the parish hall this past Tuesday and spent the day sewing articles for the Bazaar. Through the courtesy of Maui Sewing Center, two Singer sewing machines were loaned to the church to help with the sewing. We are grateful to them for their kindness. Mrs. Johansen is in charge of the sewing committee.

St. John's Episcopal Church in Kula is having their annual Christmas supper and bazaar on November 3. It is always a very fine affair.

See you in church this Sunday. . . AND EVERY SUNDAY.

Baha'i World Faith

"The divine power, in its fullness, penetrates the universe at all times, but each existent being shows forth this power only to its own degree."

"Now the Holy Spirit is a force which surpasses in its energy and influence any force which man of himself can produce or imagine. As the sun is more powerful than anything upon the earth, and all the forces of the earth are but shadows or emanations of the sun, so the Holy Spirit is more powerful in the world of being than any human faculty. The Holy Spirit is a universal and the divine power, which cannot be known by any faculty in its universality. Rather does it awaken and inspire the faculties of the dormant soul, as the sun in springtime awakes and inspires the faculties that sleep in the earth."

"Entering the heart wherein it is invited, the Holy Spirit brings life and light; light to discern the true spiritual Self; life that animates and inspires the spiritual faculties to conscious activity."

"The underlying principle of existence is the unity of God. We live in a creation which revolves around an omnipotent will and reflects one harmonious purpose."

OUR PRESIDENTS

Born July 4, 1872, Plymouth, Vermont, son of a farmer who also ran a country store. He graduated from Amherst College, 1894, where he was awarded a prize in national competition among college seniors for the best essay on causes of the War of Independence. Studied law in Northampton, Massachusetts; admitted to the bar in 1897.

He made his way from the bottom rung of the political ladder. At 27, elected member of city council, Northampton; at 28, city solicitor; at 32, clerk of courts; at 35, a state legislator; at 38, mayor; at 40, a U.S. senator; at 44, Lieutenant Governor. When he was Governor in 1919, his stand against the Boston police strike gained him national prominence. Re-elected by the Republicans, and was promoted to the Presidency by the death of Harding.

Sparing with words and apparently cold, he wore his honors simply and quietly. He displayed shrewdness and a shy common sense in language that was often dryly humorous and always terse. Did much to help a popular understanding of government. Broke all records in the number of times he vetoed laws passed by Congress. Insisted on federal economy. Paid no attention to what others thought except those in whose principles he also believed. Acept those in whose principles he also believed. Acept those in whose principles he also believed.

He was sworn in by his father on the native farm as thirtieth President of the United States August 3, 1923. By the election of 1924 he became the second Vice President elevated to the Presidency by death to receive the office later from the people. During his administration settlement was made for payments of debts owed the U. S. by war-time allies; the national debt and taxes were reduced; the Kellogg-Briand treaties, outlawing war, were signed at Paris. Prosperity, previously unequalled, existed. It was taken for granted that the Republicans would ignore the third term tradition and renominate him, but in 1928 he issued the statement: "I do not choose to run." He retired to Northampton and wrote articles, dying January 5, 1933, aged 60.

Saturday Sermonette

By REV. ISAMU MORITA (Pastor, Puuene Congregational Church) "SMALL BEGINNINGS"

Text: "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed..." (13:31).

I am sure most of us have not seen what a mustard looks like, but that is all right, we all have seen the seed of some plant—that of a mango, pear, beans, lettuce, cabbage, etc. The mustard seed must resemble the lettuce or cabbage seed, more than it does the mango seed or pear seed because Jesus tells us that this is the smallest of all the seeds in the region of Palestine.

In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus tells us that the kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed. This is an interesting statement to make, for we do not yet have a glimpse of how a place that is really going to be God-like, looks like. And here Jesus says that it is like a grain of mustard seed.

As we look at any seed, one of its outstanding characteristics is its smallness. However, once it is planted, it does not take long before it grows and grows until it attains a mighty growth.

Jesus is saying that the work of God or the Christian movement is like this in its beginning, the period when the Gospel is planted into the hearts of men will be small and look small. It really was this way when God's kingdom was planted among us in the form of a Baby born in a manger, a Teacher teaching on the hillside, a condemned man crucified on the cross, and the empty grave. As we look at all these events none of them was spectacular, but all of them were events which normally happened within the life of a community. These in other words were considered "tiny seeds" out of which nothing great could come in this vast world.

But the parable has proved its truth, for these "tiny seeds" have risen to a mighty growth. The tiny beginnings in Galilee have grown to such an extent that there are millions of Christians today with thousands and thousands of churches in every land. In the name of Jesus there are many medical missions, and there are many medical mission stations. There is a tremendous amount of good being done by the "tiny seed" which has been planted in Galilee long ago, and the "seed" has sprung forth into a mighty growth.

Let us take heart from this parable, and although we too are "tiny seeds" cast upon this vast world and may seem small our efforts will mushroom into a mighty growth if it is of the kingdom of heaven.

The first newspaper in It was Nathan Hale who Pittsburgh was the Pittsburgh-Gazette founded in 1786 by one I regret that I have but said I love to lose for my country."
