About C4wards @ KCC and Mihalana‘au

C4wards (Collaborative Circles for Creative Change) at Kapi‘olani Community College are groups of faculty and/or staff who,

- share a concern or passion for something they do or want to do
- want to not only learn from each other but grow their learning together with the ultimate objective of doing it better
- work with a dual emphasis on learning and some kind of product
- have meetings/gatherings that are facilitated by a concierge, who will help organize, schedule, summarize, focus.

Mihalanaau, which means “flowing quietly along, as a current, silent and quiet, knowing that something great has come upon us,” is a C4ward made up of diverse faculty who are passionate about integrating place-based/culture-based content into course curriculum to promote learning that is rooted in Hawai‘i and Hawaiian values.
