Construction Notice

A construction project in Laboratory Building Room E238 will start today, Nov. 14, and run until Jan. 6, 2017. While the contractors will be very careful in scheduling their activities to minimize impacts to the campus, please be aware of the ever-changing physical environment during this time. Please be cognizant of barricades placed by the contractor on roadways and locations throughout the building, as they identify areas of construction activity or material staging. A concerted effort will be made by the contractor to maintain access but there will be times where access to certain areas may be restricted and may necessitate the use of alternate routes. Your continued patience, cooperation, and understanding is appreciated. Our primary concern is for your health and safety. Notices of future (electrical/fire alarm/AC system) outages associated with the project will be sent separately. Should you have any questions or concerns, or see any unsafe conditions, please do not hesitate to contact the Planning and Campus Operations department.

Allied Health/Administration Building Groundbreaking

Don't forget to attend the groundbreaking ceremony for the Allied Health/Administration building on Monday, Nov. 28 at 10 a.m. near the turnaround at the entrance to the campus. The program includes remarks by Governor David Ige, UH President David Lassner, ASUHOWO President Isaiah Baclaan, and our own interim Chancellor Doris Ching.

La Ku'oko'a

UHWO will be honoring La Ku'oko'a - considered Hawaii's Independence Day - by raising the Hawaiian Flag at 9 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 28. Gather around the flag poles at the entrance of campus to participate in a short ritual facilitated by our PIKO ohana and members of Nalimakui and Pilialoha, our Hawaiian faculty & staff groups.

Excerpts from "La Kuokoa"

By Noenoe K. Silva, 1998

La Ku'oko'a - Hawai'i's Independence Day - was officially celebrated around the same time as Thanksgiving from about 1844 until 1895, and for some years afterwards unofficially. La Ku'oko'a is the 28th of November. It marks the day, November 28, 1843, that the Ali'i Timoteo Ha'alilio succeeded in obtaining the signatures of the authorities of Great Britain and France on a treaty recognizing Hawai'i as a sovereign nation. Ha'alilio, with the missionary William Richards along as his secretary, traveled through Mexico on foot and donkey to Washington D.C., where they met President John Tyler. President Tyler agreed to the intent of the proposed treaty. Ha'alilio and Richards, armed with his agreement, then went on to Europe, Belgium, Paris, and London, where the treaty was finally signed. They returned to the United States to cement U.S. agreement. On the journey Ke Ali'i Timoteo Ha'alilio died, on December 3, 1844.

Host a Session at Cram Jam

It's that time again! The No'eau Center is hosting Cram Jam, which is happening on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 29-Nov. 30, from 5 to 10 p.m.

If you feel that an after-hours study session would benefit your students, we invite you to host a session in helping your students prepare for their finals as part of the event. If you are interested, please fill out this Google form.

The deadline to submit a request is Sunday, Nov. 20.

We will arrange a space or a room depending on availability and will advertise the session. However, in the past there was higher attendance in sessions when professors provided incentives such as extra credit.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Rebecca Carino at rtcarino@hawaii.edu.

DE Tip of the Week - Blackboard Collaborate

When using Blackboard Collaborate, you may decide to have your students discuss a question or topic in smaller groups. You can provide smaller spaces for your groups by assigning Breakout Rooms. Through the Tools dropdown menu at the top of your screen you can choose to create a number of different breakout rooms to provide space for smaller discussions. Students can speak to each other, use a common white board and even use the video feature to communicate in their own space.
