

MEET THE PEOPLE

Confrontations on this week to Alexander Oana, who was appointed Acting Chief Engineer of the Maui Fire Department, in an ordinary manner. The fire department is a body of all the fighting forces of the County. The community is to be congratulated also, because the appointment should cause a reduction of fire insurance rates in Maui. Activities that was the promise of the underwriters.

One Ill-Fated Fisherman Still Missing in Ocean

After four days of weary and dangerous searching of the angry waters of Kahuku, the badly battered remains of Harold Fujimoto and the partial remains of Gilbert Hotta had been recovered by rescuers who had searched night and day. The body of the third member of Monday night's tragedy has not been found.

Enough of the remains of Mr. Hotta were recovered from a shark's mouth on Thursday by a party about the same time. The body of the third member of Monday night's tragedy has not been found.

HOTTA RITES SATURDAY

It was announced on Friday that the funeral services for Gilbert Hotta would be held at 10 a.m. today (Saturday) and that burial will follow at the Catholic cemetery. The last rites at the cemetery will take place about 11:30 a.m.

Territory Faced With Education Bankruptcy

Unless the public gets behind the efforts of four agencies to make a survey of the public schools, Hawaii is headed for an education bankruptcy within the next year, Mrs. George K. Kellerman, legislative chairman of the Hawaii Congress of the Puka-Union Club of Maui at their luncheon meeting Thursday at the Maui Hotel.

Mrs. Kellerman, a Honolulu attorney and housewife, urged that all groups get behind the joint enterprise of the Department of Public Instruction, the Parents and Teachers Association, the American Institute of Architects and the public works departments of the four counties. For the purpose of school facilities, Hawaii is headed for an education bankruptcy within the next year, Mrs. George K. Kellerman, legislative chairman of the Hawaii Congress of the Puka-Union Club of Maui at their luncheon meeting Thursday at the Maui Hotel.

Mrs. Kellerman said that children born in 1949 are the first to be born in the first grade now and will have to be educated in the public schools for the next 12 years. "It will be 1967 by

A car driven by a woman collided head-on with a light post on Thursday.

THE TOWNCRIBER Says

"Maybe all these years, I have been doing Johnny Buig a great injustice, for the long and loud hangers to his side at the board meetings, it must have been the chair he sits in and not Johnny that causes the trouble. Thursday night Senator Ben Dillingham sat in Buig's chair at the hospital hearing and from the long and loud oratory that came from him, it sounded just like Johnny."
