HISTORY REPEATED

From the landing of the first Polynesian canoes, the ocean has shaped the recreational pleasures of those who live on Oahu. Surfing, swimming, scuba diving and even sailboating are available at the Hale Koa, with equipment furnished for moderate rentals. Fully equipped locker rooms, showers, and sauna rooms are at beach level, as is a lava rock walled fresh water swimming pool.

FINEST SPORT FACILITIES

The Hale Koa schedules transportation to military golf courses, some of the finest in the world. Tennis and paddleball courts are available on the landscaped grounds, and expert personnel at a hotel travel desk can make arrangements for jaunts throughout the islands.

EVERY CONVENIENCE

Located in the lobby is the Special Activities Desk where you can purchase tickets to any Hale Koa show or make dining room reservations. The PX is on the lower level. Other

Hale Koa services include a car rental concession offering military rates, barber shop, beauty salon, flower shop, baby-sitting service, automatic ice dispensers and coin-operated laundry/dryer equipment.

A UNIQUE CONCEPT

The Hale Koa is unique, even in the way it was planned and financed. It was built for servicemen and women from their own funds... funds generated by profits from military clubs and exchanges worldwide. In short, the Hale Koa was built for Servicepeople by Servicepeople.

Hale Koa means "House of the Warrior" in the Hawaiian language. From the very beginning its successful goal has been to provide the best in resort facilities to all members of the military and their families, to all ranks and grades, retired and active.

HALE KOA—A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Because it lies at the center of Waikiki Beach, the hub of island activity, the Hale Koa serves as an economical "home base" for any off-duty hour.

Friendly get-togethers can happen by chance in the Mauka Lounge, or planned as a beachside party for 500 of your friends.

Whatever your personal style, you'll find the Hale Koa Hotel a home.
