ICS courses often use a lot of technology. Students need to be able to access course related technologies outside their classroom. This may require Internet access, proprietary software access (e.g. Microsoft Office 2010 on Windows PC), and/or specific hardware specifications to successfully use course applications. This ICS 100 (CRN 35227) class section does not transfer to UH Manoa. ICS 100 students may be required to purchase storage for electronic media to store data files and assignments created as course projects. SimNet is a required tutorial and homework application for this course. A license for its use is included with each new textbook purchased from KCC Bookstore. Students buying a used text or ordering one online which does not include the license will be required to purchase the program. For class information or other inquiries contact the instructor via email (tommoore@hawaii.edu).

Recommended Preparation: Keyboarding experience; credit or qualification for ENG 100, ENG 160, or ESL 100; credit or qualification for MATH 103 or higher level Mathematics. ICS courses often use a lot of technology. Students need to be able to access course related technologies outside their classroom. This may require Internet access, proprietary software access (e.g. Microsoft Office 2010 on Windows PC), and /or specific hardware specifications to successfully use course applications. This ICS 101 class section (CRN 35186) is required for Certificates of Completion in Programming, Database Administration, Help Desk Support Services, and Payroll Preparer. It also meets requirements for Shidler College of Business (UHM), College of Business at Hilo (UHH), School of Travel Industry Management (TIM), UHM's Biology program and Botany Department. Students are expected to provide their own USB compatible high density electronic storage media of minimum size specified by instructor (generally 128 MB). MyITLab is a required tutorial and homework application for this course. A license for its use is included with each new textbook purchased. Students buying a used text or ordering one online which does not include the license will be required to purchase the program.
