

Assignment 8

Please submit your answers in class on March 12.

Select 15 of the following 25 problems.

One or more subject heading strings may apply in each case. You should provide as many as you think apply. Your answers should be correctly coded and subfielded according the MARC21 bibliographic format guidelines at:

<http://www.oclc.org/bibformats/en/>

or

<http://www.loc.gov/marc/bibliographic/ecbdhome.html>

You will need to consult the LC Subject Authority File through OCLC Connexion and refer to all applicable instruction sheets from Subject Headings Manual SHM. See Selected subdivisions and instruction sheets from SHM on online syllabus.

Example: A book about second-generation Czech farmers in Texas—how they live and how they preserve some of their traditions from the old country. (Published 2009.)

650 _0 $a Czech Americans $z Texas $x Social life and customs.

650 _0 $a Farm life $z Texas.

651 _0 $a Texas $x Social life and customs.

1. A history of race discrimination in the United States from the end of the World War II to the present. (Published 2015.)
2. A book about economic conditions in the Philippines from 1990 to the present. Focuses particularly on the economic conditions of women in the Philippines during this period. (Published 2015.)
3. A monthly magazine for coin and stamp collectors. (Currently published; began publication a few years ago.)
4. A book about elementary school art education in New York City. (Published 1909.)

5. A pictorial book [almost completely pictures; the only text is publishing preliminaries, an introduction, and captions under the pictures] showing Nazi clothing and jewelry. [Note: Nazi are a minority ethnic group in China.] (Published 2008.)
6. A book about contemporary discrimination against mentally ill homeless people in Dade County, Florida. Also discusses the social history and sociology of that county since the beginning of the 20th century. (Published 2015.)
7. A novel about a group of friends who work together as programmers at Google. (Published 2010.)
8. A handbook on the proper drying of mushrooms. (Published 1724.)
9. A 2008 study of how ultraviolet radiation affected goose embryos on the Big Island of Hawai'i (Hawai'i Island). (Published 2009.)
10. An autobiography by the Library of Congress reference librarian Thomas Mann (author of Library research models). (Published 1998.)
11. A book about the homeopathic treatment of Lou Gehrig's disease in Sydney, Australia. (Published 2009.)
12. A book about orphans as characters in Charles Dickens's novels. (Published 2009.)
13. A book that presents statistics about Native Hawaiian students in the University of Hawai'i System. (Published 2012.)
14. A report about archaeological excavations of Navaho Indian sites in the Phoenix Arizona Metropolitan Area. (Published 2010.)
15. A book about the manners and customs of Hungarian Americans in the Yorkville neighborhood of New York City. (Published 2009.)
16. Edward Hopper's Greenwich Village [a book of art reproductions by Edward Hopper which feature Greenwich Village, New York City as their subject or background]. (Published 2009.)
17. Modern Hawaiian Cuisine at Alan Wong's Restaurant [a book of recipes] (Published 2009.)
18. Duck and goose recipes from Lutèce [a book of recipes from the restaurant by that name in NYC]. (Published 2009.)

19. Our travels around Southeast Asia by automobile and train / by Ice Cube and 50 Cent. (Published 2010.)
20. From Havana to Miami: an emigration and immigration study. (Published 2009.)
21. A study of the economic conditions of migrant workers in Texas. (Published 2009.)
22. A book about the eutrophication of Clear Lake, which is a lake in Cerro Gordo County, Iowa. (Published 2010.)
23. Diplomatic relations between Japan and China in the 1930s. (Published 2010.)
24. A book about Lady Gaga's bonsai collection. (Published 2010).
25. A children's book about the history of whaling. (Published 2007.)