This catalog contains general information about the program offerings at the University of Hawai'i - West O'ahu for the period of August 2008 to July 2009. This document is an attempt to summarize applicable policies and programs of UH West O'ahu, and is subject to change. Although every effort is made to keep this catalog correct and current, inevitably there will be some changes in courses and program requirements. It is highly recommended that you consult your faculty and/or Student Service advisors for the most current information. This catalog is not intended as a full compilation of regulations, policies, or programs, and should not be regarded as a legal contract between UH West O'ahu and the student. For further information, students should check with the University for details concerning other policies which could affect their specific enrollment or registration status.

The University reserves the right to make changes to the policies contained herein, including changes in tuition, fees, courses and programs; to cancel classes where necessary; to set maximum limits for enrollment in certain classes; and to discontinue services without prior notice. Notice of such changes will be given when possible.

A MESSAGE FROM CHANCELLOR GENE I. AWAKUNI

Aloha mai kākou,

On behalf of the University of Hawai'i – West O'ahu, I applaud your decision to make our university an important part of your life today and an important step in your future. You have entrusted us with your desire to make tomorrow more successful than yesterday. It is an honor for us to accept that responsibility and provide you with a high-quality education.

Somewhere along your journey to graduation, you will have challenges that, once overcome through shared experience with classmates, faculty and staff, will enrich you intellectually for the rest of your life. Make no mistake, higher education is something to be cherished and can never be taken lightly by our students or our institution. That is why you will have the benefit of some of the most renowned faculty in their fields. They have been educated at some of the top universities in our country and could teach anywhere but have chosen to teach at UH West O'ahu.

Our communities can take pride in knowing that we take seriously the importance of diversity, never forgetting the value of shared aloha that binds our island communities together and strengthens our families. If you are nearing graduation this year, I wish you continued success as you complete your journey with us. If this is the first year of your college career, know that you are not alone in your path to graduation; that all of our faculty and staff are here to ensure you obtain your degree. Again, welcome to the UH West O'ahu ohana. Have a wonderful year!

Mahalo,

Gene I. Awakuni
Chancellor, UH West O'ahu

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of UH West O'ahu is to become a four-year, comprehensive university with an emphasis on baccalaureate education founded in the liberal arts, serving professional, career-related, and applied fields, based on State and regional needs. UH West O'ahu is committed to providing access to residents throughout the State of Hawai'i through its partnerships with the University of Hawai'i community colleges and its delivery of distance education programs.

PHILOSOPHY

UH West O'ahu provides an environment for students and faculty to embark on a journey of discovery that improves the quality of life for our citizens. UH West O'ahu has moved into a new phase of growth with the transition to a full four-year university. The expanded capacity allows UH West O'ahu to serve both regional and Statewide educational needs.

The programs of the University are designed to be responsive to the needs of our students. UH West O'ahu faculty engage in three basic types of activities: teaching, research, and service. Our faculty are dedicated to the needs of students in the pursuit of their educational and professional goals through a curriculum emphasizing the humanities, social sciences and selected professional programs. The University's curriculum offerings are founded on the principle that career training, the humanities, and social sciences are complementary.

Students are encouraged to seek both breadth and depth in their educational experiences as well as explore relationships between and among the various disciplines. The educational programs and learning experiences are shaped to accommodate the differences in the backgrounds and aspirations of individual students.

ACCREDITATION

UH West O'ahu received accreditation in February, 1981 from the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). WASC may be contacted at:

General Information

The University

of Hawai'i UH is a ten campus system of higher education institutions serving the State of Hawai'i. The system includes baccalaureate degree-granting institutions - UH West O'ahu, UH Hilo, and UH Mānoa, which is a Research I (Extensive), multi-college university with graduate programs. The system also includes seven UH community colleges - four on O'ahu, Honolulu Community College, Kapiolani Community College, Leeward Community College, Windward Community College, and one on each of the neighbor islands, Maui Community College, Kaua'i Community College, and Hawai'i Community College.

UH West O'ahu, the most recent addition to the UH system, opened its doors in January 1976 as West O'ahu College. The name of the institution was changed to the University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu by the Board of Regents in 1989.

UH West O'ahu is located next to the Leeward Community College campus in Pearl City. It is located in an area that includes the Central and Leeward regions of O'ahu. These regions extend from the Fort Shafter Military Reservation to the North Shore of Hale'iwa-Waialua, with the coast of Wai'anae-Nānākuli forming the southern boundary. West O'ahu encompasses nearly half of the total land area of O'ahu including over twenty percent of the total urbanized land area. The composition of the population of west O'ahu and of the entire State of Hawai'i reflects the diversified mixture of numerous racial and ethnic groups.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

Governance of the UH is vested in the Board of Regents, which is appointed by the Governor. The Board in turn appoints the President of the University, who is the chief executive officer of the Board and is responsible for educational leadership of the System. The chief executive officers of the baccalaureate degree-granting campuses and the community college system are Chancellors.

BOOKSTORE

Textbooks for courses at UH West O'ahu and other educational supplies are available at the Leeward Community College Bookstore. Books may also be purchased online through the Leeward Community College Bookstore at www.bookstore.hawaii.edu/lcc.

Neigh bor Island students participating in the distance learning programs may purchase their textbooks at the UH Mānoa Bookstore through their toll free number 1-800-842-6657 or through their website at: www.bookstore.hawaii.edu/MANOA (click on Textbooks and be sure to choose the "Distance" Term).

LIBRARY SERVICES

The UH West O'ahu library is located in the Leeward Community College Library building. The atmosphere in the library is highly personal, and the staff is available to assist students in developing library and information retrieval skills. Students undertaking research projects, independent study, or directed readings will find that a conference with a librarian before beginning research is particularly rewarding.

A carefully chosen collection of library materials and online resources supplements and expands the student's classroom experience. Access to library staff and services, as well as books, videos, journals, and online research tools are available on the Web at <http://uhwolibrary.com>. UH West O'ahu students are welcome at all other libraries in the UH system. A valid UH Student ID card is required to borrow materials.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY POLICY

It is the policy of the University of Hawai'i to provide equity of opportunity in higher education, both in its educational mission and as an employer. The University is committed to complying with all State and Federal statutes, rules and regulations which prohibit discrimination in its policies and practices, and direct affirmative action, including but not limited to Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments, the Equal Pay Act of 1963, Executive Order 11246, as amended, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Titles VII and VIII of the Public Health Service Act, as amended, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Employment Act of 1967, the Vietnam Era Veteran's Assistance Act of 1974, and Hawai'i Revised Statutes, Chapters 76, 78, and 378. The University shall promote full realization of equal opportunity through a positive, continuing program on each campus. Procedures have been established to handle complaints of alleged discrimination.

Individuals designated to coordinate UH West O'ahu efforts are:

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

Pursuant to Section 99.6 of the rules and regulations governing the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (hereinafter called the Act), students in attendance at the campuses of the University of Hawai'i are hereby notified of the following.

It is the administrative policy of the University of Hawai'i to subscribe to the requirements of Section 438 of the General Education Provision Act, Title IV, of Public Law 90-247, as amended, Section 249 of the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994 and to the rules and regulations governing these Acts, which protect the privacy rights of students.

The rights of students under the Act include the following, subject to conditions and limitations specified in the Act:

1. A student has the right to inspect and review their own education records.
2. A student has the right to request to amend education records in order to ensure accuracy of such records.
3. A student shall be assured that, except for the disclosure of directory information, the University of Hawai'i will not disclose personally identifiable information without the student's consent.
4. A student shall have the right to request a hearing in order to resolve disputes regarding a student's right to inspect or amend the student's education records.
5. A student shall have the right to file a written complaint with the Family Policy and Regulations Office, U.S. Department of Education, Washington D.C. 20202, should the student determine that rights accorded herein have been violated.
6. A student shall have the right to waive any of the rights provided under the Act.

Students are advised that institutional policy and procedures required under the Act have been published as Administrative Procedure A7.022 Procedures Relating to Protection of the Educational Rights and Privacy of Students. AP A7.022 is available online at <http://www.hawaii.edu/svpa/apm/a700/a7022a.pdf>; or a copy may be requested from the Student Services Office.

Students are advised that certain personally identifiable information is considered by the University to be Directory Information and, in response to public inquiry, may be disclosed in conformance with State Law, at the University's discretion, without prior consent of the student, unless the student otherwise so informs the University not to disclose such information.

Directory Information may include:

1. Name of student
2. Local address and ZIP code
3. Local telephone number
4. Major field of study
5. Education level (i.e. Freshmen, Sophomore, etc.)
6. Fact of participation in officially recognized activities and sports
7. Weight and height of members of athletic teams
8. Dates of attendance

9. Most recent educational institution attended
10. Degrees and awards received
11. Email address
12. Enrollment status (full-time and part-time)

A student presently registered and in attendance at any campus may request that their directory information not be disclosed to the public. A student wishing to exercise this right must, in writing, not later than 14 days from the first day of instruction for a regular semester or term, or the fourth day of a summer session, inform the campus that their Directory Information should be kept confidential.

Parents or spouses of students are advised that information contained in education records, except as determined to be Directory Information, will not be disclosed to them without the prior written consent of the student.

The University is not required to notify students before complying with certain subpoenas.

Information concerning disciplinary action may be included in a student's education records, and such information may be disclosed to teachers and other school officials who have legitimate educational interests, without prior consent.

STUDENT CONDUCT

The Board of Regents of the University has approved a policy statement which establishes guidelines for behavior on all campuses. Pertinent sections of the statement are:

"The two categories of impermissible behavior... apply equally to every member of the academic community and includes the staff, faculty and students."

"Category 1. A member of the academic community may not behave toward another member, even in the name of his convictions or his rights to academic freedom, in a manner denying or interfering with another member's expression of convictions, right to academic freedom or the performance of his legitimate duties or functions."

"Category 2. Behavior intended directly or indirectly to interfere with or disrupt the processes of teaching, learning or research or those processes or conditions furthering or facilitating these activities is impermissible behavior. An interference or disruption exists when any of these processes can no longer take place in the planned, normal, or customary form given to them by those legitimately responsible for them, or when any of these conditions has essentially ceased to exist. Processes or conditions furthering or facilitating teaching, learning or research as used in the first sequence of this paragraph include the administration of the University.”

In accordance with this policy, UH West O’ahu has adopted a student conduct code with specific examples of impermissible behavior, including academic dishonesty, which is defined below. The code also delineates the appropriate hearing procedures, and describes the various sanctions that may be imposed. Sanctions may range from a warning, restitution where restitution is appropriate, to probation, suspension, expulsion, or the rescission of grades or degree.

Copies of the student conduct code are available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/conduct or through the Student Services Office.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The University is an academic community with high professional standards. Its teaching, research and service purposes are seriously disrupted and subverted by academic dishonesty. Such dishonesty includes plagiarism and cheating.

Cheating

Cheating includes, but is not limited to, giving or receiving unauthorized assistance during an examination; obtaining unauthorized information about an examination before it is given; using inappropriate or unallowable sources of information during an examination; falsifying data in experiments and other research; altering the record of any grade; altering answers after an examination has been submitted; falsifying any official University record; or misrepresenting the facts in order to obtain exemptions from course requirements.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, submitting in fulfillment of an academic requirement, any document that has been copied in whole or in part from another individual’s work without attributing that portion to the individual; neglecting to identify as a quotation, another’s idea and particular phrasing that was not assimilated into the student’s language and style or paraphrasing a passage so that the reader is misled as to the source; submitting the same written or oral material in more than one course without obtaining authorization from the instructors involved; or “drylabbing,” which includes obtaining and using experimental data and laboratory write-ups from other sections of the course or from previous terms, or fabricating data to fit the desired or expected results.

ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE

Issues associated with the authority and responsibilities of faculty members may occasionally arise. To protect the rights of students and faculty, the University has established an academic grievance procedure whereby students who believe that a faculty member has behaved in an improper manner may seek recourse. A reasonable attempt (by phone, mail, email or in person) should first be made to resolve the complaint of academic impropriety on an informal basis with the faculty member. If the faculty member fails to respond to the student’s attempt to contact him/her within a ten-day period, or if a satisfactory resolution is not reached at this level, the matter should be reported, in writing, to the faculty member’s Division Chairperson. The Division Chair shall render a decision/recommendation for resolution within ten working days upon receipt of the report of academic impropriety by the student. Should a student decide to appeal the Division Chair’s decision and/or recommendation, the student has the right to file a formal academic grievance with the Chair of the Academic Grievance Committee.

For specific information, the academic grievance procedure is available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/grievance, or may be requested from the Student Services Office.

USE OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

Section 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 522a) requires that when any federal, state, or local government agency requests an individual to disclose his or her Social Security account number, that individual must also be advised whether that disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority the number is solicited, and what use will be made of it.

Accordingly, each applicant is advised that disclosure of his or her Social Security Number (SSN) is recommended as a condition for making application to any of the campuses of the University of Hawai’i, in view of the practical administrative difficulties which the University of Hawai’i would encounter in maintaining adequate student records without the continued use of the SSN. The SSN will not be used as an identifying number on University documents. A computer generated eight digit University of Hawai’i identification number will be assigned to the student upon application to any of the University of Hawai’i system campuses.

Although the SSN is no longer used as a student identification number, it will be used to verify the identity of the applicant to reconcile against other official documents such as applications for financial aid, determination of residency for tuition purposes, registration and academic record-keeping; tax information (e.g., 1098-T form); student affairs programs requiring verification of enrollment for the purpose of providing services (e.g., Veterans Affairs); and alumni affairs.

Authority for requiring the disclosure of an applicant’s SSN is grounded in Section 304.2 and Section 304.4, Hawai’i Revised Statutes as amended, which provides that the Board of Regents of the University of Hawai’i shall have general management and control of the affairs of the University. The University of Hawai’i has, for several years, consistently required the disclosure of social security numbers on the System Application Form and other necessary University documents.

In addition, it should be noted that the SSN of a parent or guardian of an applicant is also requested if the applicant claims residency on the basis of the residency of the parent, guardian, or spouse. A parent or guardian is advised that disclosure of his or her SSN for the above purpose is mandatory. Failure to provide it may affect the applicant's admission to the University and the tuition charged to the applicant. Parent's or guardian's SSN will be recorded only on the System Application Form (Residency Declaration) itself and will not be maintained in any other system records. Its use will be restricted to further verification of information reported on the System Application Form (Residency Declaration) by the applicant and/or parent or guardian.

PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

In accordance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, UH West O'ahu hereby provides notice that it does not discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities in the recruitment and admission of students and employment of faculty and staff. No otherwise qualified person with a disability shall, solely on the basis of that disability, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

UH West O'ahu is committed to providing equal access to its academic courses, educational programs, and related activities. Reasonable and appropriate accommodations will be made available to individuals with disabilities.

Students with disabilities who will require auxiliary aids and/or special services must identify themselves to the Student Services Office when they are admitted and disclose the nature of their disability so that arrangements can be made for appropriate assistance. Students who develop disabilities during the school year should notify the Student Services Office as soon as possible.

At UH West O'ahu, ramps to all buildings provide access for the disabled. Classrooms are easily accessible to students in wheelchairs. Restroom facilities are equipped for use by the disabled.

Copies of the University of Hawai'i policies and procedures on non-discrimination and affirmative or voluntary action are available upon request at the UH West O'ahu's Student Services Office. Questions or concerns about programs, services, activities and facilities at the UH West O'ahu may be addressed to:

Academic Regulations

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Students may enroll in courses for academic credit or as auditors. Upon admission to the UH West O'ahu, students are categorized as follows:

Classified Student: A student who is admitted to an organized program of study leading to a degree or a certificate.

Unclassified Student: A student who may enroll for credit but is not admitted to an organized program leading to a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Applied Science, or Bachelor of Education degree or a certificate. Unclassified students are not eligible for financial aid. In order to be categorized as a classified student and eligible to earn a degree or certificate, a student must submit official transcripts and/or other admissions documents for evaluation to the Office of Admissions. As an unclassified student, transfer credits will also be evaluated for applicability towards their degree or certificate programs.

Auditor: A student who registers for, and attends class with the permission of the instructor. The student receives no credit or grade for the course and is not required to take course examinations. The extent of a student's classroom participation is at the instructor's discretion. A student auditing a course must submit an application to the Office of Admissions, and remit the appropriate tuition and fees.

Full-time Student: A student who is registered for 12 or more semester credit hours during the fall or spring term, or at least six credits per Summer Session term. Students on financial aid, scholarships or grants should consult with a Financial Aid Officer to ensure meeting aid requirements and/or definition of full-time classification.

Part-time Student: A student who is registered for fewer than 12 semester credit hours during the fall or spring semester, or less than six credits per Summer Session term. Students on financial aid, scholarships or grants should consult with a Financial Aid Officer to ensure meeting aid requirements and/or definition of part-time classification.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

Freshman Admissions

Students applying for admission as freshmen must meet the following requirements:

1. High School grade point average (GPA):
2. 7 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale based on the following 22 credits:
 - a. 4 English credits
 - b. 3 Math credits (including Algebra II and Geometry)
 - c. 3 Natural Science credits
 - d. 3 Social Studies credits
 - e. 4 College Preparatory credits (e.g., language, fine arts)
 - f. 5 elective credits
3. SAT Reasoning Test or ACT test scores

Applicants who meet the freshman admission requirements of 1 and 2 above, will automatically be admitted to UH West O'ahu.

Applicants who do not meet the minimum 2.7 cumulative GPA, or the minimum 22 credits of coursework will be evaluated on SAT Reasoning Test or ACT scores. Additionally, applicants will be required to submit a letter of recommendation from a teacher and/or counselor and a one-page personal essay to facilitate the evaluation of their application.

Applicants must submit official records for all admissions requirements.

Transfer Admissions

Transfer students are those presently or previously enrolled at a college or university other than UH West O'ahu. A student who has successfully completed a minimum of 12 college-level transferable semester credits, and is in-progress with a minimum of 12 college-level transferable semester credits at the time of application for admission to UH West O'ahu may be eligible for admission. A grade point average of 2.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale is required. Students with fewer than 24 college-level semester credits will be evaluated under the Freshman Admissions requirements.

Students who have graduated with an Associate in Arts degree from a University of Hawai'i community college, or other appropriately accredited institution with a grade point average of 2.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale are eligible for transfer. Students with an Associate in Arts degree in liberal arts from an appropriately accredited University will be accepted as having completed general education requirements.

Nonresident Student Admissions

The University is required to determine the residency status of each applicant. Therefore, each applicant must complete and submit a residency declaration (contained within the System Application Form), together with such documentation considered necessary to clearly determine residency status.

The burden of proof for establishing resident status lies with each applicant. Final decisions will be made by the Office of Admissions. Students classified as nonresidents are required to pay nonresident tuition. Students may appeal the decision by submitting the Residency Appeal form to the Office of Admissions. The appeal will be considered by the UH system-wide Residency Appeals Board.

All nonresident students who are newly admitted to UH may be affected by a change in UH's policy regarding nonresident status for tuition purposes. The policy is in accordance with Chapter 20-4-8, Hawai'i Administrative Rules which states: "Presence in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher education shall not create resident status. A nonresident student shall be presumed to be in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher learning...Continued presence in Hawai'i during vacation periods and occasional periods of interruption of the course of study shall not in itself overcome this presumption." Nonresident students who enter any UH campus may not be allowed to change his/her residency status from nonresident to resident during any period in which s/he:

1. is enrolled for six (6) or more credits at any institution of higher learning in Hawai'i;
2. was absent from Hawai'i for more than 30 days per year during school vacation periods;
3. received student financial aid assistance based on residency in another state;
4. or was a dependent of nonresident parent(s) or legal guardian.

The maximum number of nonresident students that may be admitted by the University is limited by the Board of Regents Controlled Growth Policy of the UH System. Therefore, affected students are encouraged to apply early.

Military Personnel and Family Members

Military personnel stationed in Hawai'i and their authorized family members, in addition to meeting the general admission requirements, should also submit a copy of their orders, as well as have the Verification of U.S. Armed Forces Members Assignment in Hawai'i section of the System Application Form completed by their Commanding Officer. Students on active duty or who are bona fide family members of military personnel stationed in Hawai'i are considered nonresidents but will be permitted to pay resident tuition rates upon receipt of the forms described above.

International Students Admissions (Student Visa Applicants Only)

International students who apply for admission must meet special requirements in addition to the general requirements.

1. A complete and certified English translation of the student's official record of achievement (transcript) must be submitted showing courses taken, a brief description of the course content, grades earned, passing and maximum grades, and student's standing in class. Transcripts will not be considered official unless they are sent directly to the UH West O'ahu by the previous institution.
2. The student must be able to read, write, speak and understand the English language. Applicants from countries where English is not the primary language, are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and have the Educational Testing Service send the results to the Student Services Office. The TOEFL results are necessary in order to evaluate the student's English proficiency in terms of probable ability to complete a degree at UH West O'ahu effectively. Information regarding the test dates, location and fees is available at: www.toefl.org.
3. University of Hawai'i Supplementary Information Form for Undergraduate International Applicants must be completed. In addition, applicants must provide documentation that sufficient financial support is available to adequately cover tuition and all expenses while attending the University.
4. A satisfactory physical examination report as specified by the University, including chest x-ray films, is required. In addition, students must carry complete health insurance for the period of their stay at the University.
5. The I-20 form, required by the United States Department of Homeland Security and Customs Enforcement for a student visa, will be provided by the University after the special requirements outlined above are fulfilled, and the student has been accepted for admission.

6. The deadline for application and submission of all required documents is April 1 for the Fall semester and October 1 for the spring semester. However, international students are encouraged to submit their applications as early as possible to allow adequate time for evaluation by the University.

INFORMATION ON ADMISSION

Information on How to Enroll at UH West O'ahu

Applications, instructions and other informational materials may be viewed online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/admission. Information may also be obtained by calling the Office of Admissions at (808) 454-4837 or toll-free from the neighbor islands at (866) 299-8656 or by email at admissions@uhwo.hawaii.edu. Candidates for admission are encouraged to visit the campus and meet with faculty, staff, and students.

Application Fee

All applications must be accompanied by a non-transferable application fee of $50.00. This fee is non-refundable and may not be applied toward tuition even though the applicant may be admitted to the University. Applications submitted without this fee will not be processed. The application and the fee are valid only for the semester specified on the application. The fee should be paid by check, payable to the University of Hawai'i (certified checks, money orders, or cashier's checks are preferred). Currency should not be sent. Applicants from foreign countries should send an international money order. This amount is subject to change; therefore, applicants should review the instructions carefully at the time of application.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Course Registration

All registration in the UH system is done online through the MyUH Portal. Students not familiar with the MyUH Portal should visit www.myuhportal.hawaii.edu for tutorial information.

Through the MyUH portal, students can:

- check for class availability for all 10 campuses within the UH system
- register for classes
- view grades

In order to register and view your grades, students must have a UH Username. Students may already have a UH Username if they were enrolled at a UH system campus, or if they have a "hawaii.edu" e-mail account. For example, if your account is johndoe@hawaii.edu, your UH Username is johndoe. Students who do not have a UH Username can get one at <http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu>.

Registration for new and returning students (those who stop out for one semester or longer) occurs the week before the semester begins. Continuing students will be able to pre-register for the next semester, usually in November for the Spring semester, and April for the Fall semester. Check with the Student Services Office for more information.

To avoid late registration fees, be sure to register for a course prior to the first day of instruction for the term. Be sure to check the academic calendar for deadline dates for the semester. Students can also view this information online at the Schedule of Classes, www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/schedule; click on the appropriate term, then click on the CRN of the class for deadlines to register and for refunds and withdrawals.

Non-degree seeking students will be allowed to register on the last day of regular registration.

Students are considered officially enrolled only after registering for courses and paying all appropriate tuition and fees. Please see the UH West O'ahu Registration Bulletin for registration dates and payment deadlines. It is highly recommended that students see their faculty advisor or a Student Services advisor prior to preregistration and/or registration. Special approval from the instructor is required for capstone courses such as Senior Project or Practicum and Directed Reading and Research.

The UH West O'ahu Registration Bulletin, and the campus email newsletter, The West Press Express, should be consulted for the exact dates of pre-registration, registration and payment deadlines. A schedule listing the courses offered and other relevant information for the class, is available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/schedule prior to the beginning of preregistration periods for each term. Registration (adding and dropping courses) is online through the MyUH Portal via the internet at <http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu>.

Preregistration: Continuing students will be given the opportunity to pre-register for courses. Preregistration is generally held during the preceding academic term.

Regular Registration: Registration for courses is usually held the week prior to the beginning of the first day of instruction.

Late Registration: Students may register up to and including, the last day designated on the University calendar for late registration, generally at the end of the second week of instruction. There will be an additional fee for late registration.

Unclassified Students/Auditors: Unclassified students and auditors may register on a space available basis on the last day of registration for regular students, or during the late registration period. Unclassified students and auditors may change their status to classified, only if they have all official transcripts on file, meet admission requirements and gain acceptance prior to late registration.

Concurrent Registration

Students at one campus within the UH System may register concurrently at another campus. UH West O'ahu students who wish to concurrently enroll at a community college campus are eligible to register without having to submit an application to the community college. Registration occurs through the MyUH Portal.

Students on financial aid are advised to consult with a Financial Aid Officer. Financial aid is not automatically granted for coursework taken outside of UH West O'ahu.

Change of Registration

To Add a Course: courses may be added beginning with the first day of preregistration through the late registration period. The Academic Calendar for semester long classes is available at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu. Accelerated courses may be added after the late add period under special circumstances. Students should contact a Student Services advisor for information, or view the calendar dates of the class at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/schedule, and click on the course reference number.

To Withdraw From Any Course: students may officially withdraw from any course for which they have registered during the applicable withdrawal period. For semester-long courses, this is stated in the Academic Calendar. Withdrawals from regular semester-long courses during the first three weeks of the semester will not be indicated on students' records.

Students may withdraw from a course between the third week and up to Friday of the ninth week of instruction. (Refer to the Academic Calendar, the UH West O'ahu Registration Bulletin or online for specific dates.) These drops will be indicated as "W" grades on the student's record.

After the ninth week of instruction, complete withdrawals, as well as partial withdrawals are not permitted except for highly unusual or extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the student. These withdrawals require the approval of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Documentation of circumstances may be required and may include the submission of a formal letter of appeal, and/or additional documentation of the circumstance(s) cited. Consultation with the instructor(s) involved may take place.

Different withdrawal deadlines apply to accelerated courses. Students should check online for applicable dates.

An instructor may not initiate a withdrawal for the student. All course withdrawals or drop actions are the responsibility of the student and must be initiated by the student within the constraints outlined above.

If a student simply stops attending classes in a given course without officially completing the withdrawal procedure, an "F", or other grade as appropriate, may be awarded by the instructor. If the instructor does not award a grade, an "F" will be assigned by the Student Services Office.

Complete Withdrawal from UH West O'ahu

Students withdrawing completely from the University must submit the Complete Withdrawal form to the Student Services Office. This form may be obtained from the Student Services office or online at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms.

In the rare event that a student is physically unable to obtain the appropriate form, the University will accept a signed statement from the student requesting complete withdrawal which indicates the reason for withdrawal. The effective date of withdrawal is the date of the completed form or statement is received by the Student Services Office. The refund schedule for withdrawals is noted in this catalog in the Tuition and Fees chapter.

A student who has completely withdrawn from UH West O'ahu must reapply to the University to continue in their program of study.

Stopping-Out

Students who do not maintain current student status, that is, those who “stop-out” for at least one semester must reapply for admission to UH West O’ahu. Students who stop out for one semester may maintain the same catalog year requirements in effect at the time they stopped out. Students who stop-out for more than one semester are subject reasons why they cannot finish their final graduation requirements at UH West O’ahu. Final credits may be taken with an appropriately accredited institution and transferred back to UH West O’ahu. Approval must be granted by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs prior to coursework taken in absentia. Requirements must be met within a specified time frame that will be determined with the Vice Chan-to the catalog requirements in effect at the time of their readmission to UH West O’ahu. Students who are readmitted to the University will be considered Returning students and will be required to meet with their Faculty Advisors to review program and graduation requirements in their first semester back at the University.

Leave of Absence

Continuing classified students may apply for a Leave of Absence for a semester if they: 1) have just completed their prior semester at UH West O’ahu; and 2) are not on academic action (suspension, dismissal). The Petition for Leave of Absence form can be found online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms or at the Student Services Office. Students who are approved a leave of absence will be allowed to preregister for the next semester, but should be aware that taking a leave of absence may affect their residency status and their eligibility for financial aid.

Graduation in Absentia

In rare cases, Graduation in Absentia may be granted for students who have unusual, or compelling cellor for Student Affairs. Failure to meet requirements within this established timeframe will mean that the student must reapply for admission to UH West O’ahu. Students will be subject to catalog program requirements in effect at the time of readmission. Students who receive approval for Graduation in Absentia must meet all general education, focus, major, concentration and university requirements, including the “residency” requirement of a minimum of 30 credits taken with UH West O’ahu.

Student Identification Numbers

The UH West O’ahu uses an eight digit computer generated number for student identification numbers. U.S. citizens should indicate their Social Security number on their application. International students need not have a Social Security number; they will be assigned an identification number by the Student Services Office. For additional information, see Use of Social Security Numbers.

Change of Personal Data or Program

It is the responsibility of the student to report any change of name, address, phone, citizenship or field of study. Appropriate documentation must be submitted to the Student Services Office. Failure to do so, may result in inaccurate student records, and failure to receive important University announcements. The Student Record Update form is available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms or at the Student Services Office.

Students who change their program of study will be required to follow the program requirements in effect at the time the change is made.

PARTICIPATION IN ASSESSMENT EFFORTS

The UH West O’ahu is committed to developing the highest quality educational experience. In order to continue to improve programs and services, students may be required to participate in institutional assessment efforts including university-wide surveys, learning outcome examinations, and projects relating to General Education and/or the student’s major field of study. Individual responses and results will remain confidential. Assessment reports will not include student names, or other personally identifiable information.

COURSE LOAD, CREDITS, GRADES, AND TRANSCRIPTS

Maximum Course Load

UH West O’ahu students may take up to 18 credits in the Fall and Spring semesters. Those who request enrollment of 19 or more credit hours of work in any semester must obtain approval from the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Approval for more than 18 credits will not be given at the time of pre-registration except for extenuating circumstances and must be approved by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

International Students: International students on student visas are required to carry a minimum of 12 units of credit each semester.

Class Attendance

Regular and prompt class attendance is expected of all students. A student is expected to inform each instructor of anticipated or unavoidable absences. The responsibility for make up work lies with the student. Unexcused absences exceeding 20% per calendar month is considered unsatisfactory attendance.

When a student fails to attend a class, or stops attending class but does not officially withdraw from that class, the instructor may award any letter grade, including an “F.” Under no circumstances will the “W” grade be awarded by the instructor.

Repetition of Courses

A student may repeat any course taken at the University, regardless of the grade received. However, in the certification of a degree, credit will be allowed once for a course or courses deemed equivalent. In determining whether the concentration requirement has been met, the higher grade and grade point will be used. The lower grade, however, shall remain on the student's record and will be calculated into the UH West O'ahu cumulative grade point average.

In some cases, courses such as Directed Reading and Research and Selected Topics may be repeated for additional credit. The student's faculty advisor should be consulted in this matter.

Transfer Credit

UH West O'ahu accepts transfer credits only in courses completed at appropriately accredited colleges or universities. Credit will not be given for remedial or developmental courses (i.e., in the University of Hawai'i system, below 100 level courses). Certain correspondence, occupational, vocational or technical courses may be accepted although they may not be applicable to the chosen program of study.

Transfer credits that meet UH West O'ahu's degree requirements will be applied towards the degree; however, not all may satisfy the University's General Education requirement. Students may be required to earn additional credits in order to meet General Education requirements (see Academic Programs and Graduation Requirements). The General Education requirements may also be fulfilled by the completion of an Associate in Arts degree from an appropriately accredited institution.

UH West O'ahu allows a maximum transfer of 75 lower-division credits (freshman and sophomore level courses or equivalent) and/or a total of 90 transfer credits towards a Bachelors degree.

It is the responsibility of the student to notify the Student Services Office to review official transcripts from any of the University of Hawai'i campuses for re-evaluation of credits earned. The Academic Record Update form is available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms or at the Student Services Office. This form should be submitted to the Student Services Office. It is also the responsibility of the student to have all official transcripts sent directly to UH West O'ahu for coursework taken outside of the University of Hawai'i system.

Transfer of Upper Division Credits

A student transferring to the UH West O'ahu from another appropriately accredited college or university may be allowed upper-division transfer credits (junior and senior level courses) for work taken at that institution. Applicability of these credits towards fulfillment of general education, focus, major and/or concentration requirements will be determined by the Student Services Office in conjunction with faculty in the appropriate areas.

It is the responsibility of the student to have all official transcripts of previous college work sent directly to the Student Services Office.

Credit for Prior Learning

UH West O'ahu encourages and assists students in obtaining college credit for knowledge acquired outside the regular college classroom through independent study, on-the-job training, military service school, or other means. The University believes students should be provided the opportunity to prove their mastery of subject material through "non-traditional" means.

Any student who is accepted and enrolled at UH West O'ahu and who believes s/he has acquired the equivalent of a course through experience or training may petition the University for the granting of appropriate credit. Students may request an evaluation of their equivalent credit for specific courses during their initial semester. Credits earned by the equivalency method may not be used to satisfy the college residency requirements for graduation.

Students interested in requesting an evaluation for credit based on standardized exam results or military course work should apply at the Student Services Office within their first semester of enrollment. Students requesting credit by examination (Challenge Exams) must do so within their first year of enrollment. Transcripts and other supporting documents are the responsibility of the student. These will be reviewed by the Student Services Office and/or by a faculty who will make the credit recommendation.

UH West O'ahu recognizes and employs the following means of evaluating equivalent college credit:

- The College Level Examination Program (CLEP) of the College Entrance Examination Board
- The Credit by Examination process (Challenge Exams; fees and tuition as applicable)
- The Military Service School evaluation process (based on guidelines established by the American Council on Education)
- Advanced Placement Examinations

Information regarding fees and tuition (if any), as well as the policies and procedures for obtaining equivalent college credit by the methods listed above is available from the Student Services Office.

Transcripts

A transcript of course work completed at the UH West O'ahu may be obtained with a written request signed by the student to the Student Services Office. The cost per copy is $5.00 for "regular" processing (within 10 business days). "Rush" transcripts are $15.00 per copy (prepared for mailing within two business days after payment has been processed). Payment must be remitted at the time the transcript request is made. Transcript fees apply to processing time only. Transcripts that are mailed will be sent via US Postal Delivery, first class. Transcripts to be sent to UH system campuses for admission purposes are sent

Evaluation and Grades

Grades are awarded for the purpose of recognizing different levels of achievement in the pursuit of course objectives. These grades are interpreted as follows:

A	Excellent Achievement	4.0
A-		3.7
B+		3.3
B	Above Average Achievement	3.0
B-		2.7
C+		2.3
C	Average Achievement	2.0
C-		1.7
D+		1.3
D	Minimal Passing Achievement	1.0
D-		0.7
F	Failure	0.0
I	Incomplete	0.0
L	Audit	0.0
R	Credit (for Challenge Exams)	0.0
RD	Report Delayed (faculty did not submit grades by deadline)
W	Withdrawal	0.0

The “W” grade indicates formal withdrawal from a course between the fourth and ninth week of instruction (see Change of Registration).

Grades may be viewed and/or printed from the MyUH Portal at <http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu>. Students should report any grade discrepancies within 10 days of final grades being posted. Grade reports may be requested by the student at the Student Services Office.

Incompletes

With the approval of the instructor, an “I” or incomplete grade may be awarded at the request of the student. An “I” indicates that the student has yet to complete part of the work in the course. Each “I” grade will be reported with a letter grade which indicates student performance in the class at the end of the term. If no further work is submitted by the student by the deadline determined with the instructor, the incomplete will automatically convert to the assigned letter grade (e.g. an “IF” will convert to a grade of “F”). Each student receiving an “I” should contact the instructor to discuss what work must be completed to make up the incomplete. Grade changes must be submitted by the instructor to the Student Services Office no later than the dates specified on the University Academic Calendar. If a grade change is not submitted by deadline, the “I” grade will automatically become the letter grade assigned with the incomplete.

DEAN’S LIST

Students who perform at a high academic level will be placed on the Dean’s List for work completed by the end of each semester. To qualify, students must enroll in a minimum of nine credits during the semester. All courses must be completed with a semester grade point average of 3.75 or higher.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Graduation with Distinction will be conferred on those graduates who complete 45 or more upper-division credits at UH West O’ahu with a minimum cumulative UH West O’ahu grade point average of 3.75, including courses whose credits were not applicable to the degree.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

To demonstrate satisfactory academic progress, students are expected to maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. Students who experience difficulty with their course work are encouraged to see their faculty advisor or a Student Services advisor for assistance and counseling. Students who are placed on Academic Probation will be required to see a Student Services advisor for counseling prior to registration. Registration (adds and/or drops) through the MyUH Portal will be prohibited until the student is in good academic standing. Satisfactory academic progress is required for continued enrollment, as well as to maintain eligibility for financial aid and veterans’ benefits.

ACADEMIC PROBATION, SUSPENSION, AND DISMISSAL

Students who fail to meet minimum scholastic requirements of the University will be placed on academic probation or be suspended or dismissed. For purposes of measuring this minimum requirement, the grade point average (GPA) is used. Regulations governing academic probation, suspension and dismissal are applied at the end of the fall and spring semesters.

Probation: A student will be placed on academic probation at the end of any semester in which their UH West O’ahu cumulative grade point average (GPA), or overall GPA (transfer and UH West O’ahu GPA) falls below a 2.0. A student will remain on academic probation until the cumulative or overall GPA rises to 2.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale. A student on academic probation will be considered to be progressing satisfactorily if, at the end of each successive semester, his/her current GPA for that semester is 2.0 or higher.

Suspension: A student who is on academic probation with a cumulative or overall GPA below 2.0, and whose current or semester GPA falls below 2.0, will be suspended and denied continued registration for at least one semester. A student who has been academically suspended must reapply to the UH West O’ahu after a one semester (not including summer session) break. Students on suspension are encouraged to meet with a Student Services advisor prior to submitting an application for admission. Reinstatement to UH West O’ahu is not automatic, and must be approved by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. A student suspended at the end of the spring semester may enroll in the upcoming summer session. If the student raises the cumulative or overall GPA up to 2.0 after attending the summer session at the UH West O’ahu, the suspension period may be waived by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Regulations governing academic suspension are applied at the end of each semester. A student who is readmitted after suspension will be placed on Probation after Suspension. Failure to meet the minimum academic requirements for continued enrollment will result in Dismissal.

Dismissal: A student who has been previously suspended will be dismissed, if upon enrollment with UH West O’ahu, the student fails to maintain at least a 2.0 semester GPA. Dismissed students will be readmitted only in unusual circumstances.

Tuition & Fees

TUITION

Tuition is charged according to the number of semester credit hours a student registers for. An Auditor, or those enrolled in a course for no credit and no grade, pays the same tuition and fees as students enrolled for credit. For tuition purposes, any student enrolled for 12 or more credit hours is considered a full-time student.

2008-2009 TUITION SCHEDULE

	Resident	Non-resident	Pacific Island Jurisdiction
1-11 credits*	$154.00	$482.00	$231.00

Note: Tuition and fees may be subject to change without notice. All tuition and fee charges at the University of Hawai'i campuses, and the tuition refund policy, are subject to change in accordance with requirements of State law and/or action by the University of Hawai'i Board of Regents or the University administration.

DELINQUENT FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

All students are expected to meet their financial obligations when due within the University system. These obligations include, but are not limited to, student loan payments, payment for tuition and fees, library fines, restitution for damaged items borrowed from the University and service charges for dishonored checks. Students who fail to remit payments when due will be subject to the rules and regulations governing delinquent obligations adopted by the University of Hawai'i. Obligations incurred at other campuses within the University of Hawai'i system will also affect a student's status at UH West O'ahu.

The University of Hawai'i reserves the right to impose the following sanctions if the student fails to meet any financial obligation within the University system:

1. Denial of further registration;
2. Revocation of all rights and privileges which were conferred by registration or enrollment;

7. Contract the services of a collection agency to recover monies owed, including applicable collection costs, court costs and attorney's fees.

PAYMENTS

All tuition and applicable fees must be paid in full by the published deadlines. Payments by credit card (VISA, MasterCard, and JCB), debit card, or webcheck must be made online through the MyUH Portal. Payments may also be made in person at any University of Hawai'i campus Cashier's Office by cash, check, cashier's check, travelers' check, or money order.

Installment Payment Plan

Eligible registered students who cannot pay their tuition and fees in full by the published deadline will be able to sign up online for an installment payment plan. There is a $30.00 payment plan fee to participate each semester. This fee is non-refundable and nontransferable. A missed payment fee will be assessed for late payments and is also nonrefundable and nontransferable. See the MyUH Portal (<http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu>) for the most current information; click on "Student Tutorials".

TUITION REFUND POLICY

Regular Academic Semester Courses

(16 week term)

In the event a student initiates, before the third week of instruction during the regular academic semester, a complete withdrawal from the University, a change from full-time to part-time status, or a change from one tuition rate to another, tuition and special course fees are refunded as follows:

1. 100% refund for complete withdrawal or change in status or tuition rate only if made on or before the last day of late registration.
2. 50% refund if complete withdrawal or change in status or tuition rate is made on or before the end of the third week of instruction.
3. No refund if complete withdrawal or change in status or tuition rate is made after the third week of instruction.

Non-Semester Long Credit Courses

(less than 16 week terms)

In the event a student who is taking accelerated or summer session classes initiates a complete withdrawal from the University, a change from full-time to part-time status, or a change from one tuition rate to another, tuition and special course fees are refunded as follows:

1. 100% refund for complete withdrawal or a change in status or tuition rate if made on or before the last day of late registration (add period).
2. 50% refund for complete withdrawal or change in status or tuition rate if made after the late registration period (add period) but on or before the end of the 20% instructional period.
3. No refund for courses that are 10 or less calendar days in length or if complete withdrawal or change in status or tuition rate is made after the refund period.

Calendar days for each accelerated course will differ. For the exact dates of refunds please check online at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/schedule (click on the class CRN).

When changes by the University to the published schedule of classes precipitate a complete withdrawal, or a change from full-time to part-time status, or a change in tuition rate, and the changes to the published schedule have occurred after the student registered, tuition and special course fees are refunded upon approval as indicated below:

1. 100% refund if complete withdrawal is necessary and if application for refund is made within two weeks of the date of the change(s) to the published schedule.
2. The difference between the amount assessed at registration at the start of the semester and the amount assessed due to change in status or tuition rate if such a change is necessary and if application for refund is made within two weeks of the date of the change(s) to the published schedule.

STUDENT ACTIVITY FEE REFUND POLICY

All students will be assessed a $5.00 activity fee each semester. This fee is waived for students enrolled on the neighbor islands. 100% of the student activity fee will be refunded ONLY if the student completely withdraws from all UH system campuses. Complete withdrawal from the UH system must be completed on or before the last day of late registration. For those who register for courses that do not begin until the second or third accelerated periods, there will be no refund of the fee unless a complete withdrawal is processed from all UH system campuses on or before the first day of instruction.

REFUNDS FOR FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS

Financial aid is awarded to defray educational expenses. As such, withdrawal and/or dropping classes from the University may require the repayment of funds received. Students should consult with a Financial Aid Officer prior to withdrawal from classes.

DROP IN CREDIT LOAD

Enrollment will be monitored for students who receive financial aid assistance. Aid will be adjusted until the semester Census date, prior to the period for withdrawal with a 'W' (approximately the first three weeks of the semester). Students are required to repay any difference, due to enrollment changes. All enrollment changes may affect financial aid. Satisfactory Academic Progress will also be based on your official enrollment at the Census date. A financial obligation (hold) will be placed on the student's account for any financial aid award adjustments. Refer to Delinquent Financial Obligations.

WITHDRAWAL FROM SCHOOL

In the event that a student who has been awarded Federal Title IV financial assistance completely withdraws (or stops attending all classes) from the UH West O'ahu, a Return of Title IV Funds calculation will be completed. The Financial Aid Office will adhere to all Institutional Withdrawal and Refund Policies and Federal requirements.

The Federal Return of Title IV Funds formula requires a student and the institution to return Federal funds if the student completely withdraws or stops attending classes on or before completing 60% of the semester. The percentage of Federal aid to be returned is equal to the number of calendar days remaining in the semester divided by the total number of calendar days in the semester (unearned aid). The order in which the funds will be returned is as follows: Federal Unsubsidized Stafford, Federal Subsidized Stafford, Federal PLUS, Federal Pell Grant, Federal ACG, Federal SEOG.

Any institutional refund due to the student based on the regular UH tuition and fee refund policies will be applied to the institutional share of the refund. If the UH refund does not equal the amount of the institutional share of the refund to the Federal financial aid program, the student will be billed for the amount which is not covered.

In the event a student receives both Federal financial assistance and a tuition waiver (Native Hawaiian, Chancellor's Award, or Regents/Presidential Scholarship) the student shall be required to repay the prorated value of the tuition waiver that the University may have had to pay to the Federal programs.

Students who completely withdraw from the UH West O'ahu must reapply for admission, submitting a current application form and application fee. A copy of the University's Complete Withdrawal Policy for Financial Aid Recipients is mailed to all students receiving financial assistance and is available at the Student Services Office.

RESIDENCY REGULATIONS FOR TUITION PURPOSES

Students who do not qualify as bona fide residents of the State of Hawai'i, according to the University of Hawai'i regulations in effect at the time they register, must pay nonresident tuition. An official determination of residency status will be made at the time of application and applicants may be required to provide additional documentation to verify residency status. Once classified as a nonresident, a student will continue to be a nonresident during his/her term at the University until he/she can present satisfactory evidence that proves otherwise. A nonresident student shall be presumed to be in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher learning.

Some of the more pertinent University residency regulations are noted below. For additional information or interpretation, contact the Student Services Office.

Generally, adult (19 and over) and minor (under 19) students are deemed residents of the State of Hawai'i for tuition purposes if the adult student, or in the case of minor students, their parents or legal guardians, have:

1) demonstrated intent to reside permanently in Hawai'i, 2) been physically present in Hawai'i for at least 12 consecutive months prior to the first day of instruction for the semester and subsequent to the demonstration of intent to make Hawai'i his/her legal residence, and 3) the student, whether an adult or minor, has not been claimed as a dependent for tax purposes for at least 12 consecutive months preceding the first day of instruction by his/her parents or guardians who are not legal residents of Hawai'i.

Some of the criteria for establishing Hawai'i residency are:

1. Filing Hawai'i Resident State Income Tax Returns
2. Voting or registering to vote in the State of Hawai'i
3. Permanent employment in Hawai'i
4. Ownership of a dwelling in Hawai'i
5. Other such criteria which may apply

NO SINGLE ACT IS SUFFICIENT TO ESTABLISH RESIDENCY IN THE STATE OF HAWAII.

Filing a Hawai'i State Resident Income Tax Return and registering to vote in the State of Hawai'i are probably the two most important indices for establishing intent. Being enrolled at the UH West O'ahu is insufficient as evidence of residency. Other legal factors involved in making a residency determination include:

1. The 12 months of continuous residence in Hawai'i shall begin on the date that the first overt action is taken to make Hawai'i the permanent residence.
2. Residency in Hawai'i and residency in another state or country cannot be held simultaneously.
3. Presence in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher learning does not create resident status.
4. The residency of unmarried students who are minors follows that of the parents or legal guardian. Marriage emancipates a minor.

5. Resident status, once acquired, will be lost by future voluntary action of the resident inconsistent with such status. However, Hawai'i residency will not be lost solely because of absence from the state while a member of the United States Armed Forces, or while a student at any institution of learning, provided that Hawai'i is claimed and maintained as the person's legal residence.

Additionally, nonresident students who are newly admitted to the University of Hawai'i may be affected by a change in the University of Hawai'i's policy regarding nonresident status for tuition purposes. The policy is in accordance with Chapter 20-4-8, Hawai'i Administrative Rules which states: "Presence in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher education shall not create resident status. A nonresident student shall be presumed to be in Hawai'i primarily to attend an institution of higher learning...Continued presence in Hawai'i during vacation periods and occasional periods of interruption of the course of study shall not in itself overcome this presumption."

Nonresident students who enter any campus of the University of Hawai'i may not be allowed to change his/her residency status from nonresident to resident during any period in which she or he:

1. is enrolled for six (6) or more credits at any institution of higher learning in Hawai'i;
2. was absent from Hawai'i for more than 30 days per year during school vacation periods;
3. received student financial aid assistance based on residency in another state; or
4. was a dependent of nonresident parent(s) or legal guardian.

STATUTORY EXEMPTIONS

Nonresidents may be allowed to pay resident tuition if they qualify as one of the following:

1. United States military personnel and their authorized dependents during the period such personnel are stationed in Hawai'i on active duty.
2. Members of the Hawai'i National Guard and Hawai'i-based Reserves.
3. Full-time employees of the University of Hawai'i and their spouses and legal dependents (as defined under Internal Revenue Service rules).
4. East-West Center student grantees pursuing baccalaureate or advanced degrees.
5. Hawaiians, descendants of the aboriginal peoples that inhabited the Hawaiian Islands and exercised sovereignty in the Hawaiian Islands in 1778.

6. Citizens of an eligible Pacific Island District, commonwealth, territory, or insular jurisdiction, state, or nation which does not provide public institutions that grant baccalaureate degrees may be allowed to pay 150% of the resident tuition.

Appeal Process

Residency decisions may be appealed by filing a Residency Appeals form located at the Student Services Office. The appeal will be considered by the University of Hawai'i system-wide Residency Appeal Committee. Students should contact the Office of Admissions for information on how to initiate an appeal before registering for classes.

Misrepresentation

A student or prospective student who provides incorrect information on any form or document intended for use in determination of resident status for tuition purposes will be subject to the disciplinary measures provided for in the rules and regulations governing residency status.

UH EMPLOYEE TUITION WAIVER

University of Hawai'i employees who are employed half-time or more, or spouses and domestic partners of employees in bargaining units 07 and 08, who register for credit courses offered through any unit of the University of Hawai'i are exempt from the payment of tuition and fees up to a maximum of six credits per semester in accordance with Board of Regents Policy 6-11. Employee tuition waivers will be honored only during the late registration period (once instruction begins). Any tuition and fees in excess of the six credits must be paid for by the student. During the summer, there is a $25.00 administrative fee. No refunds will be made.

The taxability of tuition waivers is governed by the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) section 117. The value of this tuition waiver may be taxable to the employee. Tuition waivers are not taxable for employees and employee spouses for education below graduate level. Please consult with your tax advisor if you have further questions. For more information regarding the employee tuition waivers, please check: www.hawaii.edu/ohr/docs/forms/waiver.htm.

Student Services & Academic Support

STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services Office, A-108

Hours: Monday-Friday, 8 am- 6:30 pm

Phone: 454-4700; toll-free from the neighbor islands at 1-866-299-8656

ORIENTATION AND COMMUNICATIONS

Orientation

All new students should participate in an orientation session before their initial semester begins at the University. Orientation covers academic and other support services offered to students, where to get information on deadlines, registration, clarification on degree/program requirements, and other student-related activities. Students will be informed of the time and place of orientation in their admissions packet. Students who attend orientation will be allowed early entry to register.

Email Notices/Addresses

Email is an official means of communication for University-related business. The University will periodically send notices to students through email. The email notices will be sent only to "hawaii.edu" accounts. Students are responsible for retrieving their email on a regular basis. The email will post to students' MyUH Portal "homepage". Students are strongly encouraged to check their email on a regular basis. Email may be "bounced" or redirected to a preferred internet provider address. However, the University will not be responsible for delivery of messages to addresses redirected from "hawaii.edu." Instructions for how to forward or "bounce" your email may be found at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms.

About once a week, Student Services will send out an email newsletter called The West Press Express. This newsletter will provide reminders on deadlines, university activities/events, notice of course cancellations, or other notices of interest to students.

MyUH Portal: myuhportal.hawaii.edu

The MyUH Portal website is where you can:

- check for classes at UH West O'ahu and other UH system campuses
- register and make changes to your registration
- check your schedule
- make payments
- view your grades and your UH transcript(s)
- update your address

Students can also customize the website by creating a personal calendar, adding news and events, movie schedules, etc.; access your UH email; change your password; view your STAR Degree Check for information on your academic status; check on your financial aid status; and view any holds on your records. For more information, check out the student tutorials at <http://myuhinfo.hawaii.edu/page/myuhtutorial.html>

About once a week, Student Services will send out an email newsletter called The West Press Express. This newsletter will provide reminders on deadlines, university activities/events, notice of course cancellations, or other notices of interest to students.

Registration Bulletin

UH West O'ahu publishes a Registration Bulletin that is mailed to all students prior to a registration period. It is also available at UH West Oahu's website at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/registration. This bulletin provides students with relevant information regarding University activities, deadlines and other events pertinent to registration.

Housing

On-campus housing/dormitory facilities are not available at the UH West O'ahu. However, the University of Hawai'i Off-Campus Housing (OCH) referral program is a referral service provided by the University of Hawai'i. The University of Hawai'i does not currently own, or operate any of these off-campus facilities. Registered or admitted students and faculty or staff at any of University of Hawai'i campus may utilize this service. Currently, there is no fee to list or view any of the ads on this website www.housing.hawaii.edu/och. Students, faculty and staff are required to use their University of Hawai'i username to gain access to the listing database. Admitted students who have not been assigned a username may request one at www.hawaii.edu/account. Rental/leasing agreements are worked out directly with listed landlords. The University of Hawai'i does not investigate, endorse, or guarantee the accuracy of any listing referrals, the quality of the facility listed, nor the companies and firms listed on the Off-Campus Housing website. Any agreement entered into is solely between or amongst the involved parties. A listing on this website does not indicate University approval or endorsement of any kind. The Off-Campus Housing Program will not be able to secure an apartment or rental on your behalf.

HEALTH REGULATIONS

State public health regulations require that all persons enrolling in any of Hawai'i's colleges/universities submit a certificate indicating that they are free from active tuberculosis. This requirement applies to both part-time and full-time students. The examination for tuberculosis must be performed within twelve (12) months prior to post-secondary school enrollment.

A negative tuberculin skin test is required to certify that there is no active tuberculosis. If the skin test is positive, a chest x-ray will be required. The certificate must be submitted to the Student Services Office as part of the University's admission requirements.

Written approval to attend class from the Department of Health must be obtained before any person found to have active tuberculosis is enrolled.

A tuberculin skin test can be obtained at any State Health Center. In the Leeward area, students may obtain skin tests at the Leeward O'ahu Public Health Office in the Waipahu Civic Center, or the Leeward Health Center in Pearl City. Skin tests are also available at the Lanakila Health Center. Students are advised to call for information regarding service hours. X-rays may also be obtained at the Lanakila Health Center.

Students are also required to provide evidence of immunity to measles (rubeola). Those born in or before 1957 are assumed to have acquired natural immunity. All others must provide evidence of being vaccinated. State Department of Health regulations require a two-shot series for the MMR (measles, mumps and rubella).

Health insurance coverage is required of all international students.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

UH West O'ahu believes that students function best in an intimate learning environment in which they are active contributors to their own educational planning. Such planning includes identifying individual educational goals and objectives, as well as future career and educational plans.

Students admitted in 2008-09 are required to meet with a Student Services Advisor (sometimes called Academic Advisor) during their first semester of enrollment at UH West O'ahu. Verification of a meeting is required for students to register for the second semester. While only the first semester's meeting is mandatory, you are encouraged to continue to meet or contact your student services advisor at least once each semester.

In addition, upon acceptance to UH West O'ahu, students who have declared a major/concentration are assigned a Faculty Advisor. The name and contact information for your faculty advisor is included with your acceptance letter. Faculty advisors are an excellent source of information on academic planning, career/professional development, and admissions to graduate programs. We strongly recommend you meet with your Faculty Advisor during your first semester.

Some students enter UH West O'ahu as 'undeclared' while they decide on the major/concentration they want to pursue. Once decided, or if you want to change your major/concentration, you will need to complete and submit to the Student Services Office the UHWO "Student Record Update" form which is available online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/forms or at the Student Services Office. For more information on Faculty and Student Services Advisors call 454-4700 or toll-free from the neighbor islands at (866) 299-8656 or visit the Student Services Office in Room A-108

If a student's interest shifts to another academic program, the student must report the change of program, in writing, to the Student Services Office. A new faculty advisor may then be assigned.

Student Services Advisors are also available for academic advising and graduation requirement checks.

STAR Degree Check

Students are ultimately responsible for ensuring that their graduation requirements have been met. The STAR degree check is a tool that enables students to monitor in "real time" their General Education, Focus, major, concentration, and grade point average requirements. STAR also provides advising information on courses that can be utilized to fulfill a requirement, and advising notations from Student Services or Faculty Advisors. Go to <http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu> and click on the "STAR Degree Check" link. Students who are

CAREER SERVICES

The Career Services office at UH West O’ahu offers students guidance, support and resources for life-long career development. Through classes, workshops, and individual and group advising, students are provided support services that help to clarify career goals, and planning for the transition to graduate school, the workplace, or the next step in their career path.

Career advising is available through in-person meetings, phone conferences, web network conferencing, and email. Students are also encouraged to talk with their faculty advisors and with representatives from graduate school programs and businesses to decide how best to achieve their academic and career goals. Monthly and weekly notices of workshops, classes and other events will be posted on the Career Services website at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/career2, through The West Press, and through the email newsletter, The West Press Express, as well as being posted on bulletin boards on campus.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT AND ORGANIZATIONS

The Associated Students of the University of Hawai‘i–West O’ahu (ASUHWO), formed in 1986, is the university’s formal student government organization. ASUHWO’s primary purpose is to facilitate a variety of cultural, educational, and social extracurricular activities that are responsive to the interests and needs of the University of Hawai‘i–West O’ahu students. Also, the university administration may consult with ASUHWO for recommendations to existing and proposed policies.

The ASUHWO board consists of four executive positions and seven senators who represent the academic divisions and each class level. Elections for these eleven ASUHWO Officers are held once a year, in the spring semester. All students enrolled for credit and who have paid their student activity fees are considered to be members of organization. Active participation in the organization and its activities is strongly encouraged.

Students with specific interests may start up a student club and register as an organization; ASUHWO can provide assistance and support to student clubs as needed.

To become involved in ASUHWO or to start a new club, contact the Student Services Office at (808) 454-4700.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

UH West O’ahu Alumni Association was chartered in 1984 to promote goodwill and fellowship among its members and the University. Key objectives of the Alumni Association are to support and assist UH West O’ahu in pursuing its goals, and increasing community awareness of the University’s role. Besides UH West O’ahu graduates, all currently enrolled students, as well as any individual interested in supporting the University, are welcome to join and participate in association activities.

FINANCIAL AID

Financial assistance in the form of scholarships, grants, loans, and employment is available to students. Most types of assistance are awarded on the basis of need, and are restricted to those who have never earned a bachelor’s degree. To apply for any need-based aid, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and send it to the federal processor. The form is available in the Student Services Office and on the internet at: www.fafsa.ed.gov. Applicants may also be required to furnish the University with documents verifying their financial circumstances, such as copies of theirs and/or their parents’ federal income tax return, as well as other forms or documentation.

Students are encouraged to apply early. It is recommended that those who require financial assistance for the fall semester apply by April 1. For the spring semester, students should apply by October 1. Priority for need-based financial aid will be given to the students who are verified to have the most need, and who meet the application deadline. For applications received after the deadline, aid will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to the availability of funds.

Eligibility for assistance is contingent on the applicant: 1) being a classified student, and 2) maintaining satisfactory academic progress. A copy of the UH West O’ahu Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is mailed to all financial aid recipients and is available at the Student Services Office or online at <http://www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/satisfactory>.

Note: Regulations for financial aid programs are subject to change.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit, academic performance, and/or financial need.

Centennial Scholarship Program: This program applies to students entering the university starting with the fall of 2007. Criteria includes: be a Hawai‘i resident; graduate from a public Hawai‘i high school in May 2007 or later; a high school GPA of at least 3.8, or 1800 score on the three-part SAT Reasoning Test (or a 27 composite score on the ACT) at the time of application to UH West O’ahu; be admitted, and will attend as a freshman in the fall semester after graduation; and will enroll as a full-time student at UH West O’ahu (12 or more credits). For additional details please visit www.hawaii.edu/centennial scholarship.

Chancellor’s Award*: This award acknowledges academic achievement, leadership, and community service. Criteria includes: at least half-time enrollment (a minimum of 6 credits); freshman must have a High School GPA of at least 3.75; transfer students must have a transfer GPA of at least 3.75; continuing or returning students must have a cumulative UH West O’ahu GPA of at least 3.75.

Charles E. Hemenway Scholarship*: Demonstrated financial need (completion of FAFSA required); character and qualities indicative of good citizenship; resident of Hawai‘i; enrolled at least half-time (a minimum of 6 credits); and have a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Hawai‘i Veterans Memorial Fund*: Demonstrated financial need (completion of FAFSA required); character and qualities indicative of good citizenship; commitment to serve Hawai‘i and its people; resident of Hawai‘i; full-time enrollment (12 or more credits); and a minimum GPA of 2.75.

Henry & Dorothy Castle Memorial Early Childhood Education Scholarship*: The purpose of this fund is to encourage and assist students seeking a Bachelors degree in Early Childhood Education at UHWO in hopes that the student will remain in Hawai‘i to teach. The applicant must demonstrate financial need and be enrolled at least half-time (6 credits) in the Bachelors degree in Early Childhood Education program. No FAFSA is required.

Nakila Steele Scholarship*: Established to support one incoming freshman majoring in Hawaiian Pacific Studies at UHWO with a full tuition award for four consecutive years. Preference to students from Leeward, Ewa, Central or North Shore areas with interest in Hawaiian Language studies. Must be enrolled full-time.

Native Hawaiian Tuition Waiver*:

Demonstrated financial need (completion of FAFSA required); Native Hawaiian ancestry as determined by the UH System Application (admission application); resident of Hawai'i; and must be enrolled at least half-time (a minimum of 6 credits).

Osher Reentry Scholarship Fund*:

The purpose of the Osher Reentry Scholarship Fund is to provide scholarships for tuition costs to assist reentry students between the ages of 25-50, whose collegiate studies have been interrupted by circumstances beyond their control for approximately five years, and who are resuming their studies to complete their first undergraduate baccalaureate degree in any area of study.

Ralph Miwa Memorial Scholarship*:

Established in 1994 in the memory of Dr. Ralph Miwa, who was instrumental in the founding of the UH West O'ahu (formerly West O'ahu College) and served as chancellor from 1976-1986. Criteria includes: be a classified student at UH West O'ahu enrolled at least half-time (at least 6 credits); completion of at least 12 credits at UH West O'ahu with a GPA of at least 3.75.

Ruth E. Black Scholarship*:

This award is available to classified students enrolled at least half-time (at least 6 credits). Student must be in good academic standing and demonstrate the potential for academic growth and achievement. Preference shall be given to sons and daughters of engineers, contractors and construction workers.

Second Century Scholars Program:

Promote and increase access to higher education opportunities with preference to classified students of Native Hawaiian ancestry. Students must demonstrate financial need (completion of FAFSA required). Priority to students enrolled at least half-time or greater.

State of Hawai'i B Plus Scholarship:

For Hawai'i high school students who graduate from a local public high school in the Spring of 2006 or later, GPA of at least a 3.0, must be a resident of Hawai'i with financial need, and at least half-time enrollment (at least 6 credits).

*Scholarship requires a separate application. Applications are available at least one month prior to the scholarship deadline at the UH West Oahu's Student Services Office, or online at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/scholarship

GRANTS

Grants are a form of aid that does not need to be repaid. Eligibility is determined based on financial need.

Academic Competitiveness Grant: A federal grant for students with exceptional financial need (eligible for a Federal Pell Grant) and graduated from high school after January 2005. Must have completed a "rigorous secondary school program," as designated by the state in which the student resided when completing the program. Eligible recipients will receive awards of up to $750 for the first academic year of study and up to $1,300 for the second academic year of study from this federally-funded gift program. Full-time enrollment (12 or more credits) is required.

Federal Pell Grant: A federal grant for students with exceptional financial need and have not earned their first baccalaureate degree. To qualify for a Pell Grant, you must be enrolled at least half-time (at least 6 credits). In some cases, less than half-time students may qualify. Award amounts, based on a student's Expected Family Contribution (EFC), are determined by the U.S. Department of Education based on congressional funding.

Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant: A federal grant for students with exceptional financial need (eligible for a Federal Pell Grant) and must be enrolled at least half-time (6 credits). Award amount varies.

Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership Grant (LEAP): A federal grant program with matching state funds. Must be a resident of Hawai'i with exceptional financial need (eligible for a Federal Pell Grant) and enrolled at least half-time. This award is also known as Hawai'i Student Incentive Grant. Award amount varies.

University of Hawai'i Opportunity Grant: A university grant program for students with financial need intended to protect the access of low-income students to higher education. To be eligible for an Opportunity Grant, an individual must: have demonstrated financial need (completion of FAFSA required); be a resident of Hawai'i; classified undergraduate student; enrolled at least half-time (6 credits); continuing students must be making satisfactory academic progress, per federal guidelines. Award amount varies.

LOANS

Loans are borrowed monies that must be repaid with interest.

Federal Subsidized Stafford Loan: A fixed interest rate loan awarded to undergraduates who demonstrate financial need. This loan is funded by a bank, credit union or any other organization that participates in the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP). The federal government pays the interest on the loan until repayment begins and/or while you are in deferment. Loan fees may be deducted proportionately from each loan disbursement. Please check with your lender for more information.

Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loan: A fixed interest rate loan typically awarded to undergraduates who do not demonstrate financial need, but may also be used to supplement a Subsidized Stafford loan. The federal government does not pay for the interest on this loan; you are responsible for the accrued interest from the time of disbursement until repayment in full. However, you have the option of capitalizing your loan until repayment begins, having it accrue interest while you are in school and having that accrued interest added to the principal loan amount. The terms for the unsubsidized Stafford loan are the same as those for the subsidized Stafford loan. Loan fees may be deducted proportionately from each loan disbursement. Please check with your lender for more information.

Federal PLUS loan: A federal loan for parents with good credit histories of dependent, undergraduate students enrolled at least half time (six credits). The PLUS loan has a fixed interest rate. Parents may borrow up to the cost of attendance minus any other financial aid. Repayments usually begin 60 days after the final loan disbursement for the academic year. Loan fees may be deducted proportionately from each loan disbursement. Please check with your lender for more information.

Short-Term Loan: No interest, short-term loans are available to help students meet their educational expenses (other than tuition) under emergency circumstances. Short-term loans must be repaid within 30 days.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Federal Work Study (FWS) Program:

Part-time employment is available for students who qualify based on financial need and who are enrolled on at least a half-time basis. The primary area of FWS jobs are in the community service area (tutoring elementary school aged children, disability services, service learning coordinator).

On-Campus Employment: Part-time employment at the University is available to students enrolled for at least a half-time basis and in good academic standing. To view job opportunities at UH West O'ahu and other UH campuses, visit the University of Hawai'i Student Employment & Cooperative Education (SECE) website at www.hawaii.edu/sece. Positions are also advertised at the Student Services Office and through the campus email newsletter, The West Press Express.

REPAYMENT REQUIREMENTS

Financial aid is awarded to defray educational expenses (including living costs while attending school). The complete withdrawal from all courses within a term may require the repayment of funds disbursed, as well as the return of tuition refunds as stated in the section Refunds for Financial Aid Recipients in the Tuition and Fees chapter of this catalog. The amount of financial aid funds required to be returned (repaid) to the University will be calculated based on the last date of attendance in classes as indicated on the University's Complete Withdrawal Form, or the last documented date of attendance in classes. If this date cannot be precisely determined (e.g., if the instructor does not regularly take attendance), the last date of attendance will be approximated from other indices, such as the last exam or quiz taken, or the last assignment submitted.

Any student who does not successfully complete the academic term for which federal financial aid has been awarded may be ineligible to keep the full package of aid. Only that portion of aid which corresponds to the period of enrollment completed, may be retained by the student. Please refer to the section Refunds for Financial Aid Recipients in the Tuition and Fees chapter of this catalog. A copy of the complete Withdrawal Policy for Financial Aid recipients is mailed to all students receiving financial aid and is available at the Student Services Office.

AID FOR UH WEST O'AHU GRADUATES

UH West O'ahu Alumni Association Scholarship: Applicants for this $1,000 award must have earned a baccalaureate degree from UH West O'ahu with a minimum cumulative 3.5 GPA, be accepted or enrolled in a graduate degree program, and be a member of the UHWO Alumni Association. Availability of the application material will be announced in the UH West O'ahu Alumni Association newsletter, and through the campus email newsletter, The West Press Express.

Barbara Newton Memorial Scholarship:

This scholarship was established in memory of the late Dr. Barbara Newton, UH West O'ahu's first Psychology professor. Applicants must have earned a concentration in Psychology at UH West O'ahu and have been accepted to, or currently enrolled in a graduate program in Psychology. The amount of the award and the number of awards made may vary. Selection is based on academic merit and the applicant's statement of purpose. Applications are available at the Student Services Office and from the Psychology faculty.

VETERANS AFFAIRS

Veterans' Benefits

The University is approved for veterans' training, and eligible students may receive financial assistance as provided for by the Veterans' Readjustment Benefits Act and the War Orphans' Assistance Act.

Under the regulations of the Department of Veterans Affairs, benefits accruing to the student vary with the course load. Determination of the benefits a student is eligible for is made by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Enrollment Certification

Veterans or family members of veterans registering at the UH West O'ahu for the first time under any of the various Federal veterans' bills should present a Certificate of Education and Training or a Certificate of Eligibility and Entitlement to the Student Services Office. An enrollment certification will be forwarded to the Department of Veterans Affairs only after a student has submitted official transcripts of all previous college course work, been accepted as a classified student and has submitted in writing a request for Veterans Affairs certification.

Only courses directly applicable to the student's program of study may be certified for benefits. Students must consult a Student Services Advisor each semester to insure that their proposed schedule of courses will qualify for payment and to be certified for benefit payments.

Academic Standards of Progress

Academic regulations apply equally to the veteran-student and the non-veteran student at UH West O'ahu. For the purpose of guiding veteran-students toward successful completion of degree requirements, policies and procedures have been established in accordance with Veterans Affairs directives. It is the responsibility of all students to acquaint themselves with the academic policies and procedures listed elsewhere in the catalog.

A veteran-student who enrolls in courses and does not attend on a regular basis, withdraws, or fails courses enrolled in, except for extenuating circumstances, will be considered progressing unsatisfactorily and the Department of Veterans Affairs will be notified.

Records

The Department of Veterans Affairs will be informed when:

1. Appropriate credit is given for comparable work completed for previous educational training.
2. A veteran-student changes his/her enrollment status.
3. A veteran-student is placed on academic probation.
4. A veteran-student is in violation of the attendance policy.

COMPUTER FACILITIES FOR STUDENT USE

Room: D105; Phone: 454-4719; Website: www.uhwolab.com

Students receive a "hawaii.edu" email account once they get their registration account through the MyUH portal. Assistance in requesting accounts is available at the computer laboratory. A valid UH West O'ahu identification card must be presented to use the computer laboratory.

Intel-based multimedia PCs running Windows, laser printers, and scanning equipment are available in the Computer Lab, along with word processing, spreadsheet, presentation and database software. Please be aware that there are limited printing privileges. Assistance in the use of all the equipment and programs is offered. Lab hours will vary from semester-to-semester. Students should consult the student newsletter, The West Press for the computer laboratory's schedule, or go to www.uhwolab.com.

Laulima is an online course management software that aids students in their classes by creating, managing, organizing and housing a Web-based learning environment. On this site, professors can post lecture notes and information, grades, quizzes, have chat areas and a bulletin board. Laulima student tutorials have been created on how to use the basic tools of Laulima, such as email, discussions, chats and taking quizzes.

WRITING AND LEARNING CENTER

B-108, Phone: 454-4794

Website:

www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/writingcenter

UH West O'ahu's Writing and Learning Center, located in B-108, is open approximately 20 hours a week, both day and evenings, to provide students, faculty, and staff with assistance on all aspects of writing. Trained staff is on hand to help students and others begin a writing project, focus on a topic, develop a thesis, organize a research plan, create an outline, and review drafts of written work. The Writing and Learning Center also offers approximately 20 hours a week of tutoring in accounting, economics, statistics, and oral communication. Peer tutors are available to help students understand concepts of descriptive and inferential statistics, correlation and linear regression, and procedures for formulas used in calculations. In addition, tutoring is available in techniques of Powerpoint presentations and effective methods for oral presentations. Tutoring in accounting, economics, statistics, and writing is also available online through the Writing and Learning Center's website at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/writingcenter.

MATH CENTER

B-108, Phone: 454-4830

UH West O'ahu opened its new Math Center in the Spring 2008. In addition to assistance with class assignments, student math tutors and tutees work together on real-world mathematics applications involving the internationally renowned sailing vessel, the Hōkūle'a and community organizations. Assistance is provided on a walk-in basis, and individual appointments may also be made with the tutors. Please contact Dr. Linda Furuto for more information about the center, or to find out more about becoming a math tutor (email: lfuruto@hawaii.edu, tel.: 454-4830).

CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY

Security at UH West O'ahu

UH West O'ahu is concerned about the safety and welfare of its students, employees and campus visitors. It is strongly committed to providing as safe an environment as possible. However, because no campus is immune from crime, students and employees must assume the primary responsibility for their own security by exercising care and caution as they move about campus.

This section will provide tips on the precautions that could be taken to minimize the opportunities for criminal activity, as well as information about UH West O'ahu's security policies and procedures in the event that criminal action is observed or experienced.

Reporting Criminal Actions and Emergencies

The Vice Chancellor of Administration is responsible for campus security. All criminal actions, attempted crimes, or other emergencies occurring on campus should be promptly reported to the Vice Chancellor at 454-4742. The crime should also be reported to the Honolulu Police Department, particularly if the Vice Chancellor of Administration is not available, or if the crime/emergency takes place after business hours.

Phones located in Leeward Community College (LCC) and UH West O'ahu offices are available for use in reporting crimes or for requesting assistance. After business hours, public pay phones located at various sites around campus may be used to place free 911 calls. At UH West O'ahu, pay phones are located at the Diamond Head (east) end of the campus between Building A and B, near the Business Office. On the LCC campus, phones are located on the ewa side of the library on the main level, on the mauka side (next to the PS building on the lower level).

UH West O'ahu does not have its own full-time security officers; however, because this campus shares facilities with LCC, LCC's security officers are accessible to UHWO when needed. Leeward's Security Office is in building LA-238. Officers are on duty 24 hours a day. At times the office itself may be closed while officers are patrolling the campus; however, they are always accessible by phone at 455-0611. A special emergency phone located outside of LA-238 may be used to contact officers directly.

Besides patrolling the campus, LCC Security Officers offer escort services and other special services upon request. Additional information about special services may be obtained from the UH West O'ahu Vice Chancellor for Administration.

In addition to LCC security offices, UH West O'ahu contracts with a security guard firm to provide additional security in the evenings during academic instructional days. The contracted security guard service is provided Monday through Friday from 4:30 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. The additional security guard patrols the UH West O'ahu campus and provides a walking escort for students to anywhere on campus. The cell phone number for the security guard is posted in the classrooms and restrooms.

Access to Campus Facilities

UH West O'ahu is located next to the LCC campus. Its main facilities are located at the Diamond Head end of the LCC campus, next to the Theater. The Center of Labor Education and Research (CLEAR) is located at the ewa end of the campus.

Both UHWO and LCC facilities are open to the public during business hours, and in the day and evening when classes are in session. The campus "curfew" is 11:00 p.m. After this hour, the campus is considered closed. The parking lots are chained, the buildings locked, and access is limited to faculty, staff, and authorized students only. Any other person(s) found on campus after 11:00 p.m., will be considered trespassing.

CRIME STATISTICS AT LEEWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE / UH WEST O'AHU

Murder/Non-Negligent Manslaughter	0	0	0	0
Forcible Sex Offenses (including forcible rape)	0	0	0	0
Nonforcible Sex Offenses	0	0	1	0
Aggravated Assault	0	0	0	1
Burglary	3	3	0	0
Motor Vehicle Theft	0	0	1	3

Authority of Security Personnel

Unauthorized individual(s) found loitering on campus will be asked to leave, or if necessary, will be escorted off campus by LCC security personnel. In circumstances where criminal action is suspected or has taken place, the Honolulu Police Department (HPD) will be contacted and suspects will be detained, pending the arrival of police officers from HPD.

Sex Offenses

As with any criminal offense that occurs on campus, students should report any incidents of rape, attempted rape, or sexual assault to the Vice Chancellor for Administration (454-4742). The student should also notify the Honolulu Police Department (911) and/or LCC Security Office (456-0611).

In addition, students should call or go immediately to the Sex Abuse Treatment Center at the Kapiolani Medical Center for Women and Children (Hotline 524-7273). Even if a medical condition does not appear to be indicated, it is important to preserve evidence that may be necessary to prove criminal assault. The Treatment Center can help to obtain that evidence, as well as provide emotional support, counseling, required medical treatment, and information.

Assistance is available at the Student Services Office for students who would like to change their academic situation following an alleged sexual assault incident, as well as for those who need counseling. While forcible rape has long been recognized as a sex offense, students should be made aware that acquaintance (date) rape is also a crime.

Use of Alcohol and Illegal Drugs

The purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages is regulated by state law. No one under the age of 21 may purchase, possess, or consume alcoholic beverages. In addition, both State and Federal drug laws prohibit the manufacture, distribution, purchase, possession, and use of illegal drugs. In conformance with these laws, UH West O'ahu prohibits such activities, illegal drugs and alcohol on University property and at University-sponsored events.

Weapons

The possession or use of lethal weapons on campus is strictly prohibited. Lethal weapons include but are not limited to firearms, ammunition, spear guns, explosives, and dangerous substances. Any person found in violation may be subject to the provisions of state law, University policy, and the Student Conduct Code.

Disciplinary Action

Any member of the University community who commits a crime on campus will be subject to criminal prosecution under State law, as well as being subject to University disciplinary action. Off-campus behavior which indicates that the student represents a danger to the health and safety of other members of the UH West O'ahu community may also be subject to the University's disciplinary procedures. The University's disciplinary procedures are described in the Student Conduct Code. Copies are available upon request at the Student Services Office, or at www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/studsr/studentconduct.pdf.

Sanctions ranging from warning, suspension, or expulsion may be imposed following a hearing. Both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a campus disciplinary proceeding, and both shall be informed of the outcome of such hearings.

Safety Precautions

Students and employees are reminded to exercise caution and to actively practice crime prevention. Workshops for students and employees on how to avoid rape and other crimes both on and off campus will be announced in the student newsletter.

Criminals often act when opportunities to commit crime present themselves. By taking precautions, such opportunities may be minimized.

- Keep alert; be aware of your surroundings. Walk briskly.
- Travel in pairs, if possible. Use escort services.
- Park and walk in lighted areas.
- Lock your car, office doors, and windows.
- Do not leave belongings unattended. Mark and/or engrave valuables.
- Have keys ready when approaching your car so you will be able to get into your car quickly.
- Report any suspicious persons(s) or activities.
- Report any losses or incidents immediately.
- Do not lend your keys to anyone. They may be lost, stolen, or duplicated.
- Register bikes and mopeds.
- Familiarize yourself with the location of phones, blue emergency call box, and the security office.

REMEMBER – THE PERSON WHO IS MOST RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR SECURITY IS YOU. ALWAYS KEEP SAFETY IN MIND

ILOs

To ensure educational quality and curricular coherence, the University of Hawai‘i–West O‘ahu has identified institutional learning outcomes (ILOs) which all students will have achieved upon graduation from UH West O‘ahu. The ILOs provide guidance to the divisional and concentration outcomes which define the knowledge, skills and abilities of students earning a degree in a specific discipline. ILOs were adopted by the UH West O‘ahu Faculty Senate in Spring 2000 and revised in Spring 2003, Fall 2004, Spring 2005, and Fall 2007. They address written and oral communication, quantitative literacy, global and indigenous perspectives, and critical thinking and are listed below. Divisional and concentration learning outcomes are listed in each Division’s chapter of this catalog.

WRITTEN COMMUNICATION

- Demonstrate clear and effective writing for an intended audience. Clear and effective writing is demonstrated within and across disciplines, utilizing wide-ranging genres. Examples of written communications may include (but are not limited to) narrative, descriptive, expository, and persuasive prose, developed in the context of essays, research papers, position papers, technical writing, reflections, creative writing, lesson plans, and letters.

ORAL COMMUNICATION

- Demonstrate clear and effective speaking skills when communicating with an intended audience. Clear and effective speaking skills are demonstrated within and across disciplines. Examples of oral communications may include (but are not limited to) narrative, descriptive, expository, and persuasive discourse, in the context of preparing and delivering a speech; giving a class presentation; leading a small group discussion; lecturing on or explaining a topic; or debating an issue.

QUANTITATIVE LITERACY

- Apply mathematical reasoning to obtain accurate results in solving problems. Includes using numerical data and concepts such as numbers, percentages, estimates, tables, graphs, charts, and diagrams to understand and solve problems.

GLOBAL AND INDIGENOUS PERSPECTIVES

- Analyze issues from multiple cultural perspectives to articulate an understanding of the interconnectedness of local and global issues. Includes understanding of local and global linguistic, political, social, economic, environmental, religious, family, educational, etc. systems. Focus is on multicultural/cross-cultural perspectives and frameworks that address local and global issues and concerns and their inter-connectedness.

CRITICAL THINKING

- Demonstrate critical thinking skills by applying knowledge, technology, and information to solve problems and make decisions in socially responsible and ethical ways. Includes using research skills, technology, knowledge, ideas, concepts, theories, information, etc. to solve problems and make decisions responsibly and ethically.

Academic Programs and Graduation Requirements

Students who choose to study at UH West O'ahu have elected to attend a university with an emphasis on the liberal arts and a professional studies curriculum. UH West O'ahu's programs place major emphasis on quality instruction and on individual student learning. There are multiple opportunities for interaction with peers and faculty.

The organization and philosophy of the University assumes that students will take an active part in establishing their educational goals and in planning their educational programs. It is hoped that in attaining their goals, students will take full advantage of UH West O'ahu's setting to give full expression to their ideas and insights along with other members of this academic community.

MAJORS AND CONCENTRATIONS

UH West O'ahu's curriculum offers three Baccalaureate degrees: a Bachelor of Arts with four majors: Business Administration, Humanities, Public Administration, and Social Sciences; a Bachelor of Education; and a Bachelor of Applied Science. Each major within the degrees requires students to choose a concentration, or area of study. The requirements for each degree assure the attainment of both breadth and depth of knowledge in the chosen field. Although briefly covered here, details of each degree and concentration are described in more detail in other chapters of this catalog.

1. The Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration, housed in the Division of Professional Studies, offers two concentrations, in Accounting or General Business Administration. All students pursuing Business Administration are required to take core courses which form the foundation of the major, and to complete a capstone course (i.e., Senior Project or Administrative Practicum).

2. The Bachelor of Arts in Humanities offers concentrations in English, Hawaiian-Pacific Studies, History, or Philosophy. Students gain breadth in the Humanities by taking six credits in one field that complements the concentration. For example, a student who selects History as their concentration must also take six credits in either English, Philosophy or Hawaiian-Pacific Studies. Students are also required to take the Humanities Basic courses which integrate knowledge from several disciplines. Although not required, skills courses related to study in the Humanities may be included in the student's educational program. All students majoring in the Humanities are required to complete a capstone course (i.e., Senior Project or Practicum).

3. The Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration is housed in the Division of Professional Studies. Students may choose a concentration in Health Care Administration, General Public Administration or Justice Administration. All students majoring in Public Administration are required to take core courses and complete a capstone course (i.e., Senior Project or Administrative Practicum). A homeland security certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management, and a certificate in Health Care Administration are also offered and may be completed independently or along with the BA degree.

4. The Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences offers concentrations in Anthropology, Applied Track, Early Childhood Education, Economics, Political Science, Psychology, or Sociology. In addition to required courses in the concentration, students also gain breadth in the social sciences by taking an additional nine credits from a complementary social science field. For example, a student who chooses a concentration in psychology must complete nine credits in one of the following areas: anthropology, sociology, political science, or economics. Social Sciences Basic courses, which integrate knowledge from several disciplines, and/or skills courses, related to study in the social sciences must also be completed. All students majoring in Social Sciences are required to complete a capstone course (i.e., Senior Project or Senior Practicum). Certificates in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies and Applied Forensic Anthropology may be completed independently or with the BA degree.

5. The Bachelor of Education currently offers one concentration in Elementary Education (K-6). Building on a strong general education foundation, the concentration offers coursework in Pre-Professional Education and Professional Education (EDEE 400-level). Additionally, students gain breadth of knowledge in a 15 credit hour block of Restricted Electives that is comprised of course work from a single discipline or a multi-disciplinary field of study. For example, students completing the Associate in Arts in Teaching (AAT) degree at Leeward Community College, will meet this requirement by completing the education courses in the AAT Education (EDEE) course work across the curriculum is field-based. Teacher candidates gain first-hand experience working in elementary classrooms at one of West O'ahu's partner Professional Development Schools. The program culminates in a 15 week Student Teaching (capstone course) semester that encompasses a Contemporary Ethical Issues (E Focus) seminar.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for a degree from the UH West O'ahu must be enrolled at UH West O'ahu the semester they apply for graduation and must satisfy the following requirements for graduation:

- General Education core (Foundations and Diversification) and Focus requirements: (Hawaiian, Asian, Pacific Issues, Oral Communication, Contemporary Ethical Issues and Writing-Intensive) requirements.
- Major and Concentration requirements
- Credit requirements
- Grade point average (GPA) requirements

I. General Education and Focus Requirements

Freshman students admitted to UH West O'ahu are required to complete the General Education and Focus requirements. The General Education requirements consist of two components: foundations and diversification requirements. Focus requirements are university/graduation requirements required of all students. Certification of course work completed to meet general education requirements will be made by the Student Services Office. Questions on the applicability of course work should be directed to the Student Services Office.

A. General Education Core Requirements:

1. Foundations Requirements: 12 credits

Courses that fulfill Foundations requirements may not be used to fulfill other General Education requirements.

- a. Written Communication (FW): 3 credits
(Eng 100) Placement into Eng 100 is determined by scores on the COMPASS placement test. Please contact the Student Services Office for details on how to take this test.
- b. Symbolic Reasoning (FS): 3 credits
(Math 103) Placement into Math 103 is determined by scores on the COMPASS placement test. Please contact the Student Services Office for details on how to take this test.
- c. Global and Multicultural Perspectives (FG): 6 credits, from two different groups.
 1. Group A: Primarily before 1500 CE
 2. Group B: Primarily after 1500 CE
 3. Group C: Pre-history to present

2. Diversification Requirements: 19 credits

- a. Arts, Humanities and Literature (DA, DH, DL): 6 credits from two different areas.
- b. Social Sciences (DS): 6 credits from two different areas.
- c. Natural Sciences (DB, DP, DY): 7 credits with 3 credits from the biological sciences (DB), 3 credits from the physical sciences (DP) and 1 credit of laboratory (DY).

B. Focus Requirements:

1. Hawaiian, Asian, and Pacific Issues (HAP): 1 course
2. Oral Communication (OC): 1 course
3. Contemporary Ethical Issues (ETH): 1 course
4. Writing-Intensive (WI): 3 courses at the upper division level. A minimum of two courses must come from course work outside of the capstone course.

C. General Education and Focus Requirements for Transfer Students:

A student who has earned an Associate in Arts (AA) degree at one of the University of Hawai'i's community colleges or at a regionally accredited institution shall be accepted as having fulfilled the General Education Core (Foundations and Diversification) requirements. Focus requirements are university/graduation requirements required of all students. See previous section for a description of General Education and Focus requirements. Certification of course work completed to meet requirements will be made by the Student Services Office. Questions on the applicability of course work should be directed to Student Services. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 32)

A transfer student admitted to UH West O'ahu without an AA degree, who has earned credits within the University of Hawai'i system prior to Fall 2007, will be evaluated for completion of General Education and Focus requirements on a course-by-course basis. Certification of course work completed to meet General Education requirements will be made by the Student Services Office. Questions on the applicability of course work should be directed to the Student Services Office.

II. Major and Concentration Requirements:

Students seeking a degree must complete a minimum number of upper-division credits in one major as follows:

A. Business Administration

1. Thirty credits in Business core courses, including capstone course (Senior Project or Administrative Practicum);
2. Twelve credits in a concentration: Accounting or General Business Administration;
3. ENG 200 Composition II; and
4. Electives (as required to meet the minimum 120 credits, which includes a minimum of 45 upper-division credits for graduation).

B. Humanities

1. Six credits in Humanities Basic courses;
2. Twenty-four credits in a concentration (Hawaiian Pacific Studies, History, English, or Philosophy,) including the capstone course (Senior Project or Humanities Practicum);
3. Six credits in one additional Humanities field (Complementary area);
4. ENG 200 Composition II; and
5. Electives (as required to meet the minimum 120 credits, which includes a minimum of 45 upper-division credits for graduation).

C. Public Administration

1. Twenty-seven credits in Public Administration core courses, including the capstone course (Senior Project or Administrative Practicum);
2. Twelve credits in a concentration: General Public Administration or Justice Administration;
3. ENG 200 Composition II; and
4. Three upper-division credits from an approved list of social sciences electives; and
5. Electives (as required to meet the minimum 120 credits, which includes a minimum of 45 upper-division credits for graduation).

D. Social Sciences

1. Nine credits in Social Sciences Basic and Skills courses;
2. Twenty-one credits in one Social Science concentration, including the capstone course (Senior Project or Social Sciences Practicum) as applicable to the concentration;
3. Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration (complementary area);
4. ENG 200 Composition II; and
5. Electives (as required to meet the minimum 120 credits, which includes a minimum of 45 upper-division credits for graduation). Early Childhood Education students must take Social Science electives from areas outside of Early Childhood Education course work and the area chosen for the Complementary area.

E. Bachelor of Education: Elementary Education

1. Twenty-one credits in the Pre-professional Teacher Education program;
2. ENG 200 Composition II;
3. Fifteen credits in a Restricted Elective field; and
4. Forty-four credits in the 400-level series for the Professional Teacher Education, including the capstone course (Professional Student Teaching Semester and Seminar).

F. Bachelor of Applied Science

1. Eighteen credits in the applied science core including the capstone course (APSC Senior Project or Practicum)
2. ENG 200 Composition II;
3. Electives (as required to meet the minimum 120 credits, which includes a minimum of 45 upper division credits for graduation).

III. Credit Requirements:

The minimum requirement for a Bachelor's degree is 120-125 credits of applicable college-level work, depending on the degree.

- A. Of these 120-125 credits, a minimum of 45 must be earned in upper-division courses, or courses at the 300 and 400 level.
- B. Residency requirement: A minimum of 30 credits must be earned "in residence" through courses taken at the University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu. Credits earned through "credit by examination" or other equivalency may not be used to fulfill the residency requirement.
- C. The maximum number of credits from lower-division courses, and credit/no credit courses applicable to this requirement are as follows:
 1. From a community college, or other lower-division program, 75 transferable college-level credits; and
 2. From credit/no credit courses, 24 transferable college-level credit

IV. Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirements:

Three grade point averages (GPA), each 2.0 or higher, are required for graduation:

A. Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Applied Science:

1. An average GPA of 2.0 or higher based on all courses completed in the area of concentration (concentration GPA).
2. An average GPA of 2.0 or higher based on all courses completed at the University of Hawai'i– West O'ahu (cumulative GPA);
3. An average GPA of 2.0 or higher based on all courses completed at the University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu and all other colleges/ universities (overall GPA).

B. Bachelor of Education: B.Ed. GPA requirements are based on licensure requirements.

1. A minimum 2.5 cumulative/overall GPA is required for entry into the 400-level Professional Teacher Education coursework.
2. A minimum GPA of 2.75 cumulative based on completed EDEE courses at the University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu is required for admission to the Professional Student Teaching semester.

6. The Bachelor of Applied Science is designed to meet the academic and professional needs of students who have earned two-year technical or professional degrees (i.e., Associate in Science) from one of the University of Hawai'i Community Colleges. Currently, there are three concentration areas: Computing, Electronics, and Networking Technology, Culinary Management, and Respiratory Management; other concentration areas are currently being developed in partnership with UH West O'ahu and the University of Hawai'i Community Colleges. This degree will provide an interdisciplinary core knowledge base that will serve as a shared foundation for a variety of AS programs. The objectives for the Bachelor of Applied Science degree are to prepare students to meet the changing standards in various skilled occupations and to address state workforce needs. The degree has been designed to be sufficiently flexible to allow for some variance in the degree requirements and the number of credits required for each concentration. This ensures that students in markedly different fields obtain sufficient grounding in the core applied science coursework, the necessary theoretical and specialized knowledge in their concentration area, and in general education core and focus requirements. All concentrations within this degree will culminate in a capstone course (i.e., Senior Project or Practicum) which reflects their area of interest.

DEGREE ALTERNATIVES

It is possible for students entering the UH West O'ahu with a Bachelor's degree from another college or university to earn a second Bachelor's degree in a different academic field. It is also possible for students working toward their first Bachelor's degree at the UH O'ahu to declare two majors for dual Bachelor's degrees. In some cases, a student may select more than one concentration under the same major; only one degree will be awarded (e.g. a major in Social Sciences with a concentration in Psychology and Sociology). Students interested in these options must consult with a Student Services advisor.

COMMENCEMENT

Students who are nearing completion of their academic program must submit an application for graduation at the beginning of their final semester to receive their degrees. Deadline dates for graduation applications are printed in the Registration Bulletin, sent via the email newsletter The West Press Express, and in the Academic Calendar of this catalog. Degrees are formally conferred at a commencement ceremony conducted at the end of the fall and spring semesters. Participants are required to wear caps and gowns, which may be purchased for a nominal fee.

Division of Education

The Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) in Elementary Education (K-6) is housed within the Division of Education. The program of study includes four categories of coursework: General Education core (includes Foundations and Diversification) and focus requirement, Pre-professional Education, and Professional Teacher Education (EDEE 400-level) requirements. Additionally, teacher candidates gain depth of content knowledge in a 15-credit hour block of Restricted Electives comprised of coursework in a single or a multi-disciplinary field of study. Elementary Education (EDEE) coursework across the curriculum is field-based. Teacher candidates engage in first-hand experiences working in elementary classrooms at one of UH West O'ahu's partner Professional Development Schools. The program culminates in a 16 week Student Teaching semester that encompasses a Contemporary Ethical Issues (ETH Focus) seminar.

DIVISIONAL LEARNING OUTCOMES

UH West O'ahu seeks to assure educational quality and curricular coherence by describing institutional learning outcomes for all students. Student learning outcomes for Education majors are fully aligned with the standards of the teaching profession, as required by the Hawai'i Teacher Standards Board (HTSB) and the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Graduates of the Bachelor of Education degree in Elementary Education will be able to:

- Focus on learners to promote student success.
- Create and maintain a safe and positive learning environment.
- Adapt to learner diversity.
- Foster effective communication in the learning environment.
- Demonstrate knowledge of content.
- Design and provide meaningful learning experiences.
- Use active learning strategies.
- Use assessment strategies and analyze results to inform practice.

- Demonstrate professionalism.
- Foster parent and school community relationships.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Bachelor of Education in Elementary Education (K-6) prepares highly qualified teachers with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions that support standards-based education, student-centered teaching and learning, and an orientation to social justice. The program of study encompasses an innovative, field-based teacher preparation program, as well as public service activities, in support of the continuing development of West O'ahu communities. Graduates are eligible for teaching licensure by the State of Hawai'i in Elementary Education (K-6)

REQUIREMENTS FOR TEACHER EDUCATION:

General Education Core and Focus Requirements: Bachelor of Education teacher candidates fulfill the UH West O'ahu General Education core (foundations and diversification) and focus (graduation) requirements. The Elementary Education concentration specifies certain categories of courses that will fulfill General Education requirements and meet accreditation standards for teacher licensing in the State of Hawai'i. Please consult with a Student Services advisor, or your faculty advisor for a list of recommended courses. Course work includes but is not limited to:

I. Foundations Requirements

Written Communication (FW)

- ENG 100 Composition I

Global and Multicultural Perspectives (FG)

- History (other than Asian/Pacific)
- Geography (world regional)

Symbolic Reasoning (FS)

- MATH 112 Math for Elementary School Teachers II

II. Diversification

Art, Humanities or Literature

- Art or Music appreciation
- Children’s Literature

Social Sciences

- PSY 100 Survey of Psychology
- a restricted elective in the Social Sciences

Natural Sciences

- any courses that meet the biological and physical science designation and a lab

III. Focus Requirements

- Oral Communication (OC Focus)
- Hawaiian, Asian or Pacific (HAP Focus)
- Professional Semester Seminar (ETH Focus embedded within the coursework)
- Writing-Intensive (WI Focus) coursework: 3 courses at the upper division level; the Student Teaching capstone counts as one course.

Pre-professional Teacher Education:

Students interested in becoming elementary education teachers may declare Elementary Education as their major upon admission to the UH West O’ahu. An official declaration of a major in education is required for registration in 200- and 300-level EDEE courses. The 39-credit Pre-professional curriculum is as follows:

Educational Foundations (12)

- MATH 111 Math for Elem. School Teachers I (3)
- ENG 383 Children’s Literature (Counts as general education requirement: Diversification Literature)

- PSY 340 Childhood & Adolescence (3)
- PSY 342 Educational Psychology (3)
- EDEE 297 Educational Media & Technology (3)

Pre-professional Teacher Education (12)

- Co-Rec
- EDEE 201 Intro. to Teaching as a Career (2)
- EDEE 200 Early Field Experience (1)
- EDEE 310 Education in a Global Society (3)
- EDEE 325 Creative & Performing Arts (3)
- EDEE 324 Health, PE, & Movement (3)

Restricted Electives (15)

Fifteen credits of restricted electives are also required and may be completed at any time during the student’s program of study. Restricted electives are a block of coursework from a single discipline (e.g., English, mathematics, science, or social studies) or an approved set of interdisciplinary courses. Please consult your Student Services advisor, or your faculty advisor for appropriate coursework in this category.

Criminal History Check

Prior to an elementary school placement in the pre-professional early field experience (EDEE 200), teacher candidates must undergo fingerprinting and security clearance, arranged through the State of Hawai’i Department of Education. Under Hawai’i Revised Statutes, the Department of Education (DOE) has authorization to perform criminal history checks on teacher candidates who come in close proximity to public school students. This criminal history check ensures that teacher candidates in public schools do not pose a risk to the health, safety and well-being of students. Once teacher candidates received clearance from the DOE, they may participate in all field-based coursework. Procedures for fingerprinting are as follows:

- Students are required to bring their Social Security Card and a valid picture ID (e.g. driver’s license, student ID, state ID, etc.) at the time of fingerprinting.
- Students are required to complete Employment Suitability Check for

The Professional Semester

- EDEE 490 Student Teaching (10) [Writing Intensive]
- EDEE 490S Student Teaching Seminar (2) [ETH Focus]

The Professional Student Teaching Semester:

An Application for Student Teaching must be filed with the Student Services Office by the first day of the semester preceding enrollment in student teaching. The following requirements must be met prior to enrollment.

- Completion of all EDEE foundations, methods, and field experience courses;
- 2.75 overall or higher GPA for the Methods Block courses (400-level series); and
- 2.5 overall or higher GPA, with no grade lower than a “C” for all EDEE courses.

The Professional Semester

- EDEE 490 Student Teaching (10) [Writing Intensive]
- EDEE 490S Student Teaching Seminar (2) [ETH Focus]

The 16-week Student Teaching semester includes 10 credits of student teaching and a two-credit seminar that focuses on the ethics of the teaching profession (E-Focus). Praxis II exam preparation is also addressed during the seminar. Teacher candidates are required to complete a Praxis exam preparation module and are strongly encouraged to take their required licensure exams prior to graduation. Student teaching must be completed in the State of Hawai’i, at a designated Professional Development School that is in partnership with UH West O’ahu. Pre-service teacher candidates are advised that the full-time nature of the student teaching semester precludes being able to work full- or part-time at another job outside of education. Full-time Department of Education (DOE) teachers and teacher aids will be able to complete their student teaching in the school where they are employed.

Licensure:

Earning the Bachelor of Education (B.Ed) degree does not guarantee an elementary school K-6 teaching license. The State of Hawai’i teacher licensure process requires a second Praxis Exam: Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT, K-6: Passing Score: 163). Teacher candidates are advised to prepare for and take the exam during the Professional Student Teaching semester or the semester in which they will graduate. The UH West O’ahu Division of Education is committed to helping students successfully pass all Praxis exams required for teacher licensure by the Hawai’i Teachers Standards Board (HTSB). Students are encouraged to contact the Student Services Office for more information regarding Praxis exam preparation, testing dates, and sites.

Division of Humanities

LEARNING OUTCOMES

To assure educational quality and curricular coherence, UH West O'ahu has identified standards appropriate for Humanities students. Students at UH West O'ahu are expected to apply certain educational skills towards mastering material in an academic major and concentration. HUMANITIES MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Students majoring in the Humanities should complete 36 credits as follows:

1. Six credits in Humanities basic courses;
2. Twenty-four credits in either Hawaiian-Pacific Studies, History, English, or Philosophy, including HUM 486 Senior Project or HUM 490 Humanities Practicum; and
3. Six credits in one additional Humanities concentration.

Humanities Basic Course Requirements

Two of the major emphases of Humanities are multi-cultural perspectives (gaining knowledge about other cultures and being able to critically analyze and compare this information) and multi-disciplinary perspectives. Four Humanities basic courses are offered to introduce the student to multi-cultural concepts and ideas in Western, Eastern, or Hawaiian-Pacific cultural traditions. These courses also provide the student with knowledge on the approaches of different Humanities disciplines in studying these traditions.

Students majoring in Humanities must take a minimum of two of these Humanities basic courses (six credits). HUM 304 Hawaiian-Pacific Traditions is required for students concentrating in Hawaiian-Pacific Studies.

Humanities Basic Courses

- HUM 301 Studies in the Western Tradition
- HUM 302 Studies in the Eastern Tradition
- HUM 303 Comparative Traditions: Eastern and Western
- HUM 304 Hawaiian-Pacific Traditions

Humanities Skills Courses – Electives

Students may elect to take Humanities skills courses. These are not required courses, rather they are electives. These are focused on specific writing skills that may be relevant to a student's concentration and career choices.

- HUM 311 Creative Writing
- HUM 390 Teaching Writing

Humanities Practicum or Senior Project Courses

In their final year, Humanities students take either the Humanities Practicum (HUM 490) or Senior Project (HUM 486). This counts as the third upper division writing intensive course. These are independent studies courses in Humanities, taken under a specific advisor in their concentration. The Senior Project is typically a research paper done on a topic of interest to the student. Alternatively, it may be a creative writing project, or it could be a curriculum prepared for a school course. It can also be in alternative formats, such as video or combined media. These details are worked out with the student's senior project advisor. The Practicum is an experiential learning project, working with a professional(s) in an area of interest to the student. The practicum is typically done off-campus. The student has a practicum site supervisor, in addition to the specific advisor in their concentration.

Humanities Concentrations

Hawaiian-Pacific Studies (HPST)

Hawaiian-Pacific Studies is the study of the Hawaiian people and their culture, and of other Pacific Islanders and their cultures. There is a large number of Pacific Island societies scattered across the vast Pacific Ocean. Regions of the Pacific include Australia, Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia - with Hawai'i being part of Polynesia. The societies of the Pacific have their own unique histories, languages, cultures, literature, arts, social structure, architecture, and contemporary issues. This program offers a wide array of courses on Hawai'i and the Pacific Islands, enabling the student to gain an overview of the Pacific peoples and an in-depth knowledge of specific aspects of the cultures of Hawai'i and the Pacific. These courses come from a variety of disciplines. Students in this concentration have used their degree in careers in various K-12 education and counseling fields. The concentration is also a stepping-stone to graduate school programs in a variety of disciplines such as history, folklore, art history, anthropology, education, Hawaiian Studies and Pacific Island Studies. For students with a concentration in Hawaiian-Pacific Studies, 36 credits are required including:

1. Six credits in Humanities basic courses:

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Division of Professional Studies provides students with the option of earning a bachelor degree in Business Administration (BABA) or Public Administration (BAPA). Students pursuing a program in Business Administration may concentrate in Accounting or in General Business Administration. Students pursuing a program in Public Administration may concentrate in Health Care Administration, Justice Administration or in General Public Administration. A certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management and a certificate in Health Care Administration are also available.

Students pursuing either the BABA or BAPA must take core courses in their area of study, including a capstone course and courses in their respective areas of concentration.

ENG 200 (Composition II) is required of all students earning the BAPA and BABA degrees. Students must complete a minimum of three courses of upper division, Writing-Intensive (WI) course work, including the Senior Project or Administrative Practicum. It is highly recommended that students consult with a faculty advisor before beginning course work.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration (BABA) prepares students for management roles in business. Students receive a solid foundation in business objectives and processes. All BABA students are provided with an understanding of the perspectives that form the context of business, including ethical and global issues; the influence of political, social, legal, regulatory, environmental, and technological issues; and the impact of demographic diversity on organizations.

Students who choose to study general business will receive a broad educational experience that will be relevant to many functional areas in the private or public sector, or self-employment or entrepreneurship. Those who choose the accounting concentration will receive the educational foundation for entry to a wide range of accounting and business careers, including a path to public accounting as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration must complete the following:

1. Twenty-one credits of core course work is required:
 - BUSA 300 Principles of Marketing
 - BUSA 312 Intermediate Financial Accounting I
 - BUSA 320 Statistics for Decision-Making
 - BUSA 321 Business Finance
 - BUSA 345 Management Information Systems
 - BUSA 386 Global Management and Organizational Behavior
 - BUSA 435 Strategic Planning
2. Capstone requirement: Three credits from one of the following, to be taken in the senior year:
 - BUSA 486 Senior Project, or
 - BUSA 490 Administrative Practicum, or
 - BUSA 494 Small Business Institute Supervised Field Study
3. Twelve credits in the area of Concentration (either General Business Administration or Accounting).
4. Six credits of Economics at the lower division level:
 - ECON 130 Introduction to Microeconomics
 - ECON 131 Introduction to Macroeconomics
5. ENG 200 Composition II

Students in the Neighbor Island distance learning program for General Business Administration or Accounting should review the program requirements listed in the Distance Learning and Other Programs chapter.

NOTE: It is strongly recommended that students take a course in business law for both General Business Administration and Accounting. Business law is also a topic on the Certified Public Accountant exam.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION CONCENTRATIONS

Accounting (ACC)

Students with a concentration in Accounting will complete twelve credits, chosen from the following:

- BUSA 313 Intermediate Financial Accounting II
- BUSA 318 Intermediate Managerial Accounting
- BUSA 319 Tax Concepts
- BUSA 414 Governmental Accounting

- BUSA 415 Auditing
- BUSA 416 Accounting Information Systems
- BUSA 418 Advanced Accounting
- BUSA 419 Corporate and Partnership Tax
- BUSA 496 Selected Topics in Business Administration (Accounting Topics) (v)
- BUSA 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)

NOTE: It is recommended that students in Accounting may take additional Accounting coursework as electives, to meet the requirements to take the Certified Public Accountant Examination.

General Business Administration (BUSA)

Students with a concentration in General Business Administration will complete twelve credits with a minimum of three credits from the Accounting, Economics and Marketing clusters. The last three credits may come from any BUSA designated class (course work not used for core, capstone or cluster requirements):

Accounting Cluster

- BUSA 313 Intermediate Financial Accounting II
- BUSA 318 Intermediate Managerial Accounting
- BUSA 319 Tax Concepts
- BUSA 414 Governmental Accounting
- BUSA 415 Auditing
- BUSA 416 Accounting Information Systems

- BUSA 305 Advertising and Promotion Management
- BUSA 364 Retailing Management
- BUSA 408 International Marketing

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

The Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration (BAPA) prepares students for supervisory and management roles in the public sector. Students will receive a solid foundation in public sector practices and processes complemented by course work in the social sciences. All BAPA students will receive a fundamental understanding of, and appreciation for, public sector management practices and administrative procedures. With the BAPA, students will have the preparation to pursue graduate degrees in varied programs, such as Public Administration, Criminal Justice, Health Care Administration, Urban and Regional Planning, Management Science, and others.

The Health Care Administration concentration prepares students for supervisory, management, and leadership roles in the dynamic and growing health care field.

Students who choose to study General Public Administration will be prepared for government service at the local, state, and national levels. For those already working in the field, this program will provide the opportunity to more fully develop management, legal, and behavioral skills for more effective job performance and greater career mobility.

Those who choose to pursue the Justice Administration concentration will have the educational foundation to pursue career paths in justice-related fields. Those already employed in the field may upgrade their knowledge and professional skills.

With the BABA, students will be well prepared to pursue advanced degrees such as the Master of Business Administration or Accountancy at graduate schools.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

3. Twelve credits in the area of concentration
4. ENG 200 Composition II
5. Three credits from the following approved list of social science electives: (courses may be used only once to fulfill concentration or elective requirements towards graduation)
 - ANTH 459 Forensic Investigations
 - ANTH 460 Advanced Techniques in Forensic Anthropology
 - ECON (any course at the upper-division level)
 - POLS 316 Constitutional Law
 - POLS 330 American Politics
 - PSY 353 Conflict Resolution
 - PSY 371 Abnormal Psychology
 - PSY 373 Counseling Skills
 - PSY 474 Culture and Mental Illness
 - PSY 475 Psychology of Healing
 - PSY 480 Organizational Behavior
 - SOC 329 Organizations, Individuals, and Society
 - SOC 334 Deviant Behavior
 - SOC 411 Aging in Mass Society
 - SOC 431 Juvenile Delinquency
 - SOC 434 Criminology

Public Administration Academic Concentrations

Health Care Administration (HCAD)

Students with a concentration in Health Care Administration must take the following nine credits:

- PUBA 301 Health Care Administration
- PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics and Law
- PUBA 303 Financial Concepts in Health Care Management

In addition, students choose one elective from the following:

- PUBA 307 Community Health Analysis
- PUBA 318 Managed Care
- PUBA 319 Long Term Care
- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 446 Contemporary Issues in Health Care
- PUBA 470 Program Planning and Evaluation
- PUBA 480 Organizational Behavior
- PUBA 481 Ethics and Administration
- PUBA 496 Selected Topics in Health Care Administration

NOTE: Students are strongly recommended to take PUBA 307, PUBA 318, PUBA 319 or PUBA 446.

Justice Administration (JAD)

Students with a concentration in Justice Administration must complete PUBA 409 Legal Foundations of Justice Administration, and nine credits chosen from the following:

- PUBA 305 Managing Criminal Justice Agencies
- PUBA 309 Criminal Law and Procedures
- PUBA 315 Survey Techniques for Administrators
- PUBA 316 Constitutional Law
- PUBA 320 Correctional Administration

- PUBA 406 Contemporary Problems of Justice Administration in America
- PUBA 410 Issues in Criminal Investigation
- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 431 Juvenile Delinquency
- PUBA 434 Criminology
- PUBA 435 Domestic Violence

- PUBA 461 Social Dimensions of Disaster Response
- PUBA 496 Selected Topics in Public Administration (Justice Administration Topics)
- PUBA 499 Directed Reading and Research

NOTE: Students from Honolulu Community College who transfer to UH West O’ahu after completing the Associate of Applied Science degree in Administration of Justice under the terms of the UH West O’ahu and Honolulu Community College Articulation Agreement will be waived from certain requirements for the BAPA with a concentration in Justice Administration. Students who fall under this agreement should consult a Faculty Advisor or a Student Services Advisor prior to beginning their program.

General Public Administration (PUBG)

Students with a concentration in General Public Administration must complete twelve credits, chosen from the following courses:

- PUBA 301 Health Care Administration
- PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics, and Law
- PUBA 303 Financial Concepts in Health Management
- PUBA 307 Community Health Analysis
- PUBA 312 Bureaucratic Politics
- PUBA 315 Survey Techniques for Administrators
- PUBA 318 Managed Care
- PUBA 319 Long Term Care
- PUBA 330 Computer Skills for Administrators
- PUBA 352 Comparative Public Administration
- PUBA 355 Labor-Management Relations
- PUBA 367 Labor-Management Relations in the Public Service
- PUBA 406 Contemporary Problems of Justice Administration in America
- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 446 Contemporary Issues in Health Care
- PUBA 460 Environmental Policy Planning and Administration
- PUBA 461 Social Dimensions of Disaster Response
- PUBA 462 Disaster Recovery and Business Continuation
- PUBA 463 Disaster Recovery and Hazard Mitigation
- PUBA 464 Terrorism and Emergency Management
- PUBA 470 Program Planning and Evaluation
- PUBA 480 Organizational Behavior
- PUBA 481 Ethics and Administration
- PUBA 496 Selected Topics in Public Administration
- PUBA 499 Directed Reading and Research

Certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management (DPEM)

Completion of the 18-credit cluster of courses below will lead to a certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management (DPEM). This certificate is approved by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA); the courses for the certificate meet the national standards established by the DHS and FEMA higher education project. The goal is to provide DPEM practitioners with a broad range of administrative skills and knowledge that are ideally suited to meet the critical needs of DPEM administrators. This certificate can be earned as a self-standing credential and may also be used as part of the Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Administration (BAPA) for those who choose a concentration in General Public Administration.

Students with a concentration in Justice Administration may use only PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness and PUBA 461 Social Dimensions of Disaster Response towards their concentration requirements. The additional 12 credits for the certificate may be used as electives.

Courses required for the certificate are:

- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 460 Environmental Policy Planning and Administration
- PUBA 461 Social Dimensions of Disaster Response
- PUBA 462 Disaster Recovery and Business Continuation
- PUBA 463 Disaster Recovery and Hazard Mitigation
- PUBA 464 Terrorism and Emergency Management

Dr. Ross Prizzia and Dr. Gary Helfand are the faculty contacts for this certificate. Dr. Prizzia may be contacted at rprizzia@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4712 and Dr. Helfand may be contacted at helfand@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4710.

Certificate in Health Care Administration (HCAD)

The certificate program in Health Care Administration provides students and health care practitioners with a broad range of administrative skills and knowledge needed in the dynamic and growing health care field. Ongoing changes in the system have resulted in an array of opportunities for health care administrators to make significant contributions to improving health care for all. The certificate can be earned as a self-standing credential and may also be used as part of a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Administration (BAPA) for those concentrating in General Public Administration. Specifically, courses in this certificate can be used to fulfill concentration and upper-division elective requirements in the BAPA.

Completion of the 18-credit cluster of courses listed below will lead to the certificate in Health Care Administration. These courses have been selected because they are ideally suited to meet the critical needs of health care administrators.

Courses required for the certificate are:

- PUBA 301 Health Care Administration
- PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics, and Law
- PUBA 303 Financial Concepts in Health Care Management

In addition, students must choose 3 electives (9 credits) from the following:

- PUBA 307 Community Health Analysis
- PUBA 318 Managed Care
- PUBA 319 Long Term Care
- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 446 Contemporary Issues in Health Care
- PUBA 480 Organizational Behavior
- PUBA 490B Administrative Practicum

Dr. Kristina Guo is the faculty contact for this certificate. Dr. Guo can be contacted at kguo@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4732. NOTE: Students from Honolulu Community College who transfer to UH West O’ahu with the Associate in Science degree in Occupational and Environmental Safety Management (OESM) under the terms of the UH West O’ahu and Honolulu Community College Articulation Agreement will be waived from PUBA 446 Contemporary Issues in Health Care should the student choose to earn the Certificate in Health Care Administration. Students who fall under this agreement should consult a Faculty Advisor or a Student Services Advisor prior to beginning their program.

Division of Social Sciences

LEARNING OUTCOMES

To assure educational quality and curricular coherence, the UH West O'ahu has identified learning outcomes appropriate for Social Sciences students. Students at UH West O'ahu are expected to apply certain knowledge and skills towards mastering material in an academic major and concentration. These skills are listed in a set of Divisional and Concentration Learning Outcomes.

DIVISIONAL LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduates with a major in Social Sciences from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Demonstrate clear and effective writing about a specified social science concentration of study.
- Demonstrate clear and effective oral communication about a specified social science concentration of study.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the data and analytical procedures associated with a specified social science concentration of study.
- Relate knowledge associated with a specified social science concentration of study to global and indigenous perspectives.
- Demonstrate critical thinking about the methods, knowledge and theories associated with a specified social science concentration of study.

CONCENTRATION LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduates with a concentration in Anthropology from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Write clearly and effectively to apply basic anthropological principles or theories to the study of human beings in local and/or global perspective.

- Write clearly and effectively to apply anthropological methods and critical thinking in the study of human beings in local and/or global perspective.
- Speak clearly and effectively to apply anthropological principles or theories to the study of human beings in local and/or global perspective.
- Speak clearly and effectively to apply anthropological methods and critical thinking in the study of human beings in local and/or global perspective.

Graduates with a concentration in the Applied Track distance learning program from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Analyze humankind on an individual, social, cultural and global level.
- Apply social science theories and methods in the following areas - human development, health and healing; culture and environment; and the economy and society.

Graduates with a concentration in Early Childhood Education from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Plan, implement and evaluate early childhood curriculum and identify the theories and program models that inform curricular choices.
- Apply formal and informal observation methods to diverse groups and individual children and communicate effectively with families and other professionals about student progress.
- Demonstrate respectful and reciprocal relationships with families, appropriate communication and guidance practices with young children, and positive parent-school relations.

- Demonstrate knowledge of fiscal, educational, physical, and human resources for effective early childhood program development.
- Advocate for children and families based upon knowledge of ethical and professional standards, critical thinking, socio-political analysis of programs, self-reflection, and commitment to social justice.

Graduates with a concentration in Economics from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Use marginal analysis (including supply and demand) to explain regulated and unregulated markets.
- Use models of market structures to analyze perfect competition and monopoly.
- Use theory to explain how trade enhances growth.
- Use aggregate demand and supply analysis to explain inflation, unemployment and growth.
- Develops quantitative skills for models and real world issues.

Graduates with a concentration in Political Science from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Demonstrate ability to integrate personal experiences with an understanding of the varieties of contemporary politics.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the role of the individual from local, state, and national, to global contexts.
- Demonstrate ability to use the Socratic Method to integrate a variety of positions in Political Science.

- Demonstrate knowledge of how participation in political processes effects change.
- Demonstrate critical thinking, research, writing and oral communication skills are they relate to the role of the individual from local, state, and national, to global contexts.

Graduates with a concentration in Psychology from UH West O'ahu will be able to:

- Demonstrate clear and effective writing in APA style.
- Demonstrate clear and effective speaking skills about psychological topics.
- Demonstrate knowledge of empirical research design and statistical analysis.
- Relate Psychological knowledge to cultural or global perspectives.
- Demonstrate critical thinking about how biology, learning and culture influence psychological phenomena.

Graduates with a concentration in Sociology from UH West O'ahu will be able to

- Write clearly and effectively in ASA style to demonstrate critical thinking in the application of basic sociological principles to local and/or global social issues.
- Write clearly and effectively in ASA style to demonstrate critical thinking in the application of sociological theories and methodologies to local and/or global social issues.
- Speak clearly and effectively to demonstrate critical thinking in the application of basic sociological principles to local and/or global social issues.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Social Sciences tend to focus on the systematic and objective study of human behavior in social situations (Sociology); in individuals (Psychology); in the development of children and early learning (Early Childhood Education); in the political setting (Political Science); in resource allocation decision-making (Economics); and in the context of physical, social, and cultural development (Anthropology). Each field has important contributions to make in seeking solutions to complex social problems. Social Sciences students may concentrate in Anthropology, Early Childhood Education, Economics, Political Science, Psychology, or Sociology.

SOCIAL SCIENCES BASIC AND SKILLS REQUIREMENTS

Students majoring in the Social Sciences must take a minimum of nine credits in Basic and Skills courses. Basic courses are designed to introduce the student to the concepts guiding the evolution of the Social Sciences and recent developments which are likely to determine future directions. Students are encouraged to develop competence in the areas of research and methods analysis, statistics and report writing. Courses which emphasize the skills associated with the Social Sciences offer the student the opportunity to improve skills in areas such as communications, statistical analysis, utilizing the computer effectively, and critical thinking.

Students are required to complete ENG 200 Composition II with a minimum grade of C-. Students must complete a minimum of three courses of upper division Writing-Intensive (WI) courses, including SSCI 486 Senior Project or SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum. A minimum of two upper division courses must come from course work other than SSCI 486 or 490.

Social Sciences Basic Courses

- PSY 212 Research Methods in Psychology
- SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
- SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
- SSCI 317 Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods

SSCI 326 Hawaiian and Pacific Environments

Social Sciences Skills Courses

- SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
- SSCI 311 Critical Thinking and Problem Solving
- SSCI 340 Computer Applications
- SSCI 410 Statistical Analysis II

Social Sciences Capstone Courses

Social Sciences students should complete SSCI 486 Senior Project or SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum as required by their specific concentration. The nature of the Senior Project or Practicum to be undertaken should be described in detail in the student's educational plan. Students with a concentration in Anthropology, Economics or Political Science may elect to complete SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum in place of a Senior Project to fulfill their requirements. Early Childhood Education students must take SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum to complete their requirements.

Social Sciences students are encouraged to select electives from the Humanities and Professional Studies Divisions.

SOCIAL SCIENCES MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Students majoring in the Social Sciences must complete the following:

1. Nine credits in Social Sciences Basic and Skills courses:
 - a. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
 - b. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
 - c. A research methods class as specified by the concentration:
 1. Anthropology and Political Science students must take SSCI 317 Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods.
 2. Economics students must take SSCI 410 Statistical Analysis II.
 3. Psychology students must take PSY 212 Research Methods in Psychology
 4. Early Childhood Educations, Sociology and Applied Track students must take SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research.
2. A total of 30-33 credits distributed as follows: 21-24 credits in one Social Science concentration (Anthropology, Early Childhood Education, Economics, Political Science, Psychology, or Sociology), including SSCI 486 Senior Project, or if applicable, SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum, and nine credits in a second Social Sciences Concentration (Complementary area).
Students in the Applied Track distance learning program (BA in Social Sciences or BASS) must complete 27 credits within the three Study Theme areas (see degree description on page 54-55), as well as SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum in lieu of SSCI 486 Senior Project.
3. ENG 200 Composition II with a grade of C- or better.

Anthropology (ANTH)

Anthropology is the study of people – from ancient to modern times and around the world. The exploration of what it means to be a human being ranges from the study of culture and social relations, to human biology and evolution, to languages, and to vestiges of human habitation. Students at UH West O’ahu are able to sample the breadth of the discipline and also gain in-depth understanding of a variety of lifestyles in a cross-cultural, comparative perspective. Special emphasis is given to cultures of the Pacific Islands, including Hawai’i. Firsthand experiences investigating cultural diversity are strongly encouraged.

Anthropology provides global information and holistic thinking skills critical to success in the 21st century. The discipline also embraces peoples and ideas of all kinds. It prepares students for graduate education in Anthropology and a wide variety of other related fields. It also offers an excellent educational background for careers in contract archaeology, forensics, museum curation, social work, cross-cultural counseling, corporate analysis, government and global analysis, Social Studies and English as a Second Language teaching, translation, and law.

For a concentration in Anthropology, 42 credits are required, including the following courses:

1. SSCI 486 Senior Project or SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum
2. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
3. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
4. SSCI 317 Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods
5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. ANTH 405 History and Theory of Anthropology
7. Two courses from each of the following clusters (a maximum of one lower division course may be counted toward each cluster):
 - a. Cultural Anthropology Cluster:
 - ANTH 152 Culture and Humanity
 - ANTH 235 Pacific Islands Cultures
 - ANTH 313 Culture through Film
 - ANTH 351 Culture, Thought, and Behavior
 - ANTH 358 Myth, Symbol, and Ritual
 - ANTH 383 Museum Studies
 - ANTH 423 Social and Cultural Change
 - ANTH 447 Polynesian Cultures
 - ANTH 487 Philippine Culture
 - b. Archaeology Cluster:
 - ANTH 151 Humankind Emerging
 - ANTH 210 Archaeology
 - ANTH 321 World Archaeology
 - ANTH 380 Field Archaeology
 - ANTH 437 Pacific Archaeology
 - ANTH 483 Archaeology of Hawai’i
 - c. Physical Anthropology Cluster:
 - ANTH 215/L Introduction to Physical Anthropology and Lab
 - ANTH 310 Human Origins
 - ANTH 415 Human Ecological Adaptation
 - ANTH 459 Forensic Investigations
 - ANTH 460 Advanced Techniques in Applied Forensic Anthropology

Students planning to go on to graduate studies or a career in Anthropology should take additional courses from the above clusters. Courses selected should reflect the student’s future educational and/or career goals. In addition, ANTH 356 Culture and Communication is often required for admission to graduate school in Anthropology and is highly recommended. 8. Additional courses in the discipline will be recommended for inclusion in the student’s educational plan based on specific competency goals established by the student. Course work may be used only once to fulfill cluster, concentration and elective requirements.

- ANTH 151 Humankind Emerging
- ANTH 152 Culture and Humanity
- ANTH 210 Archaeology
- ANTH 215/L Introduction to Physical Anthropology and Lab
- ANTH 235 Pacific Islands Cultures
- ANTH 296 Selected Topics (v1-6)
- ANTH 310 Human Origins
- ANTH 313 Culture through Film
- ANTH 321 World Archaeology
- ANTH 342 Indigenous Peoples and Modernity
- ANTH 351 Culture, Thought, and Behavior
- ANTH 356 Culture and Communication
- ANTH 358 Myth, Symbol, and Ritual
- ANTH 359 Okinawans Locally & Globally
- ANTH 362 Gender, Culture, and Society
- ANTH 380 Field Archaeology (v)
- ANTH 383 Museum Studies
- ANTH 415 Human Ecological Adaptation
- ANTH 422 Magic, Witchcraft, and the Supernatural
- ANTH 423 Social and Cultural Change
- ANTH 437 Pacific Archaeology
- ANTH 447 Polynesian Cultures
- ANTH 448 Micronesian Cultures
- ANTH 459 Forensic Investigations
- ANTH 460 Advanced Techniques in Forensic Anthropology
- ANTH 474 Culture and Mental Illness
- ANTH 483 Archaeology of Hawai’i
- ANTH 487 Philippine Culture
- ANTH 495 Research Seminar
- ANTH 496 Selected Topics in Anthropology (v)
- ANTH 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)

9. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.

Early Childhood Education (ECED)

The field of Early Childhood Education is concerned with the growth and development of children from birth through age eight. This program focuses on the preschool years (ages 3-5) from a theoretical orientation which places early childhood education within broader social, historical, political, and cultural contexts. Course work in other areas of the social sciences provides a context for students to critically examine early education and child care.

Current research on brain development, political emphasis on “No Child Left Behind”, and longitudinal studies on Head Start indicate a strong relationship between early learning and school success. This can be achieved by developmentally appropriate and culturally sensitive curricula and a positive working relationship between schools and their families and communities. Students in this program will examine how parents and other family members work collaboratively with teachers to build a learning and home environment that stimulates curiosity through informal educational opportunities. Themes of quality education, multiculturalism, critical thinking, and reflective teaching will be infused throughout the Early Childhood coursework. Early Childhood Education is an exciting and dynamic field in which standards for teachers are being raised and career opportunities are constantly developing.

NOTE: The Early Childhood Education concentration has been developed in partnership with the Associate in Science degree programs in Early Childhood Education from Hawai'i Community College, Honolulu Community College, Kaua'i Community College, and Maui Community College. An articulation agreement has been developed to facilitate the transfer of students from the community colleges to UH West O'ahu. Students who transfer to UH West O'ahu under the terms of the articulation agreement(s) should consult a Faculty Advisor or a Student Services Advisor prior to beginning their program.

Core Course Work: The following set of core Early Childhood Education course work or equivalents, are required as program prerequisites prior to taking any 300- or 400-level ECED coursework:

- ED 105 Introduction to Early Childhood Education
- ED 110 Developmentally Appropriate Practice
- ED 131 Early Childhood Development: Theory into Practice
- ED 140 Guiding Young Children in Group Settings
- ED 151 and 191v/190 Practicum in Early Childhood Education
- ED 115 or ED 215 Health, Safety, & Nutrition for the Young Child (Healthy Young Children)
- ED 245/FAMR 235 Child, Family and Community
- ED 263 Language & Creative Expression Curriculum
- ED 264 Inquiry and Physical Curriculum
- ED 296C/P & 291v Field Experience in Early Childhood Education

NOTE: Some ECED courses may require only certain program prerequisites be completed. Please consult with the ECED faculty (Dr. Susan Matoba Adler, email: alders@hawaii.edu; or Dr. Jeanne Iorio, email: iorio@hawaii.edu) for specific prerequisites for each course

For students with a concentration in Early Childhood Education, 57 credits are required including the following courses:

1. SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum (6)
2. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
3. SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
4. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. Concentration course work (18 credits):
 - ECED 320 Issues, Trends and Leadership in Early Childhood Education

- ECED 340 Communication and Relationships in Early Childhood Education
- ECED 401 Curricular Models in Early Childhood Education
- ECED 402 Emergent Literacy in the Home, School and Community
- ECED 420 Administration and Supervision of Early Childhood Programs
- ECED 440 Instruction and Assessment in Early Childhood Education
- 7. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.
- 8. Social Science Restricted Electives: 12 credits from four different Social Science areas (other than ECED and course work used for the Complementary Area).

Economics (ECON)

Economics is concerned with choice. Whether it's a business interested in how much to produce or a student determining how much time should be spent studying for an exam, they both involve a choice – and economics can help make that decision. The method involves analyzing the benefits and costs of alternatives, and then selecting the best – a fundamentally simple and widely applicable approach. UH West O'ahu offers the basic theoretical courses of microeconomics and macroeconomics and a variety of interesting electives ranging from a survey of Hawaii's economy, to a course in money and banking, to one on environmental issues. The student graduating with a concentration in Economics will have a good knowledge of economic theory, a good sampling of the economic issues in the world, and the critical thinking skills to deal with those issues.

For students with a concentration in Economics, 42 credits are required including the following courses:

1. SSCI 486 Senior Project or SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum
2. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
3. SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research or SSCI 410 Statistical Analysis II (SSCI 410 Statistical Analysis II is highly recommended for students concentrating in Economics.)
4. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. ECON 300 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory
7. ECON 301 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory
8. Additional courses in the discipline will be recommended for inclusion in the student's educational plan based on specific competency goals established by the student.
 - ECON 310 Concepts in Economic Theory
 - ECON 311 Hawai'i's Economy
 - ECON 321 Business Finance
 - ECON 323 Economic and Financial Environment of Global Business
 - ECON 325 Philosophy of Economics
 - ECON 340 Money and Banking
 - ECON 358 Environmental Economics
 - ECON 396 Contemporary Economic Issues
 - ECON 410 Economic Development
 - ECON 432 Forecasting and Risk Management
 - ECON 460 International Trade
 - ECON 461 International Finance
 - ECON 474 Economies of the Pacific Basin

- ECON 495 Urban Economics
 ECON 496 Selected Topics in Economics (v)
 ECON 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)
 9. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.

Political Science (POLS)

Political Science at UH West O’ahu puts government and policy analysis in the larger context of the search for the best way of life possible – the “Good Life”. Political studies involve understanding a way of life in its totality: what it is, what it was, and what it could and should be. This generally begins with an awareness of the most pressing problems of the age and how they impact the quality of life of the individual. The search for improvement then draws from a multi-civilizational, cross-cultural, comparative history of the human condition. This ranges from the baseline of the nine-tenths of human existence we spent as hunter-gatherers, to the various models of the industrial nation state and the emerging global electronic community.

The method of political science is distinctive in its emphasis on synthesis – making connections. Particular attention is paid to making the connection between the bigger picture of political reality and the life-experience of the student. The goal is to help students formulate their own vision of where society should be going, and then to motivate and equip them for responsible participation in public life. Teaching strategies emphasize active, democratic and multi-cultural modes of learning. Political science thus offers an excellent general education, relevant to careers in local and national government, international agencies, print and television journalism, law, public administration, social work, business, and teaching.

For students with a concentration in Political Science, 42 credits are required, including the following courses:

1. SSCI 486 Senior Project or SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum
2. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
3. SSCI 317 Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods
4. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. POLS 330 American Politics (or equivalent lower division course)
7. POLS 302 Political Philosophy
8. Additional courses in the discipline will be recommended for inclusion in the student’s educational plan based on specific competency goals established by the student.
 - POLS 110 Introduction to Political Science
 - POLS 130 Introduction to American Politics
 - POLS 235 Politics of Food
 - POLS 308 Science and the Modern Prospect
 - POLS 316 Constitutional Law
 - POLS 320 Global Issues
 - POLS 326 Environmental Politics
 - POLS 342 Indigenous Peoples and Modernity
 - POLS 370 Politics and Public Policy
 - POLS 371 Global Futures
 - POLS 378 Meaning of Mass Media

- POLS 381 Hawai’i Politics
 - POLS 384 Women and Politics
 - POLS 430 Politics and Film
 - POLS 450 Pacific Asian Politics
 - POLS 496 Selected Topics in Political Science (v)
 - POLS 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)
- NOTE: Students are strongly recommended to take POLS 110, POLS 130, POLS 320, POLS 326, POLS 381.

9. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.

Psychology (PSY)

Psychology is the study of mind and behavior. The psychology concentration at UH West O’ahu is designed to provide a well rounded baccalaureate level education in psychology and exposure to a second social science discipline. Students in the psychology concentration will be exposed to course offerings in psychology sub-disciplines that include developmental psychology, social psychology, experimental psychology, and clinical and applied psychology. Course offerings stress the development of critical thinking, written and oral communication skills. Students are prepared for graduate study, or pursuing relevant careers upon graduation.

Course work may be used only once to fulfill lower division, cluster, concentration and elective requirements. Students with a concentration in Psychology are required to take 48 credits, including:

1. PSY 100 Survey of Psychology
2. PSY 212 Research Methods in Psychology
3. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
4. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. PSY 402 History and Systems of Psychology
7. SSCI 486P Senior Project
8. Students with a concentration in Psychology are required to take 18 additional psychology credits, including 6 credits from the following list of lower division content courses:
 - a) PSY 231 Physiological Psychology
 - b) PSY 240 Human Lifespan Development
 - c) PSY 250 Social Psychology
 - d) PSY 260 Personality Theory
9. In addition to the lower division content course requirement (see item 8) students must take 3 credits from each of the following four course clusters (12 credits total):
 - a. Human Development
 - PSY 340 Childhood and Adolescence
 - PSY 342 Educational Psychology
 - PSY 442 Child Psychopathology
 - b. Social Psychology
 - PSY 351 Culture, Thought and Behavior
 - PSY 351 Varieties of Sexual Expression
 - PSY 404 Social Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use
 - PSY 450 Small Groups
 - c. Experimental Psychology

- PSY 322 Learning, Motivation, and Behavior Modification
- PSY 323 Comparative Animal Psychology
- PSY 324 Psychology of Emotion
- PSY 325 Cognitive Psychology
- PSY 405 Biological Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use
- PSY 429 Seminar in Experimental Psychology

d. Clinical and Applied Psychology

- PSY 371 Abnormal Psychology
- PSY 372 Systems of Psychotherapy
- PSY 373 Counseling Skills
- PSY 406 Assessment and Treatment of Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 408 Group Interventions in Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 412 Psychological Testing
- PSY 474 Culture and Mental Illness
- PSY 475 Psychology of Healing

10. Additional courses in the discipline will be recommended for inclusion in the student's educational plan based on specific competency goals established by the student.

11. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.

Sociology (SOC)

Sociology is the systematic study of social life. Sociologists study social processes in human societies including interactions, institutions, and change. Courses are provided in three broad areas of substantive study: social psychology, organizations, and stratification. At UH West O'ahu, the concentration in sociology provides students with a general background in these substantive areas, empirical research skills (both quantitative and qualitative), and opportunities to engage in original research. The program also encourages and supports interdisciplinary work, partnering with other social science concentrations, the humanities and professional studies. Graduates of the program are prepared to enter graduate school in the social sciences and other related fields (e.g., social work, teaching), or choose from many possible careers.

For students with a concentration in Sociology, 42 credits are required, including:

1. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
2. SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
3. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I
4. ENG 200 Composition II
5. SSCI 486S Senior Project
6. SOC 470 Sociological Theory
7. Additional courses in the discipline will be recommended for inclusion in the student's educational plan based on specific competency goals established by the student.
 - SOC 100 Survey of General Sociology
 - SOC 311 Social Stratification
 - SOC 313 Sociology of Work
 - SOC 324 Race and Ethnic Relations
 - SOC 329 Organizations, Individuals and Society
 - SOC 334 Deviant Behavior
 - SOC 341 Social Behavior
 - SOC 352 Sociology of Education
 - SOC 359 Okinawans Locally & Globally
 - SOC 362 Gender, Culture, and Society
 - SOC 401 Urban Sociology
 - SOC 411 Aging in Mass Society
 - SOC 412 Death, Dying, and Bereavement
 - SOC 418 Women and Work
 - SOC 423 Social and Cultural Change
 - SOC 431 Juvenile Delinquency
 - SOC 434 Criminology
 - SOC 450 Small Groups
 - SOC 451 Analysis of Marriage and the Family
 - SOC 456 Peoples of Hawai'i
 - SOC 496 Selected Topics in Sociology (v)
 - SOC 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)
8. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Sciences concentration area.

Certificate In Applied Forensic Anthropology (AFAN)

Forensic anthropologists work primarily as "bone detectives"—applying standard scientific techniques developed in physical anthropology to identify human remains and to assist in the detection of crime. They often work with other forensic scientists and homicide investigators to identify a decedent, discover evidence of foul play, and/or the time of death. They determine the age, sex, ancestry, stature, and unique features of a decedent from skeletal, badly decomposed, or otherwise unidentifiable human remains. Forensic anthropologists are often in charge of the recovery of human remains, responsible for the site recording (photography, mapmaking, etc.), and serve as expert court witnesses. This work is important for both legal and humanitarian reasons.

The certificate in Applied Forensic Anthropology (AFAN) will give students a solid foundation in forensic anthropology and a good introduction to the wider field of forensic science. This certificate may be earned alone or in conjunction with a Bachelor's degree. Degrees that are especially relevant are a Bachelor of Arts in the Social Sciences with a concentration in Anthropology or a Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration with a concentration in Justice Administration. When combined with relevant degrees, the certificate in AFAN will make students more competitive for a variety of job opportunities and advanced education in forensic anthropology, the wider field of forensic science, and other related fields.

This program is a collaboration between Leeward Community College and the UH West O'ahu. A total of 29-30 credits are required. Students are welcomed and encouraged to enroll concurrently in classes at both campuses. For information on admission, please contact the Admissions Office at 454-4700.

Dr. Suzanne Falgout, Professor of Anthropology, is the faculty contact for this program and can be contacted at falgout@hawaii.edu or (808) 454-4716 for information and advising.

UH West O'ahu course work - 18 upper division credits from UH West O'ahu are required, including a practicum at a relevant agency:

- ANTH 380 Field Archaeology
- ANTH 415 Human Ecological Adaptation
- ANTH 459 Forensic Investigations
- ANTH 460 Advanced Techniques in Forensic Anthropology
- PUBA 309 Criminal Law and Procedures
- SSCI 490 Practicum or PUBA 490 Practicum

Leeward Community College course work - 11-12 lower-division credits are required:

- ANTH 215/L Physical Anthropology + Lab
- ANTH 297/L Human Skeletal Biology + Lab
- BIOL 100 Human Biology OR
- BIOL 101 Biology for Non-Majors OR
- BIOL 171/ L Introduction to Biology + Lab (BIOL 171 + L strongly preferred)

Other courses are recommended: ZOO 240 and 241 Human Anatomy and Physiology, ANTH 383 Museum Studies, SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I, SSCI 317 Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods, PUBA 410 Issues in Criminal Investigation.

Certificate In Substance Abuse And Addictions Studies (SAAS)

The Certificate in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies (SAAS) is primarily an online, internet-based program designed to help students meet the State education requirements for certification as substance abuse counselors and to provide continuing education opportunities for professionals in the addictions field. All courses except for PSY 373 Counseling Skills are offered as internet courses. PSY 373 is an in-person class, offered at the Pearl City campus and through the University Centers at Kaua'i, Maui, and West Hawai'i (Kealahou) on the island of Hawai'i. Although not required for certification, students are strongly encouraged to concurrently complete the Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Sciences with a concentration in Psychology.

Students will receive a strong theoretical foundation in substance use disorders and exposure to the knowledge, skills, and attitudes identified by the federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) as the basis for effective treatment of substance-related problems. Completion of the certificate satisfies current state education requirements for substance abuse counselors (note: the State education requirements may also be satisfied with other social science coursework). State certification further requires fieldwork hours and a written and oral examination. For more information on the State certification call (808) 692-7518 or visit their website at: www.hawaii.gov/health/permits/trades/trades/adcert.html.

Students who apply to the SAAS program must meet the same admission requirements established for classified students (see Academic Regulations). Those planning to complete the certificate should have taken an expository writing course, and an introductory Psychology course. In addition, a course in Abnormal Psychology should be completed within the last five years with a grade of "C" or better. This requirement may be satisfied by taking either PSY 371 Abnormal Psychology or PSY 474 Culture and Mental Illness at UH West O'ahu.

For students completing the certificate in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies, 19 credits are required, including:

- PSY 373 Counseling Skills
- PSY 374 Ethics in Counseling and Psychotherapy (1)
- PSY 403 Causation and Prevention of Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 404 Social Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use or PSY 408 Group Interventions in Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 405 Biological Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use
- PSY 406 Assessment and Treatment of Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 407B Psychology Practicum: Interventions Related to Substance Use

Up to two required courses may be waived if appropriate lower division courses (e.g., HSERV courses taken at Leeward Community College) were completed. Other upper division courses recommended by the student's advisor must be taken to fulfill the total of 19 credits required for the certificate. A minimum of 12 credits must be completed with UH West O'ahu.

Mr. Kanoa Meriwether is the faculty contact for this program. For more information, Mr. Meriwether may be contacted at (808) 454-4792 or kanoa@hawaii.edu.

C.L.E.A.R

The Center for Labor Education and Research (CLEAR) is an endowed, outreach program established in 1976 by State Law, HRS §304A-1601 (Act 202). Part of the UH West O'ahu, CLEAR is designed to provide labor education, research and labor-related programs to workers, their organizations, university students, and the general public through a variety of methods including classroom instruction, seminars, workshops, publications and the use of the public media.

Located at the end of the Leeward Community College/UH West O'ahu campus, CLEAR maintains a research collection and archive of labor history and law, a labor research web site with an online newsletter, and publishes a variety of books and handbooks, including a guide to Hawai'i Labor History, and produces the televised documentaries in its Rice & Roses series.

The Center's non-credit programs feature classes on Labor History, Workers' Compensation, Grievance Handling, Labor Law, Collective Bargaining, Preventing Employment Discrimination, Conflict Resolution, Parliamentary Procedure, and Leadership Skills.

Like its research projects, the Center's seminars and educational programs are all designed to be of practical application to workers, their organizations and policy-makers.

The labor history archive contains a clipping file on local unions in Hawai'i, as well as an ever-growing collection of contracts, union newsletters, books and pamphlets focusing on Hawai'i's rich labor history.

Among the most highly prized components of this special collection are: the old "day-books" of the Hawai'i Carpenters' Union, Professor Emeritus Ed. Beechert's Hawai'i sugar plantation files, The Honolulu Record, videotapes and transcripts of interviews, documents and photographs of over 90 informants involved in the Great Hawai'i Sugar Strike of 1946; the correspondence file of the Hawai'i office of the AFL-CIO from 1940 to 1982; the files of the Honolulu Central Labor Council; production files and interview tapes from its many Rice & Roses research projects; and authors' notes and research files for CLEAR's labor history publications.

Access to the Center's video library and special collections is by appointment only and must be arranged in advance. The research library contains the basic BNA loose-leaf services as well as many supplemental materials.

CLEAR LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The Labor Studies faculty at the Center for Labor Education and Research assist UH West O'ahu students to:

- Understand and appreciate the role of Labor in society.
- Engage in critical thinking, reflection, and constructive action on the importance of social, political, and economic issues as they relate to the workplace.

- Develop the ability to use insights drawn from literature, history, and philosophy in order to reflect critically on issues of work and society.
- Acquire and develop knowledge of various aspects of labor law, including collective bargaining, worker, and individual rights.
- Understand labor and workplace issues in a global context.
- Demonstrate the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and ethics necessary for the responsible leadership of labor organizations.
- Acquire and develop communication skills necessary to intervene wisely in shaping their environment on the job, in their unions, and in the community.

Other Programs

BACHELOR OF APPLIED SCIENCE

The Bachelor of Applied Science provides an academic pathway for students in selected Associate of Science programs at the community colleges. The BAS requirements (1) assure advanced skills in critical thinking, problem solving, and research, (2) assure proficiency in communication and professionalism, and (3) support the institutional learning outcomes. Within each concentration under the BAS degree, courses are selected to assure students have the knowledge and analytical skills necessary for advancement within the specific field, and to assure students have flexibility in choosing future career paths.

Students should see a Student Services advisor as soon as possible in their college careers, for options on appropriate and transferable lower division credits.

Bachelor of Applied Science Student Learning Outcomes (SLO's):

1. Write clearly and effectively using generally accepted scientific style, such as for research papers and lab reports.
2. Report orally on scientific subjects, using clear and objective style and well-reasoned sequences of information.
3. Analyze scientific results, using quantitative and qualitative techniques
4. Demonstrate understanding of the ethical issues relevant to managers and practitioners in applied sciences and administrative fields.

Bachelor of Applied Science Core (18 credits)

- 3 ENG 200 Composition II
- 3 BUSA/PUBA 330 Computer Skills for Administrators
- 3 SSCI 210, BUSA 320, or PUBA 341 Statistics*
- 3 SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
- 3 BUSA 481 Ethics and Administration
- 3 APSC 490 Senior Practicum

* Students should select the statistics course that best fits their career plans.

CONCENTRATION IN RESPIRATORY CARE (RESP) :

The concentration in respiratory care offers working professionals who have earned the Associate in Science degree in respiratory care at Kapi'olani Community College (KCC) the opportunity to earn a baccalaureate degree and to continue for advanced education in respiratory care. The additional requirements in the liberal arts and sciences will contribute to increasing academic skills development, advancing knowledge, attaining career goals, and meeting the needs of the health care community in the areas of leadership, clinical practice, research and education.

Upon successful completion of the BAS in Respiratory Care the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate clinical ability using respiratory therapy "best practices".
2. Articulate the fundamentals of health care administration and policy in the rapidly changing medical system of the US.

3. Explore the linkages between health care policy, case management processes, and the practice of respiratory therapy, and examine relevant case management models.
4. Understand how research findings are analyzed and used to inform best-practice models in patient management, including protocols related to particular conditions.

Concentration Requirements and Electives in Respiratory Care (34 credits):

- 300-level courses from KCC in Respiratory Care 22
- PUBA 301 Health Care Administration 3
- PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics and the Law 3
- RESP 401 Case Management in Cardiopulmonary Care 3
- RESP 402 Current Concepts in Cardiopulmonary Care 3

CONCENTRATION IN COMPUTING, ELECTRONICS, AND NETWORKING TECHNOLOGY (CENT)

The concentration in Computing, Electronics, and Networking Technology (CENT) offers a transfer pathway for students in the Associate in Science in CENT Program or the Advanced Professional Certificate in CENT at Honolulu Community College or similar programs elsewhere. The BAS-CENT offers the opportunity to earn a baccalaureate degree and to continue for advanced education in CENT.

Upon successful completion of the BAS in Computing, Electronics, and Networking Technology program, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate basic skills in Information Technology
2. Demonstrate advanced skills within at least one of the following: Information Networking, System Administration, Database and Web Development.
3. Explore the linkages between modern organizational behaviors or issues and the IT environment
4. Integrate IT professional skills into IT-specific problem solving and communication

Concentration Requirements and Electives in CENT (35 - 36 credits):

- CENT 305 Information Systems Security (4)
- CENT 310 Network Security (4)
- CENT 315 Network Administration (4)
- CENT 410 Project Management (4)

7-8 credits of CENT electives from the following lists

Information Networking: CENT 231 Data Communications; CENT 235 IP Communications; CENT 240 Computer Networking II; CENT 340 Advanced Routing; CENT 345 Multilayer Switching; CENT 360 Network Security II

System Administration: CENT 232 PC Desktop and Printer Support; CENT 300 Systems Analysis & Design; CENT 352 UNIX System Administration II; CENT 370 Integrated Network Applications; CENT 372 Network Operating Systems II; CENT 390 Special Topics in CENT; ICS 211 Computer Science II

Upper division restricted electives 12 credits from among the following lists (at least one from each category):

Management Information Systems: BUSA 332 Contemporary Business Issues; BUSA 345 Management Information Systems

Business: BUSA 310 Concepts in Accounting; BUSA 321

Business Finance; BUSA 324 Business Law

Management/Administration: BUSA 435 Strategic Planning; BUSA 462 Disaster Recovery & Business Continuity; PUBA 301 Health Care Administration; PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics and Law; PUBA 306 Principles of Public Administration; PUBA 310 Research Methods in the Public Sector; PUBA 313 Communication Skills for Administrators; BUSA/PUBA 480 Organizational Behavior

CONCENTRATION IN CULINARY MANAGEMENT (CULM)

The concentration in Culinary Management offers working professionals who have earned the Associate in Science degree in Food Service with specialization in Culinary Arts at Kapi'olani Community College (KCC), or equivalent programs elsewhere, the opportunity to earn a baccalaureate degree and to continue for advanced education in culinary management.

Upon successful completion of BAS in Culinary Management, students will be able to:

1. Evaluate current relevant issues in the food-service industry of Hawai'i that may include sustainability, environmental, political, and/or cultural topics.
2. Apply a critical thinking process of identifying, analyzing and developing solutions as they apply to financial and fiscal accountability in the foodservice industry.
3. Evaluate organizational development, human resources, laws and legal codes that have been established within the local, state and federal government with specific application to food and beverage industry.
4. Explain the process of determining customer needs in marketing to a global market, from concept and product development, pricing strategies, advertising and promotion, and methods of distribution of foodservice goods and services.
5. Design and prepare recipes for a menu while balancing nutrition, the use of fresh products, and the final product's texture, color, and flavor.
6. Value the impact and challenges of managing alcoholic beverage sales and service in food service operations.

- 3 CULN 380 Nutritional Cuisines

DISTANCE LEARNING (DISTANCE EDUCATION)

To meet the educational needs of students who reside at a distance from the island of O'ahu, or who have difficulty attending the campus in-person, UH West O'ahu offers a Distance Learning Program that consists of online courses, classes delivered through the Interactive Television System (ITV), and classes delivered at a few off-campus sites. To accommodate the schedules of working adults, most ITV and off-campus courses are taught in the evenings or on weekends.

Six academic programs are available through Distance Learning: a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration with concentrations in Accounting and General Business Administration; a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Administration with concentration in Health Care Administration; a Bachelor of Arts degree in the Social Sciences with concentrations in Early Childhood Education, Political Science, and Applied Track; a Certificate in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies; a Certificate in Health Care Administration; and a Certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management. The baccalaureate programs delivered through Distance Learning have been established as transfer programs for students who have received the first two years of course work (freshman and sophomore) from a neighbor island community college in the UH system. Admission and graduation requirements for students engaged in Distance Learning programs are the same as those established for UH West O'ahu students at the main campus on O'ahu.

Academic advising is provided by faculty and Student Services advisors in-person, by phone, or through email. Registration is completed online through the MyUH Portal at: <http://myuhportal.hawaii.edu>.

Students may contact faculty and staff at UH West O'ahu during normal business hours by calling the toll free number at (866) 299-8656. Online academic support is available to students through the UH West O'ahu library website at: <http://socrates.uhwo.hawaii.edu/library/explore.html>, and through the UH West O'ahu Writing and Learning Center website at: www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/writingcenter.

Applications and further information about the UH West O'ahu Distance Learning programs,

 - PUBA 481 Ethics and Administration (3 cr)
 - PUBA 496 Selected Topics in Health Care Administration (3 cr)

NOTE: Students are strongly recommended to take PUBA 307, PUBA 318, PUBA 319 or PUBA446.

- Three credits from the following approved list of social science electives:

ECON	(any course at the upper-division level)
PSY 353	Conflict Resolution
PSY 371	Abnormal Psychology
PSY 373	Counseling Skills
PSY 474	Culture and Mental Illness
PSY 475	Psychology of Healing
SOC 329	Organizations, Individuals, and Society
SOC 334	Deviant Behavior

SOC 411 Aging in Mass Society
6. Three classes of upper-division, writing-intensive course work, which includes PUBA 486 Senior Project or PUBA 490 Administrative Practicum. Two classes of upper-division WI coursework must come from classes other than PUBA 486 or 490.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES

Applied Track (BASS)

The Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences - Applied Track (BASS) degree is a distance learning degree currently offered to students on the islands of Kaua'i, Lana'i, Maui, Moloka'i, and Hawai'i. This degree is primarily online (internet-based), and is a part-time, three-year degree program which maintains UH West O'ahu's commitment to an interdisciplinary program of study. It is comprised of courses from across the various social sciences disciplines that will train students to understand social phenomena by integrating information at the individual, social, cultural, and global levels of analyses. It also requires students to complete courses in writing, statistics and research methodology that will provide them with the necessary technical skills to evaluate and conduct social sciences work.

To further emphasize the applied nature of this program, the required senior capstone experience will be a practicum, which is a supervised internship within a local institution. The chosen practicum site will be consistent with the emphasis of the study themes chosen by the student.

This program also interfaces with the Business Administration (General Business Administration and Accounting) and the certificate in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies (SAAS) distance degrees. Enrollment priority into BASS courses will be given to BASS students on the islands of Kaua'i, Lana'i, Maui, Moloka'i, and Hawai'i. Second priority will be given to students in the distance education Business Administration program.

Program Requirements

Students pursuing the BASS degree must complete all University, general education, focus and writing competency requirements.

1. ENG 200 Composition II
2. Nine credits of core coursework:
 - a. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
 - b. SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
 - c. SSCI 210 Applied Statistics I

3. SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum
4. Completion of 27 semester credits in courses organized around three study themes. Students will select nine credits in each of the three study themes.
5. Three classes of upper-division writing-intensive (WI) course work, including SSCI 490 Social Science Practicum. Two classes of upper-division WI course work must come from classes other than SSCI 490.

Human Development, Health and Healing: Students are exposed to diverse social sciences offerings that facilitate understanding of the biological, psychological, social and cultural factors that shape individuals across the life-span. This interdisciplinary approach is also used to explore different ideas about wellness, distress, and the causation, prevention and treatment of disease.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (ECED)

The Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences with a concentration in Early Childhood Education is a distance learning program offered to students on the islands of O'ahu, Kaua'i, Maui and Hawai'i.

The field of Early Childhood Education is concerned with the growth and development of children from birth through age eight. This program focuses on the preschool years (ages 3-5) from a theoretical orientation which places early childhood education within broader social, historical, political, and cultural contexts. Coursework in other areas of the social sciences provides a context for students to critically examine early education and child care.

Current research on brain development, political emphasis on "No Child Left Behind", and longitudinal studies on Head Start indicate a strong relationship between early learning and school success. This can be achieved by developmentally appropriate and culturally sensitive curricula and a positive working relationship between schools and their families and communities. Students in this program will examine how parents and other family members work collaboratively with teachers to build a learning and home environment that stimulates curiosity through informal educational opportunities. Themes of quality education, multiculturalism, critical thinking, and reflective teaching will be infused throughout the Early Childhood coursework. Early Childhood

Education is an exciting and dynamic field in which standards for teachers are being raised and career opportunities are constantly developing.

NOTE: The Early Childhood Education concentration has been developed in partnership with the Associate in Science degree programs in Early Childhood Education from Hawai'i Community College, Honolulu Community College, Kauai Community College, and Maui Community College. An Articulation Agreement has been developed to facilitate the transfer of students from the community colleges to UH West O'ahu. Students who transfer to UH West O'ahu under the terms of the articulation agreement(s) should consult a faculty advisor or a Student Services Specialist prior to beginning their program.

Program Requirements

Core Course work: The following set of core Early Childhood Education coursework or equivalents are required as program prerequisites prior to taking any 300- or 400-level ECED course work:

- ED 105 Introduction to Early Childhood Education
- ED 110 Developmentally Appropriate Practice
- ED 131 Early Childhood Development: Theory into Practice
- ED 140 Guiding Young Children in Group Settings
- ED 151 and 191v/190 Practicum in Early Childhood Education
- ED 115 or ED 215 Health, Safety, & Nutrition for the Young Child (Healthy Young Children)
- ED 245/FAMR 235 Child, Family and Community
- ED 263 Language & Creative Expression Curriculum
- ED 264 Inquiry and Physical Curriculum
- ED 296C/P & 291v Field Experience in Early Childhood Education

Some courses may require only certain program prerequisites be completed. Please consult with the ECE faculty (Dr. Susan Matoba Adler, email: adlers@hawaii.edu; or Dr. Jeanne Iorio, email: iorio@hawaii.edu) for specific prerequisites for each course.

For students with a concentration in Early Childhood Education, 57 credits are required including the following courses:

1. SSCI 490 Social Sciences Practicum (6)
2. SSCI 300 Philosophy of the Social Sciences
3. SSCI 301 Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research
4. SSCI 210 Statistical Analysis I

5. ENG 200 Composition II
6. Concentration course work:
 - ECED 320 Issues and Trends in Early Childhood Education
 - ECED 340 Communication and Relationships in Early Childhood Education
 - ECED 401 Curricular Models in Early Childhood Education
 - ECED 403 Emergent Literacy in the Home, School and Community
 - ECED 420 Administration and Supervision of Early Childhood Programs
 - ECED 440 Instruction and Assessment in Early Childhood Education
7. Complementary Area: Nine credits in one additional Social Science concentration area.
8. Social Science Restricted Electives: 12 credits from four different Social Science areas (other than ECED and course work used for the Complementary Area).

POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences with a Concentration in Political Science is offered in both distance and in-person modalities. Please see page 49 for requirements.

CERTIFICATE IN SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND ADDICTIONS STUDIES (SAAS)

In addition to the Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences, a certificate program in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies (SAAS) is offered. This certificate program is designed to help students meet the State education requirements for certification as substance abuse counselors and to provide continuing education opportunities for professionals in the addictions field. Although not required for certification, students are strongly encouraged to concurrently complete the Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Sciences – Applied Track (BASS).

Students will receive a strong theoretical foundation in substance use disorders and exposure to the knowledge, skills, and attitudes identified by the federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) as the basis for effective treatment of substance-related problems. Completion of the Certificate satisfies current state education requirements for substance abuse counselors (note: the state education requirements may also be satisfied with other social science coursework). State certification further requires fieldwork hours and a written and oral examination. For more information on the State certification call (808) 692-7518 or visit their website at: www.hawaii.gov/health/permits/trades/trades/adcert.html.

Students who apply to the SAAS program must meet the same admissions requirements established by UH West O'ahu. Those planning to complete the certificate should have taken an expository writing course (e.g., ENG 100) and an introductory Psychology course (e.g., PSY 100). In addition, a course in Abnormal Psychology should have been completed within the last five years with a grade of "C" or better. This requirement may be satisfied by taking either PSY 371 Abnormal Psychology or PSY 474 Culture and Mental Illness at UH West O'ahu.

For students completing the certificate in Substance Abuse and Addictions Studies, 19 credits are required, including:

- PSY 373 Counseling Skills
- PSY 374 Ethics in Counseling and Psychotherapy
- PSY 403 Causation and Prevention of Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 404 Social Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use or
- PSY 408 Group Interventions in Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 405 Biological Correlates of Psychoactive Drug Use
- PSY 406 Assessment and Treatment of Substance Abuse and Addiction
- PSY 407B Psychology Practicum: Interventions Related to Substance Use

Up to two required courses may be waived if appropriate lower division courses (e.g., HSERV courses taken at Leeward Community College) were completed. Other upper division courses recommended by the student's advisor must be taken to fulfill the total of 19 credits required for the certificate.

Mr. Kanoa Meriwether is the faculty contact for this program. For more information, Mr. Meriwether may be contacted at (808) 454-4792 or kanoa@hawaii.edu.

CERTIFICATE IN DISASTER PREPAREDNESS AND EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT (DPEM)

Completion of the 18-credit cluster of courses below will lead to a Certificate in Disaster Preparedness and Emergency Management (DPEM). These courses meet the national standards established by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Higher Education project. The goal of this Certificate is to provide

OTHER PROGRAMS

DPEM practitioners with a broad range of administrative skills and knowledge that are ideally suited to meet the critical needs of DPEM administrators.

Courses required for the certificate are:

- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 460 Environmental Policy Planning and Administration
- PUBA 461 Social Dimensions of Disaster Response
- PUBA 462 Disaster Recovery and Business Continuation
- PUBA 463 Disaster Recovery and Hazard Mitigation
- PUBA 464 Terrorism and Emergency Management

Dr. Ross Prizzia and Dr. Gary Helfand are the faculty contacts for this certificate. Dr. Prizzia may be reached at rprizzia@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4712 and Dr. Helfand may be reached at helfand@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4710.

CERTIFICATE IN HEALTH CARE ADMINISTRATION (HCAD)

The certificate program in Health Care Administration provides students and health care practitioners with a broad range of administrative skills and knowledge needed in the dynamic and growing health care field. Ongoing changes in the system have resulted in an array of opportunities for health care administrators to make significant contributions to improving health care for all. Completion of the 18-credit cluster of courses listed below will lead to the certificate in Health Care Administration. These courses have been selected because they are ideally suited to meet the critical needs of health care administrators.

Three courses (9 credits) required for the certificate are:

- PUBA 301 Health Care Administration
- PUBA 302 Health Policy, Politics, and Law
- PUBA 303 Financial Concepts in Health Care Management

In addition, students must choose 3 electives (9 credits) from the following:

- PUBA 307 Community Health Analysis
- PUBA 318 Managed Care
- PUBA 319 Long Term Care
- PUBA 411 Emergency Management and Disaster Preparedness
- PUBA 446 Contemporary Issues in Health Care
- PUBA 480 Organizational Behavior or
- PUBA 490B Administrative Practicum

Dr. Kristina Guo is Director for this certificate. Dr. Guo can be contacted at kguo@hawaii.edu or at (808) 454-4732.

MATHEMATICS AND GENERAL SCIENCES

General Education and UH West O'ahu Institutional Learning Outcomes:

At present, the math and science sub-division is providing general education (GE) courses relevant to the GE hallmarks in symbolic reasoning (FS), biological and physical sciences (DB, DP), and laboratory (DY). These courses also contribute to fulfilling all 5 of the UHWO institutional student learning outcomes, especially #s 1 (Written Communication), 3 (Quantitative Literacy), and 5 (Critical Thinking).

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS (ROTC)

The University of Hawai'i offers instruction in Aerospace Studies and Military Science for students interested in the Reserve Officers Training Corps programs of the Air Force and Army. Graduates of these programs are awarded commissions as officers in the Air Force or Army. While UH West O'ahu does not offer either program, students may register in Aerospace Studies and Military Science courses at the UH West O'ahu and attend classes at UH Mānoa. Credits for these courses will be granted by the UH West O'ahu and may be used as electives for the baccalaureate degree. Further information regarding either program may be obtained from the UH Mānoa's Aerospace Studies department at (808) 956-7734 or the UHM Military Science department at (808) 956-7744, or at: www.goarmy.com.

- ANTHROPOLOGY
- ANTH 151
Emerging Humanity (3)
This course is an introduction to human biological evolution and the archaeology of culture in the world, prior to AD 1500. Pre: placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (FGA)
- ANTH 152
Culture and Humanity (3)
This course is an introduction to cultural anthropology. It looks at the interaction among the natural environment, human cultures, and the system of symbols through which they interpret the world. Pre: placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (FGB)
- ANTH 210
Archaeology (3)
Archaeology is the study of past cultures and societies through their material remains. This course explores different types of archaeology and examines theory, methods, and techniques for investigating, reconstructing, interpreting, preserving, and learning from the past. It will review human cultural chronology from the time of the first people, during the earliest Paleolithic ages, to the present. It will examine the artifacts and also the important economic, social, and even ideological elements of ancient cultures—such as those on the origins of food production, hierarchy, and civilization. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DS)
- ANTH 215
Physical Anthropology (3)
Physical anthropology is a biological science which focuses on adaptations, variability, and the evolution of humans and their nearest relatives, living and fossil. This course serves as an introduction to the field. The areas to be covered include the principles of evolution, biological basis of life, Mendelian and population genetics, human diversity, human (climatic) adaptability, growth and nutrition, biological classification, the biology and behavior of non-human primates (primatology), and the study of primate and human fossils (paleoanthropology). Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: ANTH 215L. (DB)
- ANTH 215L
Physical Anthropology Lab (1)
This course serves as the laboratory study of human and population genetics, human variability, primatology, human osteology, and human and primate paleontology. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: ANTH 215. (DY)
- ANTH 235
Pacific Islands Cultures (3)
Investigates the fantasy and reality of the exotic cultures of Polynesia, Micronesia, and Melanesia. Explores the original formation and peopling of the islands; the different social, political, economic, and religious systems that developed; and the history of foreign contact and culture change. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DH, HAP)
- ANTH 296
Selected Topics (v 1-6)
Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.
- ANTH 299
Directed Reading and Research (v)
To be arranged with the instructor.
- ANTH 310
Human Origins (3)
An examination of the history and principal assumptions of modern evolutionary theory as a tool to understanding human origins. It will trace continuities and changes in the anatomy and behavior of primates and humans in the fossil record. How some theories of human origins were derived and why some of these theories are no longer accepted will also be examined. (DB)
- ANTH 313
Culture Through Film (3)
From the very beginning of motion pictures, filmmakers have been involved in the recording of human cultures. This course will examine the history of ethnographic film through the work of several influential filmmakers. We will also learn how to view ethnographic films with a critical eye, and discuss ethical issues surrounding the recording, representing, and consuming of other peoples' culture through film. (DH)
- ANTH 321
World Archaeology (3)
This course examines the origins of agriculture and domestication of animals, the origins of urbanism, and the rise of civilizations throughout the world. It begins with discussions of general principles and theories in archaeology; site dating; excavation and survey; artifact analysis; faunal

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

analysis; and paleobotany. These are used to examine agriculture and animal husbandry in the Upper Paleolithic, beginning ca. 25,000 years ago, in the ancient Middle East, Asia, and North and South America. Theories about origins of urbanism and the rise of civilizations are also considered, with case studies drawn from the prime areas of Southwest Asia, East Asia, South Asia, Egypt, Mesoamerica, South America and, possibly, prehistoric North America. The course will also feature a "virtual dig" of a Paleolithic site. (DH)

Indigenous Peoples and Modernity (3)

This course offers a comparative understanding of the growing importance of nations not represented by states - the indigenous peoples of the fourth world. Case studies will draw from the experience of Native Hawaiians, Native Americans, Australian Aborigines, and South African San (among others) to clarify struggles for cultural and political sovereignty, and the growing contribution of such earth-based societies to politics and cosmology beyond modernity. The goal will be to facilitate constructive discourse between indigenous peoples and the citizens of industrial nations. (Cross-list HPST/POLS 342)

ANTH 351

Culture, Thought, and Behavior (3)

A cross-cultural investigation of concepts of self; the socialization process; personality development; interpersonal relations; world views; and the various forms of personal and cultural expressions. (Cross-list PSY 351) (DS)

ANTH 356

Culture and Communication (3)

Language is the principal means by which humans communicate. This course explores the nature of language, the unique biological characteristics of humans that make language possible, the complex elements of language, and the significance of language for human culture. Students will apply anthropological techniques developed to analyze languages around the world to the study of their own speech community.

ANTH 358

Myth, Symbol, and Ritual (3)

Myths play an important role in a people's understanding of the world and their place in it. Rituals are used to bring persons into contact with the realm of the sacred. They are performed because it is believed that they can bring about profound changes in individuals and can even transform the world. When experienced by those who believe in them, rituals can cure sickness, cause death, secure salvation and life everlasting, bring ancestors to life, and transform weak boys and lazy girls into strong and productive men and women. Myths and rituals derive their power from symbols — objects, actions, words, and relationships that convey meaning. This course looks at the power of symbols, rituals, and myths.

Okinawans Locally and Globally (3)

This seminar-format course uses sociological and anthropological concepts and theories to examine the historical conditions which sparked Okinawan immigration to Hawai'i and globally. It will survey Ryukyuan and Okinawan history and cultural elements, impact of the Pacific War and current events which have affected Okinawan communities in Hawai'i and globally. Pre: ENG 100. (Cross-list SOC 359)

ANTH 362

Gender, Culture, and Society (3)

An exploration of gender in individual, social, and cultural contexts. Examines the interrelationship of biological and environmental factors, socialization processes, institutional contexts, and prospects for change and gender equity. (Cross-list SOC 362)

ANTH 380 (Alpha)

Field Archaeology (v)

Students will learn the techniques of archaeological survey, excavation, mapping, and photography. Hands-on experience will be gained through fieldwork investigations of sites. May be repeated for credit. (Cross-list HPST 380) (DS)

ANTH 383

Museum Studies (3)

This course introduces students to an overview of the history, philosophy, and current status of museums; legal and ethical issues; and current debates and perspectives about museum practices, including the issues of collection, preservation, and interpretation. Museum professionals join the class as guest speakers and discussants for course topics. Fieldtrips to local museums are also featured. (DS)

ANTH 405

History and Theory of Anthropology (3)

An examination of the emergence of the discipline and contemporary theoretical issues and perspectives. Major theories in the study of human nature and culture will be discussed in their historical contexts. Special attention will be given to cultural ecology, structuralism, structural-functionalism, political economy, symbolic anthropology, post-structuralism, reflexive anthropology. (DS)

ANTH 415

Human Ecological Adaptation (3)

This course investigates the relationship of humans and the natural environment. Emphasis is placed on an understanding of human ecological adaptation that is evolutionary and holistic. It will investigate human variation in response to conditions of heat, cold, altitude, diet, and disease. In particular, it will focus on subsistence practices, and especially how past human societies and cultures adapted to the environment and changed over time. The complexity of how human societies both exploit and are limited by their environment will be stressed. (DS)

ANTH 422

Magic, Witchcraft, and the Supernatural (3)

A cross-cultural investigation of religious beliefs and practices. The course will cover rites of transition, death and the afterlife, gods, ritual, charismatic religious leaders, religious movements, ghosts, traditional curing, shamanism, demons, witches, and sorcerers. (Cross-list PSY 422) (DH)

ANTH 423

Social and Cultural Change (3)

An examination of the causes, processes, and effects of social change in simple and complex societies, with emphasis on the major theories of social and cultural change. (Cross-list SOC 423) (DS)

ANTH 437

Pacific Archaeology (3)

This course investigates the origins of Pacific peoples and their settlement and adaptation to the islands in Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia. Evidence will be drawn from archaeological sites, artifacts, languages, and oral traditions. (Cross-list HIST/HPST 437) (DH)

Polynesian Cultures (3)

This course focuses on contemporary Polynesian societies. Topics covered include subsistence and exchange; kinship, marriage, and family life; ritual and belief systems; rank and political leadership; and ideas about health and illness. Special attention will also be devoted to current issues affecting Polynesian peoples, such as population growth, migration, the problem of insuring economic growth in a global economy, the politics of identity, and health and environmental issues. (DS)

ANTH 448

Micronesian Cultures (3)

This course explores the dozens of distinct cultures and the important historical events and changes to the "little islands" of Micronesia. Micronesian cultures are noted for careful adaptations to their physical environments, some described as "marginal". They are renowned as navigators. They have some of the most highly developed chiefdoms and extensive empires within the Pacific. Over centuries of European and Asian presence in the region, Micronesians came into contact with whalers, traders, missionaries, colonists, and the military. Micronesia was a major arena

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

during World War II and an important site of postwar nuclear weapons testing. Today, the region has achieved a measure of political independence. But, Micronesia's strategic location continues to be of global interest. Life has changed significantly, yet tradition remains strong. (DS)

ANTH 459 Forensic Investigations (3)

This course applies concepts and methods from physical anthropology to problems in human identification. These allow the investigator to determine age, sex, ancestry, diseases, and pathologies found in human remains. The course also considers DNA testing and its role in the courts. In addition, a review of actual case studies and a special field trip to the Central Identification Laboratory are also featured. (DB)

ANTH 460 Advanced Techniques in Forensic Anthropology (3)

This course concentrates upon specific forensic anthropology skills in detail, as used by practitioners in the field. Topics include assessment of age, sex, ancestry, stature, trauma, osseous pathology, taphonomic history, methods of individualization/positive identification, and forensic entomology/time since death. The course will include lectures and also feature practical training with osteological specimens. Students will complete a research project on one of the forensic topics covered in the course. Pre: ANTH 297 and 297L, or equivalent coursework. (DB)

ANTH 474 Culture and Mental Illness (3)

A cross-cultural study of mental illness and therapeutic practices comparing Western and non-Western cultures. (Cross-list PSY 474) (DS)

ANTH 483 Archaeology of Hawai'i (3)

This course will explore Hawaiian prehistory from the time of original settlement of the Islands until the arrival of Captain James Cook. Evidence will be gained from the investigation of archaeological sites, settlements, artifacts, and other physical remains, and from recorded Hawaiian oral traditions. These data will be used to reconstruct ancient Hawaiian life, and ways to trace the development of Hawaiian society. (Cross-list HPST/HIST 483) (DH)

ANTH 487 Philippine Culture (3)

This course examines the material and non-material culture of the people in the Philippines. This course takes a glimpse of the story of (wo)man in the Philippine Islands during the prehistoric and pre-colonial period. It examines the cultural practices of various Filipino ethnolinguistic groups, giving emphasis on their social structures and dynamics, customs and traditions, value systems, and cultural symbols. The course also explores issues facing the indigenous people and other sub-groups in the Philippines. (DS)

ANTH 495 Research Seminar (3)

Seminar on recent literature in some field (mutually selected by faculty and student) and appropriate alternative research strategies and techniques. Pre: SSCI 310 or equivalent.

ANTH 496 Selected Topics in Anthropology (v 1-6)

Topics selected will vary with student interests; emphasis will be on relevancy and application of theory and analysis to problem solving. Examples: Women in Cross-Cultural Perspective, Medical Anthropology, Ethics in Anthropology. May be repeated for credit.

ANTH 499 Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

APPLIED SCIENCE

APSC 486 Senior Project (3)

With assistance from an applied sciences faculty advisor, students will complete a project based on original or library research related to a particular problem or issue in their chosen field of study. Students will share the results of this learning process with peers and will assist each other in refining communications skills, developing research and information retrieval techniques, and other research-related competencies. Pre: Completion of concentration requirements or consent of faculty.

APSC 490 Senior Practicum (3)

With assistance from an applied science faculty advisor, students will complete a practicum or internship with an appropriate community agency or institution. As an intern, the student is delegated the responsibility of developing the solution to a well-defined problem, or is asked to complete a field-relevant task. Students report on the experience using their understanding of the field in which they are working. Students will share the results of this learning process with peers and will assist each other in refining communications skills. Pre: Completion of concentration requirements or consent of faculty.

ASTRONOMY

ASTR 110 Survey of Astronomy (3)

This course introduces the astronomical universe, including: the solar system with its diverse planets, moons, etc.; more distant celestial objects; theories for the origin of the universe and the formation of our Milky Way and other galaxies, comparative cosmologies including at least western and Hawaiian; concepts of distance and deep time. Pre: placement into ENG 100, or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DP)

BIOLOGY

BIOL 100 Human Biology (3)

Designed for the non-biologist who wishes to learn more about fundamental biological concepts, with emphasis on humans and the human body. Topics covered will include the structure and function of cells, tissues, organs, and organ systems of the human body, which will be related to physical fitness, nutrition, health, disease and genetics. Evolution of humans and their role in the biosphere will also be covered. Not intended for science majors. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DB)

BIOL 101 Biology & Society (3)

This course introduces students to the characteristics of science, the historical development of biological concepts, and the interactions of society with biological science. Designed for the non-biologist who wishes to learn more about fundamental biological concepts, including evolution, biodiversity, cellular and molecular biology, physiology, genetics and ecology. Application of biological knowledge to current problems, such as biotechnology and human impacts on the biosphere, will also be covered. Not intended for science majors. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: BIOL 101L. (DB)

BIOL 101L Biology & Society Laboratory (1)

This course introduces students to the characteristics of science, using scientific inquiry and topics in the biological sciences. Topics covered will include the major concepts of biology, including evolution, biodiversity, cellular and molecular biology, physiology, genetics and ecology. Not intended for science majors. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: BIOL 101. (DY)

BIOL 123 Hawaiian Environmental Biology (3)

This course and its laboratory will describe characteristics and theories of science as they interact with and impact modern society and the Hawaiian environment. Emphasis will be on biological sciences and local Hawaiian issues. However, examples from other places and other sciences (geology, oceanography, etc.) will add depth of understanding and relate Hawai'i to its global context. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: BIOL 123L. (DB)

EDUCATION: ELEMENTARY

*Note: Approval of the Application for the Professional Teacher Education (APTE) is required for enrollment into the 400-level Elementary Education courses. Requirements include: passing scores on the Praxis I; completion of a minimum of 45 credits; and a minimum 2.5 cumulative (overall) GPA. Additionally, minimum grades of C or better in the following courses: EDEE 200, 201, 310, and ENG 200.

EDEE 200

Early Field Experience (1)

45 hours of supervised field experiences that engage the pre-service teacher candidate in a Professional Development School (PDS) teaching and learning environment. Requires weekly reflections that are grounded in critical thinking about issues in teaching and learning, along with attention to the ethical standards of the teaching profession. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: EDEE 201.

EDEE 201

Introduction to Teaching as a Career (2)

Introduces the teacher candidate to the process of becoming a highly qualified teacher in the State of Hawai'i. Topics include: an overview of the Teacher Education program, K-6; an introduction to the multiple dimensions of teaching, including the "why" of teaching (entering the profession); the "who" of teaching (students), the "what" of teaching (curriculum), and the "how" of teaching (pedagogy); an initiation into the lifelong process of reflection and growth; and initial development of the Professional Portfolio. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: EDEE 200.

EDEE 296

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

EDEE 297

Educational Media & Technology (3)

An introduction to educational media and technology theory and practice with an emphasis on meaningful integration of technology and media into a variety of face-to-face and online learning environments for diverse populations. Attention is given to practical applications and the acquisition of skills relevant to the classroom teaching and learning environment, as well as non-school settings. Pre: Completion of ICS 101 with a grade of "C" or higher or consent of instructor; placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22.

EDEE 299

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

EDEE 300

Service Learning (v 1-3)

In this field-based course, students participate in a minimum of 45 hours (per credit hour) of volunteer work, utilizing cultural and scientific community resources, which in turn provide the contexts for understanding the impact of educational initiatives in a global society. Taken concurrently with EDEE 310, students gain valuable, first-hand experience with contemporary issues in education, within the context of service to the local community. Pre: Sophomore or higher level standing; EDEE 200 and 201 (or concurrent enrollment).

Education in a Global Society (3)

This project-based course examines historical, political, philosophical, sociological, and ethical factors influencing education in today's global society. Particular emphasis is placed on contemporary problems and applications in the context of service to the local community. Requires students to engage in critical thinking, reflective decision-making, and action research. In this field-based course, students also participate in a minimum 20 hours of volunteer work, utilizing cultural and scientific community resources, which in turn provide the contexts for understanding the impact of educational initiatives in a global society. Students gain valuable, first-hand experience with contemporary issues in education, within the context of service to the local community. Pre: Sophomore or higher level standing; completion of EDEE 200 and 201 with a "C" or higher or concurrent enrollment.

Health, Physical Education and Movement (3)

Provides experiences for elementary teacher candidates to create interactive learning opportunities for children, as they develop personal and social responsibility for a healthy lifestyle. Emphasis is placed on integrating concepts of health, physical education, and movement across all subject areas in the elementary school curriculum. Focus on National and Hawai'i Health Education Standards. Pre: Completion of EDEE 310 with a "C" or higher grade or concurrent enrollment.

EDEE 325

Creative and Performing Arts (3)

An invitation to engage with creative and performing works of art, revealing the possibilities of imagination within education. Through experiences with creativity, conventional understandings can be expanded, offering new perspectives and alternatives to everyday learning. Developing

Traditional Art of Hawai'i (3)

This class introduces students to different kinds of traditional arts in Hawai'i - kapa (bark cloth), mats, feather work, three-dimensional images, neck pendants, etc. For each type of art, lectures will review traditional examples with pictures and a discussion of manufacturing and styles. Current artists will visit the class and present basic information on art form manufacture and styles. Museum collections will also be visited. The goals of this class are: 1) to introduce students to different types of traditional arts in Hawai'i; 2) to introduce students to some of the current artists still practicing these arts; 3) to introduce students to some of the more public collections of traditional arts; and 4) to enable the student to research and learn more details about one type of art through a class research paper. (DH)

Traditional Art of the Pacific (3)

This class looks at different kinds of arts in the regions of Polynesia and Micronesia within the Pacific. The focus is on traditional times - just prior to European contact into early post-contact times, roughly the 1700's to mid-1800's. Arts reviewed will include clothing (tapa bark-cloth, woven banana-fiber cloth, flax cloth); headdresses and ornaments of higher ranking people; house architecture, mats and containers (carved wooden boxes, plaited baskets) found within houses; three-dimensional carved religious and ancestral images; and weapons (carved spears, long clubs, hand clubs). For each type of art, lectures will discuss how they were used and made, and describe different styles of art form. Current artists may visit the class and present basic information on art form manufacture and styles. Museum collections will also be visited. The goals of this class are: 1) to introduce students to different types of traditional art forms in Polynesia and Micronesia; 2) to introduce public collections of traditional arts; and 3) to enable the student to research and learn more details about one type of art through a class research paper. (DH)

Polynesia Before European Contact (3)

This course is a detailed overview of Polynesian history from initial settlement to European contact, covering the spread of settlement through Polynesia and the histories of selected island groups. A multi-disciplinary approach to history is used, looking at oral historic, early historic, historical linguistic, and archaeological information. Among the islands usually studied are Tonga, Samoa, the Marquesas, the Tuamotus, Mangareva, Easter Island, the Society Islands (Tahiti), the Southern Cooks, Aotearoa (New Zealand), and the little known Chatham Islands. Among the subjects covered are the rise of the Tongan kingdom, the initial settlement of Eastern Polynesia from Samoa, the formation of stratified countries in Tahiti, Aotearoa's smaller societies with raiding and fortifications, and Easter Island's history with its large statues. The student will also get a more detailed knowledge of one island group through a research paper, learning basic research and writing methods. (Cross-list HIST 471) (DH)

HPST 474

Economies of the Pacific Basin (3)

Analysis of recent developments in the structure, trend, and composition of the Pacific economies. Major emphasis is placed on the most important economies such as Japan, Taiwan, Korea, Philippines, Singapore, New Zealand, Australia, and Mexico. Pre: ECON 300. (Cross-list BUSA/ECON 474) (DS)

HIST 299

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

HIST 306

History of Southeast Asia (3)

This course will focus on the broad themes of regional unity and diversity in Southeast Asia, namely how local cultures adapted to religious, economic, political, and intellectual influences from outside the region. The course will study the history of the peoples of this region beginning with the classical maritime and mainland empires to the onset of Western colonialism and the rise of nationalistic resistance, and conclude with a study of postwar Southeast Asia. (DH)

HIST 308

Science and the Modern Prospect (3)

Examines the history, philosophy and politics of science. Studies of major ideas in the history of science and of contemporary perspectives on the methods, purpose, scope, and limits of science. Offers students an understanding of scientific thought and practice from a humanistic perspective. (Cross-list PHIL/POLS 308) (DH)

HIST 311

Chinese Culture (3)

A topical survey of Chinese civilization from its origins to the 17th century. Traces the major themes of Chinese civilization and assesses Chinese cultural contributions. Emphasis on philosophical, literary, and historical traditions. (DH)

HIST 312

Modern China (3)

A historical survey of China from the 17th century to the present, placing major emphasis on political and social developments, especially in the 20th century. (DH)

HIST 318

Asian American History (3)

This course will examine the experience of Asian immigrants and their citizen descendants in the United States, with an emphasis on Hawai'i. The groups covered include Chinese, Filipino, Japanese, Korean, South Asian, and Southeast Asian Americans. Topics include discussion of: 1) historical forces in the Asian countries and in the U.S. which shaped Asian immigration; 2) the development of ethnic communities; and 3) the struggle of Asians against American nativist feelings and discrimination. This course will also examine the broader question of how race is formed in America, and how racial categories affect our daily lives and the way we see the world. (DH)

HIST 321

Japanese Culture (3)

Examines the major aesthetic themes in Japanese civilization; the development of the Zen ethic, and the emergence of the bushido or samurai spirit. Other currents such as the adaptation of foreign values to the Japanese setting and the recurrence of Japanese patterns will also be stressed. Surveys Japan's religious, philosophical, literary, and historical traditions. (DH)

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

HIST 322

Modern Japan (3)

A survey of Japanese history and culture from the 18th century with emphasis on developments in the 20th century. Considers topically major themes and issues of Japan's emergence to world prominence. (DH)

HIST 328

Modern Korea (3)

A political and cultural survey of Korea. This course will assess Korea's role in East Asian politics during traditional times and its unique position in contemporary international relations. This course will also use divided Korea as a case study of the communist vs. "capitalist" ideology in Asia. (DH)

HIST 338

Modern European History (3)

Primarily a discussion course, concentrating selectively on critical issues in Western thought from the 18th century to the 20th century and major developments in culture and the arts. Readings from historical works, novels, and art history. (DH)

HIST 354

History of Russia (3)

A survey of the growth of civilization in Russia with major emphasis on the social and cultural life of the Russian people. At least one major Russian novel will be read along with historical works. (DH)

HIST 384

Hawai'i from European Contact to the Overthrow (3)

Survey of the social, economic, and political history of the Islands from European contact to the overthrow of the Kingdom of Hawai'i. Emphasis is on the elements of change and continuity that have shaped the culture and history of the Islands. The contributions of the diverse ethnic groups will be stressed. (Cross-list HPST 384) (DH)

HIST 393

U. S. Military History (3)

A survey of American wars, warriors, and strategic thought from the Revolutionary War to Vietnam. (DH)

HIST 433

Middle Ages, 300-1300 A.D. (3)

Development of European civilization through the coalescence of the classical tradition, Christian religion, and Germanic society. Examines cultural, political, and intellectual advances that accompany the High Middle Ages. (DH)

HIST 437

Pacific Archaeology (3)

This course investigates the origins of Pacific peoples and their settlement and adaptation to the islands in Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia. Evidence will be drawn from archaeological sites, artifacts, languages, and oral traditions. (Cross-list ANTH/HPST 437) (DH)

HIST 461

The British in America: 1607-1763 (3)

This course will examine the European discovery of America, the clash between Europeans and Native Americans, English colonial organization, the Enlightenment in America, the Great Awakening, the colonial wars, and the strains which ultimately led to the Revolution. (DH)

HIST 462

The Formative Years: U.S. History 1763-1841 (3)

Among the subjects to be covered: the colonial legacy; causes of the Revolution; independence; Constitution; the Federalist decade; Jeffersonianism; diplomatic foundations of the new nation; the Age of Jackson; and the foundations of American political and social development. (DH)

HIST 463

U. S. History 1840-1920 (3)

An examination of the dislocations caused by sectionalism, the Civil War, industrialism, immigration, and urban growth; and the efforts of reformers and government to deal with them. (DH)

HIST 464

The Triumph of Mass Culture:

The United States Since 1920 (3)

Political developments viewed in the context of America as a revolutionary new technological culture. Emphasis is given to the radical change in life-style, family patterns, and national purpose in the "American Century." (DH)

HIST 466

The United States in the Pacific (3)

While the growth of economic and political interests in the Pacific is surveyed, major emphasis is given to the clash of cultures created by America's activities in the region. Special attention is given to Hawaii's role as America's outpost in the Pacific in mid-20th century.

HIST 470

Literature as History (3)

An examination of works whose popularity offers valuable insights into the historical periods in which they were written. The books will be studied for their cultural and historical importance as well as their literary merit. Among the works to be covered: F. Scott Fitzgerald, The Great Gatsby; Henry Adams, Democracy; John Steinbeck, The Grapes of Wrath. Taught primarily as a seminar. (Cross-list ENG 470) (DH)

HIST 471

Polynesia before European Contact (3)

This course is a detailed overview of Polynesian history from initial settlement to European contact, covering the spread of settlement through Polynesia and the histories of selected island groups. A multi-disciplinary approach to history is used, looking at oral historic, early historic, historical linguistic and archaeological information. Among the islands usually studied are Tonga, Samoa, the Marquesas, the Tuamotus, Mangareva, Easter Island, the Society Islands (Tahiti), the Southern Cooks, Aotearoa (New Zealand), and the little known Chatham Islands. Among the subjects covered are the rise of the Tongan kingdom, the initial

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

settlement of Eastern Polynesia from Samoa, the formation of stratified countries in Tahiti, Aotearoa's smaller societies with raiding and fortifications, and Easter Island's history with its large statues. The student will also get a more detailed knowledge of one island group through a research paper, learning basic research and writing methods. (Cross-list HPST 471) (DH)

HIST 482

Pacific Islands (3)

European impact and native response on major island groups from exploration to annexation, independence, and trusteeship. (Cross-list HPST 482) (DH)

HIST 483

Archaeology of Hawai'i (3)

This course will explore Hawaiian prehistory from the time of original settlement of the Islands until the arrival of Captain James Cook. Evidence will be gained from the investigation of archaeological sites, settlements, artifacts and other physical remains, and from recorded Hawaiian oral traditions. These data will be used to reconstruct ancient Hawaiian life, and ways to trace the development of Hawaiian society. (Cross-list ANTH/HPST 483) (DH)

HIST 488

Twentieth Century Hawai'i (3)

An examination of 20th century Hawai'i emphasizing social and political developments. The formation of labor, the impact of World War II, and the growth of the Democratic Party will be studied to understand the dynamics of contemporary Island life. (Cross-list HPST 488) (DH)

HIST 496

Selected Topics in History (v 1-6)

Topics selected will be based on program relevancy and student interest. Course content will vary. May be repeated for credit.

HIST 499

Directed Reading and Research (v)

Individual projects in various fields. To be arranged with the instructor.

HUMANITIES

HUM 301

Studies in the Western Tradition (3)

Multidisciplinary examination of the traditional or modern experiences of Western societies and institutions. Course content will vary. Course may be repeated for credit with permission of the instructor. (DH)

HUM 302

Studies in the Eastern Tradition (3)

Multidisciplinary examination of the traditional or modern experiences of Asian societies and institutions. Course content will vary. Course may be repeated for credit with permission of the instructor. (DH)

HUM 303

Comparative Traditions: Eastern and Western (3)

Multidisciplinary examination of universal themes as expressed in both western and eastern cultures. Course content will vary. Course may be repeated for credit with permission of the instructor. (DH)

HUM 304

Hawaiian-Pacific Traditions (3)

This class provides an introductory, multi-disciplinary overview of the cultural traditions of the native peoples of the Pacific Islands and Hawai'i. The student will learn the location and physical nature of the major island groups. History and general cultural patterns from settlement to the present are reviewed - looking at various themes, issues, and case studies. The student will also receive introductory exposure to traditional and contemporary art, music, dance and literature. (DH, HAP)

HUM 311

Creative Writing (3)

A workshop dealing with the essays, poems, stories, and plays written by the students. Emphasis will be on self-expression, but attention will also be paid to publication. (DA)

HUM 390

Teaching Writing (4)

This course will cover the theoretical and practical aspects of teaching writing. Students will gain experience in tutoring by assisting in the Writing and Learning Center and/or being assigned as a writing assistant to a writing-intensive class. Pre: HUM 310, ENG 200 or consent of instructor

HUM 399

Study Abroad (v 1-6)

Registration in this course allows enrolled registration status for students studying abroad. Courses completed abroad may remain in this category as elective credit and be applied to a Bachelor's degree up to a total of 6 credits. Note: Students must complete the Study Abroad Application Packet prior to registration into this course. Pre: Consent of faculty advisor

HUM 486

Senior Project (v)

With assistance from an advisor, students will complete a project based on original or library research related to a particular problem or issue in the chosen field of study. Students will share the results of this learning process with peers and will assist each other in refining communication skills, developing research and information retrieval techniques, and other research-related competencies. Pre:

Consent of instructor, 3 upper-division credits of writing-intensive (WI) coursework

HUM 490

Humanities Practicum (v)

Students are provided an internship with an appropriate community agency. As an intern, the student is delegated the responsibility of developing the solution to a well-defined problem or is asked to complete a relevant task. Students report on the experience using their understanding of the field in which they are working. Pre: Consent of instructor, 3 upper-division credits of writing-intensive (WI) coursework. Note: Students participating in Practicum must sign the UHWO Assumption of Risk and Release Form. This form must be completed prior to beginning this off-campus activity.

HUM 491

Community-Based Education and Service Learning (v 1-3)

This course helps to fulfill UH West O'ahu's mission for development of public service activities. Each semester the course will focus on one or more of the following activities: tutoring and/or mentoring immigrant students and/or their parents; working with community resource people; conducting research on Hawai'i's multi-cultural communities and issues of importance to them; participating in workshops that will provide appropriate background and training for these activities. Requirements: 8 hours per week (on-site, workshops, etc.). (Cross-list SSCI 491)

Note: This course can also be used as a senior practicum site, with the approval of the student's faculty advisor. Students participating in off-campus service learning or practicum activities must sign the UHWO Assumption of Risk and Release Form. This form must be completed prior to beginning this off-campus activity.

HUM 496

Selected Topics in Humanities (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

INFORMATION AND COMPUTER SCIENCE

ICS 101

Tools for the Information Age (3)

Fundamental concepts and terminology for computer technology. The course includes software application for word-processing, spreadsheets, database, presentations, and web pages for problem solving. Computer technology trends and the impact of computers on individuals and society. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MATHEMATICS

MATH 100

Survey of Math (3)

This course covers selected mathematical topics in an effort to acquaint students with examples of mathematical reasoning. Upon successful completion of the course, students should be able to: model applied problems symbolically and perform manipulations on the symbols within an appropriate mathematical or logical formal system; distinguish between a rigorous proof and a conjecture; author an elementary proof; apply formal rules or algorithms to solve numeric, symbolic, graphical and/or applied problems; and assess the reasonableness of, then appropriately communicate, the solutions to problems. Math 100 is not intended as, and does not qualify as, a prerequisite for advanced mathematics courses. Pre: Grade of "C" or better in MATH 25, MATH 83, or equivalent; placement into MATH 100; or consent of instructor. (FS)

College Algebra (3)

This course follows the elementary algebra sequence and will prepare students for pre-calculus, statistics, or other courses requiring algebraic, geometric or symbolic thinking and deduction. Students will apply algebraic and geometric techniques to solve problems, including simplifying, factoring, and/or solving radical expressions; linear, quadratic, absolute value, and literal equations; and working with inequalities, complex numbers, quadratic systems, logarithms, and introductory functions and graphs. Pre: Grade of "C" or better in Math 25, or placement into MATH 103. (FS)

MATH 111

Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I (3)

This course is the first in the sequence of two math courses required for students in the K-6 B.Ed. degree program. Emphasis will be placed on problem solving, communication, representation, reasoning, and mathematical connections. Topics covered include operations on sets, natural numbers, integers, fractions, reals, and functions; the properties of these operations; patterns and algebra. Pre: COMPASS score of 62 or higher, or completion of MATH 83 or higher, with a grade of "C" or higher. Prospective elementary education majors only.

Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II (3)

This course is the second in the sequence of two math courses required for students in the K-6 B.Ed. degree program. Topics covered include operations on the natural numbers and rational numbers; properties of those operations; connections to other parts of mathematics and applications. Pre: Completion of MATH 111 with a grade of "C" or better, or instructor consent. (FS)

MATH 296

Selected Topics (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

MATH 299

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

MATH 496

Selected Topics (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

MATH 499

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

MILITARY SCIENCE AND LEADERSHIP

Note: For MSL 301, 302, 401, and 402 a weekly two-hour leadership laboratory is required for all courses. The laboratory includes practical application of leadership skills taught in the classroom. In addition, students are required to participate in the Army Physical Fitness Training (APFT) on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings. Courses are held at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa campus.

MSL 100

Intro to Physical Fitness (1)

Hands-on participatory course following the Army's physical fitness program. Classes conducted three days per week with Army ROTC cadets. Focus is on aerobic conditioning, muscular strength and endurance. Repeatable three times.

MSL 101

Intro to Military Science I (2)

Introduces cadets to personal challenges and competencies critical for effective leadership; personal development of life skills such as goal setting, time management, physical fitness, and stress management related to leadership, officership, and the Army profession. Focus on developing basic knowledge and comprehension of Army Leadership Dimensions while understanding the ROTC program, its purpose in the Army, and its advantages for the student.

MSL 101 L

Intro to Military Sci I Lab (1)

Practical application in adventure training, one-rope bridges, rifle marksmanship, land navigation, drill and ceremonies, physical training.

MSL 102

Intro to Military Science II (2)

Overviews leadership fundamentals such as setting direction, problem-solving, listening, presenting briefs, providing feedback and using effective writing skills. Explores leadership values, attributes, skills, and actions in the context of practical, hands-on, and interactive exercises. Cadre role models and building relationships among cadets through common experience and practical interaction are critical.

MSL 102 L

Intro to Military Sci II Lab (1)

Practical application in adventure training, one-rope bridges, rifle marksmanship, land navigation, drill and ceremonies, physical training.

MSL 201

Intermediate Military Sci I (3)

Explores creative and innovative tactical leadership strategies and styles through historical case studies and engaging in interactive student exercises. Cadets practice aspects of personal motivation and team building by planning, executing, and assessing team exercises. Focus is on continued development of leadership values and attributes through understanding of rank, uniform, customs and courtesies.

MSL 202

Intermediate Military Sci II (3)

Challenges of leading complex, contemporary operational environments. Dimensions of cross-cultural challenges of leadership in a constantly changing world are highlighted and applied to practical Army leadership tasks and situations. Cadets develop greater self-awareness as they practice communication and team building skills, and tactics in real world scenarios. Provides a smooth transition to MSL 301.

MSL 203

ROTC Basic Camp (6)

Four-week summer course conducted at Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Substitutes for ROTC basic course (101, 102, 201, and 202) and fulfills course requirement for admission to ROTC advanced courses. Credit will be given for 203 or basic courses, but not both. Pre: consent.

MSL 301

Leading Small Organizations I (4)

Series of practical opportunities to lead small groups and receive personal assessments and encouragement. Uses small unit defensive tactics and opportunities to plan/conduct training. Includes field training sessions, student-taught classes, and presentations/briefings. Pre: MSL 201, 202, consent of instructor

MSL 302 Leading Small Organizations II (4)

Analyze tasks and prepare written or oral guidance for team members to accomplish tasks. Delegate tasks and supervise. Examine and apply lessons from leadership case studies. Examine importance of ethical decision-making. Includes field training sessions, student-taught classes, and presentations/briefings. Pre: MSL 301, consent of instructor

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MSL 303 ROTC

Advanced Camp (6)

A 32 day summer field training exercise conducted at Fort Lewis, Washington. Arduous and intensified leadership training is conducted throughout the 32 day period. Required for U.S. Army commissioning. Pre: MSL 301, 302, consent of instructor

MSL 391

American Military History (3)

Lecture and discussion on the art and science of warfare throughout the history of the United States. Restricted to students enrolled in the Army ROTC program. Pre: Consent of instructor

MSL 399

Directed Reading and Research (v)

Limited to military science students who have had at least one previous military science course for which a grade of B or higher was earned and a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or better. Pre: Consent of instructor

MSL 401

Leadership Challenges and Goal Setting (4)

Plan, conduct and evaluate activities of the ROTC cadet organization. Assess organizational cohesion and develop strategies to improve it. Develop confidence in skills to lead people and manage resources. Includes field training sessions, student taught classes, and presentations/briefings. Pre: MSL 301, 302, consent of instructor

MSL 402

Transition to Lieutenant (4)

Continues the methodology from MSL 401. Identify and resolve ethical dilemmas. Refine counseling and motivating techniques. Examine aspects of tradition and law as related to leading as an officer in the Army. Prepare for a future as a successful Army officer. Includes field training sessions, student-taught classes, and presentations/briefings. Pre: MSL 401, consent of instructor

OCEANOGRAPHY

OCN 201

Science of the Sea (3)

This course is an overview of the science of oceanography. Topics covered include the physical and chemical properties of seawater, waves, tides, currents, the geology of the ocean floor, life in the ocean, human use of ocean resources, and environmental concerns. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DP)

PHIL 100

Introduction to Philosophy:

Survey of Problems (3)

Discussion of great philosophical problems such as our knowledge of reality, the freedom of the will, the relation of the mind and body, the sources of self-identity, the meaning of life and the existence of God. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22.

PHIL 210

Social and Political Philosophy (3)

Introduction to classical, modern and contemporary social and political theories, as well as issues in a global context. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DH)

PHIL 220

Introduction to Feminism (3)

Study of feminism as a philosophical movement of the 20th century, its historical background, and contemporary feminist issues and theories. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DH)

PHIL 296

Selected Topics (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

PHIL 299

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

PHIL 300

Ancient Philosophy (3)

Study of the basis of modern thought and practice in the ancient philosophers and schools from the origins of Greek philosophy to the triumph of Christianity. Emphasis on the formation of those Western ideas and ideals most pertinent to contemporary society. Recommended for all students in Humanities and Social Sciences.

PHIL 301

Modern Philosophy (3)

Upper-division introduction to philosophy for students with little or no background in philosophy. Covers those philosophies from the 17th through the 19th centuries that have had the greatest impact on the making of the modern mind and on the development of contemporary civilization.

PHIL 302

Political Philosophy (3)

Political philosophy is the search for "the best way to live" – what Socrates and Plato called "the Good Life". This is the foundational course of political science. It approaches the problems of contemporary life, as experienced by the individual, from a "big picture" understanding of human nature. This draws from anthropology, psychology, and world history. It brings to bear on the present the wisdom of primordial, classical, modern, and post-modern political philosophy. (Cross-list POLS 302) (DH)

PHIL 308

Science and the Modern Prospect (3)

Examines the history, philosophy, and politics of science. Studies of major ideas in the history of science and of contemporary perspectives on the methods, purpose, scope, and limits of science. Offers students an understanding of scientific thought and practice from a humanistic perspective. (Cross-list HIST/POLS 308) (DH)

PHIL 310

Understanding Contemporary Philosophy (3)

Study of the 20th century thinkers and ideas which have most influenced contemporary life. Studies the relations of thought and action, attempts to resolve the age-old human dilemmas by new techniques of analysis and description, evolutionary thinking, the crisis of the individual in the technological world, and other contemporary issues. Recommended for students in all divisions. (DH)

PHIL 311

Philosophy of Law (3)

Why do we have laws? Study of the origin and justifications of legal systems, who makes the laws, what makes laws just, and the relation of law to ethical and other non-legal values. (DH)

PHIL 312

Ethical Studies (3)

Study of major ethical theories such as Virtue Ethics, Deontology, Utilitarianism, Existential Ethics, and Care Ethics as well as contemporary ethics issues such as abortion, death penalty, same-sex marriage, and bio-ethics. (DH, ETH)

PHIL 325 Philosophy of Economics (3)

Examination of the philosophical basis of Western economic systems. Emphasis on the conception of man, the role of economics in social life, and the vision of society from Adam Smith to the present. (Cross-list ECON 325) (DS)

PHIL 401

Existentialism and the Human Condition (3)

Study of the nineteenth and twentieth century thematic explorations of human consequences, freedom, choice, death, and the precarious and often baffling nature of human existence, as expressed in philosophy, literature, and film. (Cross-list ENG 401). (DH)

PHIL 435

The Religious Dimension of Human Life (3)

Examination of problems concerning the existence and nature of God, the human need for religion, types of religious experience, immortality, and the attempts of modern social and physical sciences to understand and interpret religion. (DH)

PHIL 439

Philosophy and Film (3)

This course addresses the unique properties of the film medium and how they have been exploited, through the viewing and analysis of a number of films, both American and foreign. We will study the particular aesthetics of film from the points of view of technique, style, and content; film analysis and criticism; the social and commercial context of film-making and viewing. (DH)

PHIL 470 (Akpha)

Studies in Asian Philosophy (3)

Examination of the philosophy and practice of selected philosophical schools of Asia. Emphasis is upon those schools which present living options and which may enrich and enhance Western ways of thought and action.

A: Buddhism; B: Confucianism; C: Daoism. (DH)

PHIL 481

Ethics and Administration (3)

Consideration of the ethical problems that face administrators in the public and private sectors from a theoretical point of view and in application to particular cases. Such issues as corporate responsibility to communities; shareholders and competitors; bribery; honesty; racialism; ecology; and false or misleading advertising will be discussed. (Cross-list BUSA/PUBA 481) (ETH)

PHIL 482

Environmental Ethics (3)

This course will examine the history of philosophical and ethical systems and their implications for human interactions with the Earth's environment. This course will be centered around readings and discussions of selections from historically important works in the field (such as A Sand County Almanac by Aldo Leopold) in the context of current controversies involving environmental ethics. (DH, ETH)

PHIL 496

Selected Topics in Philosophy (v 1-6)

Topics selected will be based on program relevancy and student interest. May be repeated for credit.

PHIL 499

Directed Reading and Research (v)

Individual projects in various fields. To be arranged with the instructor.

PHYSICS

PHYS 100

Survey of Physics (3)

This course and its laboratory will introduce basic principles of Physics. It is designed for non-science majors. The following concepts will be discussed: mechanics, electricity and magnetism, waves, optics, atomic and nuclear physics. Emphasis will be on learning how things work. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: PHYS 100L. (DP)

PHYS 100L

Survey of Physics Laboratory (1)

This course and its laboratory will introduce basic principles of Physics. It is designed for non-science majors. The following concepts will be discussed: mechanics, electricity and magnetism, waves, optics, atomic and nuclear physics. Emphasis will be on learning how things work. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. Coreq: PHYS 100. (DY)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

POLS 110

Introduction to Political Science (3)

This course introduces the possibilities of politics arising from its founding Socratic question: "How should we live?" The course surveys and evaluates some of the major resulting belief systems, ideologies, political orders, forms of government, institutions, activities, and modes of inquiry. Special attention is given to the problems and controversies of our age. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DS)

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

POLS 130

Introduction to American Politics (3)

This course will serve as an introduction to central concepts of the American political system and will prompt students to gain a basic understanding of the three-branch structure of American government, the balance of power between the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government, as well as policy issues raised by each of those segments of the American political structure. It will also encourage students to revise their assumptions about American politics. Finally, the course will address issues of civic engagement and citizenship. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22. (DS)

POLS 235

Politics of Food (3)

In this course, students will learn about the processes of food production and how government and corporate involvement have changed the way society eats. We will discuss how food has shaped global history. This class should serve as a space to question our assumptions about political issues surrounding food production and consumption, the links between agribusiness and the food we put on our respective tables, as well as a new way of understanding food issues through a political perspective. Pre: Placement into ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22.

POLS 296

Selected Topics (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.

POLS 299

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with the instructor.

POLS 302

Political Philosophy (3)

Political philosophy is the search for “the best way to live” – what Socrates and Plato called “the Good Life”. This is the foundational course of political science. It approaches the problems of contemporary life, as experienced by the individual, from a “big picture” understanding of human nature. This draws from anthropology, psychology, and world history. It brings to bear on the present the wisdom of primordial, classical, modern, and post-modern political philosophy. (Cross-list PHIL 302) (DH)

POLS 308

Science and the Modern Prospect (3)

Examines the history, philosophy and politics of science. Studies of major ideas in the history of science and of contemporary perspectives on the methods, purpose, scope, and limits of science. Offers students an understanding of scientific thought and practice

from a humanistic perspective. (Cross-list HIST/PHIL 308) (DH)

POLS 316

Constitutional Law (3)

An examination of the nature and development of the United States constitutional system. Emphasis on the role of the courts in interpreting the concepts of separation of powers, federalism, the police power, and the commerce clause. In addition, a study of fundamental rights as protected by the United States Constitution and other legal provisions and the role of the courts in interpreting freedom of expression and conscience, due process, and equal protection of the laws will be covered. (Cross-list PUBA 316) (DH)

Global Issues (3)

For the last 400 years, the quality of life on the planet has been increasingly shaped by global forces, many of which now seem out of control and increasingly destructive. The key players have been large centralized organizations: first nation-states and their empires, now multinational corporations. This course looks at global trends by focusing on illuminating area case studies. It attempts to offer lessons relevant to local issues and lives. (DS)

Environmental Politics (3)

This course looks at the current environmental crisis from the perspective of the two revolutions in humanity’s relationship with the natural world: the development of agriculture 10,000 years ago, and the development of industrial-urban society beginning 400 years ago. This provides a context for evaluating the environmental politics of the United States, other industrial nations, and multinational corporations. The course concludes with a focus on Hawai‘i and a consideration of alternative approaches. (DS)

American Politics (3)

This course offers an in-depth understanding of the basic values and institutions of American government. The course includes a dialogue between indigenous (native) American and European sources. The focus is on the values of democracy; freedom; individualism; social responsibility; and the institutions of republicanism: the separation of powers; checks and balances; and the free market. The course also provides opportunities to integrate personal experiences with a demonstration of students’ understanding of a variety of contemporary political issues. (DS)

POLS 342

Indigenous Peoples and Modernity (3)

This course offers a comparative understanding of the growing importance of nations not represented by states - the indigenous peoples of the fourth world. Case studies will draw from the experience of Native Hawaiians, Native Americans, Australian Aborigines, and South African San (among others) to clarify struggles for cultural and political sovereignty, and the growing contribution of such earth-based societies to politics and cosmology beyond modernity. The goal will be to facilitate constructive discourse between indigenous peoples and the citizens of industrial nations. (Cross-list ANTH/HPST 342)

Politics and Public Policy (3)

An introduction to the processes through which public policy is formulated and executed in the United States and selected foreign political systems. Concern is focused on the comparative study of political relationships of administrative agencies with clientele; interest groups; and the legislative, executive, and administrative branches. Special attention is also given to questions of administrative responsibility and ethics in the public services.

Global Futures (3)

This course tries to make sense of the multiple crises afflicting industrial society, e.g.: endemic warfare; terrorism; permanent damage to the biosphere; starvation; over-consumption; and the disintegration of family and community life. The following questions are considered: What is the connection between crisis and transformation? How was the world view that sustains our life created? How do world views come and go? The course surveys the creative cutting edge of several disciplines from cultural history to psychology and the natural sciences, clarifying signs of radical transformation. What is the role of the individual in envisioning a future society?

Meaning of Mass Media (3)

This course examines how mass communications increasingly shapes modern values and behavior. The birth of mass communication with the industrial production line at the beginning of the 19th century is traced to the electronic revolution of satellite communication and the Internet. The analysis includes: the differences between propaganda, socialization and education; the central role of advertising and entertainment in modern culture; whose messages get communicated, why, and to what effect; and the ways in which the medium itself determines the content of the message. Possibilities for preferred change are considered.

POLS 381

Hawai‘i Politics (3)

What are Hawai‘i’s most urgent problems? What are their roots? What are the solutions? Pre-contact Native Hawaiian “island politics” is used as a baseline for evaluating the last 200 years of Americanization. This course offers an in-depth understanding of the basic values, institutions, and practices of government in Hawai'i, setting up a conversation between indigenous (Native) Hawaiian, European, Asian and other Polynesian voices. The course focuses on economic policy, environmental issues, and democratic participation in decision-making. (Cross-list HPST 381).

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

POLS 384

Women and Politics (3)

This course will serve as an examination of women and politics from three different perspectives: local, national, and global. The class examines a broad range of women's issues. The course will enable students to analyze the formation of gender identity in relation to identities based on race, class, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, culture, etc. The class will also consider women as they have been defined throughout time by a society based on men's ideas of women. This class will focus heavily on women's activism and resistance as understood through a feminist lens. (DS)

Politics and Film (3)

This course offers a holistic understanding of the unique capacity of film to shape culture, consciousness, society, and politics. In addition to dealing with the explicitly political content and impact of specific films, the course also covers the politics of film: the political economy of film production and distribution. This course is interdisciplinary, integrating material from psychology, anthropology, political economy, and history. (DH)

POLS 450

Pacific Asian Politics (3)

This internship is intended for students pursuing the certificate in Health Care Administration to gain hands-on experience in the health care field. Students are provided with an internship with an appropriate community health care organization. As an intern, the student is delegated the responsibility of developing the solution to a well-defined problem or is asked to complete relevant administrative tasks. Students report on the experience using their understanding of the health care field. Pre: Consent of instructor. Note: Students participating in the practicum must sign the UHWO Assumption of Risk and Release form. This form must be completed prior to the beginning of this off-campus activity. May be repeated for credit.

PUBA 496

Selected Topics in Public Administration (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with program relevancy and student interest. May be repeated for credit.

PUBA 499

Directed Reading and Research (v)

To be arranged with instructor.

RESPIRATORY CARE

RESP 401

Case Management in Cardiopulmonary Care (3)

Overview of managed care and significant trends in health-care policy. The course material covers theoretical concepts of case management, the history and process of case management and how it links to the practice of Cardiopulmonary Care. Examines various case management models and roles, and their application in specialty roles and team models. Study local and national trends in various health-care settings (acute care, community health, sub-acute, managed care organizations) and the implementation of case management models for the care of patients with cardiopulmonary disorders. Pre: Completion of AS in Respiratory Care at Kapiolani Community College.

RESP 402

Current Concepts in Cardiopulmonary Care (3)

Review and analysis of current trends and concepts in the management of patients with cardiovascular, pulmonary, and sleep-associated disorders. The course material covers the evidence and protocol-based approaches to management of significant complex diseases and conditions such as Acute Respiratory Distress Syndrome/Acute Lung Injury (ARDS/ALI), pulmonary tuberculosis, pulmonary hypertension and associated cardiac disease, Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD), biological epidemics, and asthma management. Students will examine model practice guidelines and pathways, identify and evaluate research findings, and discuss methods for implementing best-practice models in the modern healthcare system. Pre: Completion of AS in Respiratory Care at Kapiolani Community College, or equivalent.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

SD 100

The University Experience (1)

This course is designed to educate first-year students on how to succeed at the university, develop a better understanding of the learning process and acquire academic skills and knowledge essential for success in college and in life. It covers the purposes of higher education and potential roles of individual students within the university and other learning environments. Pre: Placement in ENG 100 or concurrent enrollment in ENG 22.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

SSCI 210

Statistical Analysis I (3)

Methods to describe quantifiable data through frequency distribution and graphic methods, sampling, probability, estimation, hypothesis testing, and analysis of variance. Pre: Intermediate algebra or college algebra with a "C" or better or successful completion of the UHWO math placement test.

SSCI 300

Philosophy of the Social Sciences (3)

The goals of this course are to understand the philosophical bases and historical origins of theories and methodologies in the social sciences. It is an interdisciplinary introduction to the social sciences: how they developed, how they are connected, and how they are used. (DS)

SSCI 301

Methods and Techniques in Social Science Research (3)

An examination of the various stages involved in social research. Areas to be covered include the relationship between theory and research methods, sampling and measurement, research designs, data collection instruments, and data analysis and reporting. (DS)

SSCI 311

Critical Thinking and Problem Solving (3)

An interdisciplinary course covering the practical application of logic, evidence, and the scientific method to the evaluation of data and arguments. Students will use both written and spoken communication to critically analyze selected contemporary issues. (DS)

SSCI 317

Fieldwork and Qualitative Methods (3)

This course teaches students the analytical skill useful in social sciences research. It also encourages creativity, synthesis, and critical reflection in the research process. It emphasizes qualitative, experiential, cross-cultural research skills, as employed in the natural setting. It critically reflects on the role of the self; historical/political/cultural contexts of research; and the interactions with informants in the production of knowledge. The possibility of applied, collaborative research, and even activism, is examined. Students conduct small projects within the multicultural Hawai'i community. (DS, ETH)

Hawaiian and Pacific Environments (3)

This course will examine historic and current ecological principles and human impact on the environment. Course objectives include: 1) learning about underlying scientific principles which affect Earth's environment, 2) evaluating problems arising from human interaction with the environment, and 3) examining both scientific and cultural solutions to environmental problems, especially with reference to Hawai'i. (Cross-list HPST 326) (DB)

Computer Applications (3)

This course is designed to provide "hands-on" experience with the personal computer through the use of statistical packages including Lotus, SPSS for Windows, and others. Students will learn how to enter, analyze, and present data. Topics covered will include data collection and management, statistical analysis of qualitative and quantitative data, and the use of plots and charts. Pre: SSCI 210 or other statistics course.

SSCI 399

Study Abroad (v 1-6)

Registration in this course allows enrolled registration status for students studying abroad. Courses completed abroad may remain in this category as elective credit and be applied to a Bachelor's degree up to a total of 6 credits. Note: Students must complete the Study Abroad Application Packet prior to registration into this course. Pre: Consent of faculty advisor

SSCI 410

Statistical Analysis II (3)

This course deals with the quantitative methods of regression, analysis of variance, and experimental design. It starts with a review of basic descriptive and inferential statistics, followed by simple and multiple regression.

Then it covers the principles of experimental design and uses those concepts for analysis of variance. The approach is through case studies and real data analysis. Pre: SSCI 210 or equivalent. (DS)

SSCI 486

Senior Project (v)

With assistance from an advisor, students will complete a project based on original or library research related to a particular problem or issue in the chosen field of study. Students will share the results of this learning process with peers and will assist each other in refining communications skills, developing research and information retrieval techniques, and other research-related competencies. Pre: SSCI 301, 210, consent of instructor, 3 upper-division credits of writing-intensive (WI) coursework.

Social Sciences Practicum (v)

Students are provided an internship with an appropriate community agency. As an intern, the student is delegated the responsibility of developing the solution to a well-defined problem or is asked to complete a relevant task. Students report on the experience using their understanding of the field in which they are working. Pre: Consent of instructor, 3 upper-division credits of writing-intensive (WI) coursework. Note: Students participating in Practicum must sign the UHWO Assumption of Risk and Release Form. This form must be completed prior to beginning this off-campus activity.

Community-Based Education and Service Learning (v 1-3)

This course helps to fulfill UH West O'ahu's mission for development of public service activities. Each semester the course will focus on one or more of the following activities: tutoring and/or mentoring immigrant students and/or their parents, working with community resource people, conducting research on Hawaii's multi-cultural communities and issues of importance to them, participating in workshops that will provide appropriate background and training for these activities. Requirements: 8 hours per week (on-site, workshops, etc.). (Cross-list HUM 491) Note: This course can also be used as a senior practicum site, with the approval of the student's faculty advisor. Students participating in off-campus service learning or practicum activities must sign the UHWO Assumption of Risk and Release Form. This form must be completed prior to beginning this off-campus activity.

SSCI 496

Selected Topics in Social Sciences (v 1-6)

Topics will vary with student interest and relevancy to the program. May be repeated for credit.
