Week of September 9

Kealaikahiki at UHWO

What is Kealaikahiki at UH West O'ahu? Kealaikahiki is UH West O'ahu's Native Hawaiian Program dedicated to promoting the academic success of students in a Hawaiian environment through cultural education and practices. Find out more in this complete UH System video story featuring in-person interviews with Kealaikahiki's Keolamalie McComber, Heather Kapua Kalua and Kalae'ula Lee, with voice-over by Adam Kainoa Nahulu.

An AUW mahalo

Mahalo to all who donated and purchased baked goods at the Aloha United Way (AUW) Bake Sale last Friday! The event was a great success and the AUW coordinators are truly grateful for the support of our wonderful faculty and staff at UHWO, many of whom said to "keep the change" on their purchases of homemade li hing mui lollipops and brownies. Don't miss the Sept. 20 White Elephant Sale from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. in D104 as the next AUW fundraiser. Donate household items (clothes, small appliances etc.) on Thursday, Sept. 19 from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. in D104. No knives or large appliances please.

Do you tweet or "like?"

Does your department or service on campus have a Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest, Instagram, Google+, Tumblr or any other social media presence? The new UH West O'ahu website will include a social media directory with links to all known UHWO affiliated social media sites. Email your page information to Julie Funasaki Yuen at julieky@hawaii.edu.
