THIS WEEK AT UHWO

a bulletin for UH West O'ahu faculty and staff

Week of September 23

UHWO wins urban design planning award

The Hawaii Chapter of the American Planning Association \(APA\) awarded the "Urban Design" award to the University of Hawaii - West O'ahu, PBR Hawaii & Associates, and the City and County of Honolulu Department of Planning and Permitting for the UH West O'ahu Non-Campus Lands Urban Design Plan. Our award-winning design plan defines the design character of the non-campus lands surrounding UHWO and sets guidelines for the development of a "University District" in East Kapolei. The comprehensive plan includes provisions for transportation, land uses, sustainability and development.

Introducing the new UH West O'ahu website

The new UH West O'ahu website is here! Some of the new features include 1) a user-friendly content management system that allows for multiple administrators with the ability to update content 2) a new event calendar system that links to the UH system calendar and allows those with a UH user ID to add events 3) a simplified navigation menu and 4) an improved search function. Stay tuned for more information about website training sessions on how to use the new calendar system and more. Tell us what you think! Send in your comments via the website feedback form.

Dr. Jayson Chun discusses Hawaii'i manga in essay for Crossing Cultures: The Art of Manga in Hawaii'i

UH West O'ahu Associate Professor of History Dr. Jayson Chun recently completed an essay titled "Hawaii'i Manga" for the Crossing Cultures: The Art of Manga in Hawaii'i exhibit on display at Gallery 'Iolani at Windward Community College now through Oct. 2. In "Hawaii'i Manga," Chun describes manga (Japanese comics) in Japan and its two distinct waves in Hawaii'i. The Crossing Cultures exhibition brings together Hawaii'i based artists and writers who use manga to explore their cross-cultural experiences and tell stories that examine the history and cultures of Hawaii'i.

UH Presidential Selection Committee visits UHWO

Members of the UH Presidential Selection Committee visited UH West O'ahu last Friday to host an open forum and solicit feedback on the selection of the next UH System president. Committee members Dr. Paul Lococo of Leeward Community College and UH Regent Carl Carlson addressed attendees and encouraged others to submit comments via the UH System Presidential Search Committee website.
