Housewives Beware

Another type of burglarizing was experienced in our community recently. Knowing that the man of the house was out, two Caucasians approached the housewife stating that her husband gave word to pickup their television set for repairs. She immediately consented to have it removed, thinking that her husband had made all the arrangements. Much to her surprise, she found out that this wasn't true.

RESULT: Minus one television set.

So, housewives and children, be extra careful and cautious when dealing with culprits of this nature. Beware--Be Wise. Be sure their statement is correct before allowing them in your home.

Memorial Bon Service

Members of the Budhists sects and others in the community are cordially invited to the Memorial Bon Service to be held at the Ewa Cemetery on Sunday, July 12 at 5:00 P.M.

This annual service will be held under the auspices of Ewa Hongwanji Mission Kyodan, Ewa Soto Mission Kyodan and Ewa Jodo Mission Kyodan.

Your Safety

WIVES, DAUGHTERS, SAFETY ALERT---Women driving alone, either day or night, should form the habit of looking into the back seat of their car before driving off after parking anywhere, even from home or store.

Recently a woman driving at night noticed a car that seemed to be following her. She pulled into the next gas station and told the man in charge her fear. He asked her who the man riding in the back seat of her car was. She hadn't even known he was there! Nor why. Police were called and the man taken into custody. The car which had been following her sped away.

So not only is it a good plan to keep your car doors locked when driving, but be sure you have no uninvited guests lurking in the back seat of your car.
