Ewa's Oldtimers

HARRY MINORU MATSUURA, at the age of 47 is a veteran employee of this Company with a service record of 32 years.

Born in Ewa in 1916, he attended Ewa School and started his career at Ewa Plantation Company in 1931.

Starting in the field department, he later moved to the garage department as a grease rack attendant. Transferring to the field department as a truck driver and later as a tractor driver, he was assigned to the shop as a tractor mechanic helper in 1943. Since then he has worked his way up to his present job of journeyman internal combustion engine mechanic.

To further his career as a mechanic, Harry has over the years taken automotive courses from the American Technical Society, the National Schools and has attended (4 years) the General Motors Automobile Clinic in Honolulu during his off hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Matsuura reside at Tenney Village. They have one son, Dennis, who is attending Ewa School.

Motorists be Alert!

School opened last week and the throng of children are once again very much in evidence along the streets leading to and from the schools.

So let's drive carefully and be always on guard for them.

Our Production

	Week Ending 9/7/63	To Date Year
Tons 96° Sugar Shipped	1,303	46,086

Suckers for Banana Orchard

Anyone wishing to sell apple banana suckers may do so by contacting the Diversified Agriculture Department Office in the Post Office building. Twenty-five cents will be paid for every usable sucker that have been made ready for planting.

Chad Penhallow, Diversified Agriculture Superintendent, happily inspects the apple banana suckers donated to the department to launch its banana orchard.

The suckers were dug from Charles Tanaka's yard at Park Row.

Manager Bryan To Head Leeward Chest Drive

Ed Bryan, vice president and manager of this Company, has been named to head the Leeward Division of the Honolulu Community Chest Campaign for 1964. The vice chairman is William Mair, Office Manager.

The division covers Aiea, Pearl City, Waipahu, Ewa, Ewa Beach, Nanakuli-Maile, Waianae, Wahiawa, Waialua and Kahuku.

The chairman for Ewa is Frank Gay.

This year's campaign goal is $1,519,000 which represents the bare minimum needs of agencies supported by the chest.

Following the pacemaker drive - September 16-30, the general campaign will run from October 4 through 18.

Introducing...

DR. ANTHONY HEPTON, Castle & Cooke trainee, who will be at Ewa for two months with the Agricultural Research division. He started his orientation and training period here on September 3rd.

Dr. Hepton, who is 27 years of age, was born in Derbyshire, England and graduated from the School of Agriculture at the University of Nottingham, in 1957. He then came to the United States and enrolled in the graduate school at Cornell University. He received his PhD in June, 1963, majoring in vegetable crops, and also studied plant physiology and anatomy.

While attending Cornell, he held a part-time job as a research assistant, and in his last year there he was a full time Botany instructor.

He arrived in Hawaii in June, 1963. Dr. Hepton and his wife, Estelle, reside in Honolulu.

Facts and Figures

This year's enrollment at Ewa School, kindergarten through grade 8th, was 760 as of last Tuesday--a decrease of 69 students from last year's total of 829.
