Café Siam

The umbrella, long a symbol of respect and protection, denotes rank in Thailand. Thai umbrellas have been used for centuries to denote Royal Rank, by the use of elaborate jewels, embroideries, and multi-tiered designs. The more tiers the higher the rank. Thai Kings often gifted favored members of court with elaborate umbrellas.

Also a symbol of good fortune, the Thai umbrella was used in Buddhist ceremonies to ensure a plentiful harvest. We have chosen the umbrella as our symbol for good food and service fit for a King. We hope you will find it your good fortune, too, and rank us high on your list of favorite restaurants.

Thank you for dining at Cafe Siam.

Please come again!
