Campus Mural for Allied Health/Administration Building barrier wall

We want to know: How do we Pupukahi I Holomua, or "Move Forward Together," focusing on the values of Learning, Discovery, and Engagement? We encourage you to share your thoughts on how UH West O'ahu will progress by utilizing those values. Get inspired! Your words may eventually decorate a mural on the Administration/Allied Health Facility construction barrier. We appreciate those who have already submitted entries!

From the valued perspective of 'Ōlelo No'eau to a meaningful hashtag, the only limitation is your creativity – and the 200-character maximum (including a translation if required).

Faculty and staff (students will be solicited as well) - email your submission to uhwocomm@hawaii.edu by this Friday, March 3, 2017. A group will screen the submissions. The number of messages utilized will be determined by the final layout (a mockup of the mural design is attached). The mural will be up through approximately Fall 2018.

We also invite the campus to join in painting the mural at a date(s) and time(s) to be announced. Initial painting preparation will begin in late February/early March, with the messages being painted in March. We want this collaborative project to involve students, faculty, and staff.

Any questions? Call Leila Shimokawa at 689-2603 or email lwai@hawaii.edu.

DE Tip of the Week - Blackboard Collaborate

Blackboard Collaborate is a web conferencing tool that will allow you to meet with students without coming to campus. Blackboard Collaborate can be useful for online class meetings or for individual student conferences. To get started, you will need to request a Blackboard Collaborate account. You can do so by filling out the form found here: http://go.hawaii.edu/LN. If you are interested in learning about the program, the Office of Distance Learning will be offering a workshop on Wednesday, March 15, at 10 a.m. More information about the workshop will be sent out the before or you can learn more at uhwo.hawaii.edu/distancelearning or by emailing your questions to uhwode@hawaii.edu.
