THIS WEEK AT UHWO

a bulletin for UH West O'ahu faculty and staff

Week of November 18

30 seconds of your time, really...

Please take a few moments (30 seconds, tops) to answer three, very short questions (click the link) about the UH West O'ahu Website Calendar. Will you receive a prize? Well, no, but you will win the hearts and appreciation of your fellow staff members who are working to keep you informed and engaged at UH West O'ahu. Thank you very much from the UHWO Communications Department!

UH West O'ahu Campus Garden groundbreaking, Nov. 20

Join the UHWO Eco-Club and participate in the groundbreaking for UH West O'ahu's Campus Garden Wednesday, Nov. 20. A blessing is at 10:30 a.m. followed by a fun session of working in the garden until 3 p.m. Participate in clearing the land and planting the first plants. All students, faculty and staff are welcome. Come dressed to work in the garden and bring your favorite shovel and gardening tools if available. Refreshments will be provided. The garden is located between the Classroom Building (D) and Laboratory Building (E) and was made possible by a grant from the Women's Campus Club. For more information, contact Dr. Melissa Saul at saulm@hawaii.edu.

UH West O'ahu Sustainability Speaker Series presents "Nā Kupu Mana'olana - Seeds of Hope," Nov. 27

UH West O'ahu will host a film screening of "Nā Kupu Mana'olana - Seeds of Hope" by Pahoā resident and award-winning film director Danny Miller, and presented by the Hawai'i Rural Development Council. "Nā Kupu Mana'olana - Seeds of Hope" originally aired on PBS Hawai'i and is about Hawai'i's return to local and traditional methods of producing food. A panel discussion will follow the screening. Happening from noon - 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 27 in the Campus Center Multipurpose Room C208.
