

Email

Website

Nā Kumuwaiwai Hawai'i me ka Pākīpika
ma ka Hale Waihona Puke 'o Lama
Hawai'i & Pacific Resources at Lama Library
Kupulau 2017 – Spring 2017

View this email in your browser

Welina e nā makamaka heluhelu!

welcome dear readers!

Share the online newsletter with your students.

Nā Puke Hou - New Books

Here is a selection of the latest Hawai'i & Pacific titles added to the library. You can find them in the Hawai'i & Pacific Collection on the 1st floor of Lama Library. Click on a cover to find it in the library catalog. To request or recommend a title for purchase, submit this online form.

Kāko'o Waihona Puke Library Support Services

I can support you & your students by:

1. Conducting a library research workshop on Hawai'i &/or Pacific research topics for your class(es).
2. Creating a customized online research guide for your course.
3. Purchasing books, journals, DVDs, etc. to support your curriculum (suggestions are most welcome!)
4. Providing one-on-one research guidance for your students. Tell them to come visit me in the library!
5. Collaborating on library programs, exhibits, etc.
6. Reserving materials for your class

at the library.
Any other ideas? Just ask!

Thanks to a Title III grant, most KCC textbooks will be on reserve for use in the library. Inquire at the Circulation or Reference Desk.

KCC Research Guides for Hawai'i & the Pacific topics:

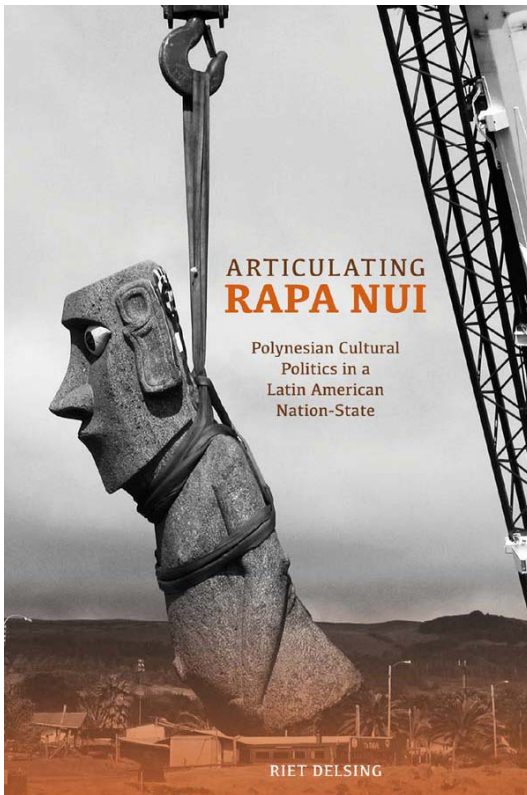

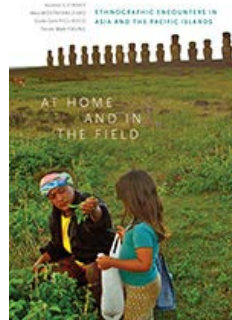

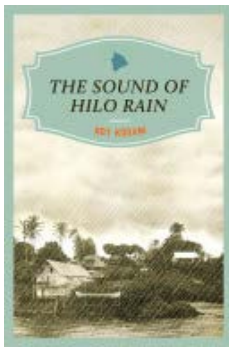

<http://bit.ly/hawaiiguides>

Contact me if you'd like a customized guide for your course.

Resource Spotlight

Teaching Oceania Series

"A new publication series created with collaboration of scholars from around the Pacific region to address the need for appropriate literature for undergraduate Pacific Island Studies students throughout Oceania." (iBook or PDF via ScholarSpace)

Ancestry Library

KCC Library has renewed our subscription to Ancestry Library! Search billions of records to discover more about your family history.

Images of Hawai'i Research Guide

Use this guide to find historical photos and images of Hawai'i that have been digitized and are now online, as well as sources for photos and images that are in the public domain and/or licensed under Creative Commons (free to use without permission).

Offshore Podcast by Civil Beat (Season 1: A Killing in Waikīkī)

Civil Beat's 1st season of their new podcast Offshore "explores race and power through two killings in Hawai'i, 80 years apart." The death of Joseph Kahawai in 1932 at the hands of a Navy officer, Lt. Thomas Massie, and his mother-in-law and the death of Kollin Elderts in 2011, shot by federal agent Christopher Deedy, are explored in this 10-episode podcast.

Nīnau? Questions?

Contact:
Annie Keola Kaukahi Thomas
Librarian, Hawaiian Resource Specialist
x9599, athomas@hawaii.edu, Lama 114A

Lālau aku 'oe i ka 'ulu i ka wekiu, i ke alo no ka 'ulu, a hala.
You reach for the breadfruit away at the top and miss the one in front of you.
Sometimes one who reaches afar misses an opportunity that is right before him.
(Pukui, 'Ōlelo No'eau #1942)

Malama (month): Kā'elo (29 Kēkēmapa-27 Ianuali)

Plants watersoaked from excessive rain. "Enuhe" (plant-eating worm) appears. Fresh leaves appear on vines. Ginger, yam, tumeric, starch plant, arrowroot, hoi vine start to grow. Migrating birds fat and greasy.

Hoku (Full) Moon–Jan. 12, Muku (New) Moon–Jan. 27.

(Source: Prince Kuhio Civic Club, 2017 Hawaiian Moon Calendar)

17 Ianuali – January: Illegal overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom, 1893

31 Ianuali – January: Ho‘oilina Mō‘ī William Charles Lunalilo Lā Hānau (birthday), 1835

Website

Email

Copyright © 2017 Kapi‘olani Community College Lama Library, All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

MailChimp.