Rizal Day Celebrated Welcome

The Ewa Filipino community honored the memory of Dr. Jose Rizal, Filipino patriot and martyr, with elaborate two-day fiestas on December 29 and 30.

Approximately 500 people attended the celebration at "B" Village. Miss Verna Camero reigned as Miss Philippines at the coronation ball and the other festivities. Messrs. Agustin Ipalari, Joseph Budge and Charles Tanaka were the principal speakers at the banquet and program that included folk dances and musical selections.

Another throng estimated at 800 people were at Filipino Village. Flag-raising ceremonies, a luau, free movies, sports for all ages were the activities there. It is reported that the married men and women teams were better than the single lads and lassies.

Mr. Basil W. Hansen will start Monday at Ewa for training. He will hold the position of agriculturist in training under Bill Livingston, Ewa's agriculturist.

Basil hails from Waipahu. He attended Hawaii schools, graduated from Punahou School and studied tropical agriculture at the University of Hawaii. Basil's father, Hans Hansen, is assistant manager at Oahu Sugar Company.

HAVE A CIGAR ON---

Due to conditions beyond our control, we are unable to present this popular feature this issue.

As in Kahuku, Ewa storks are demanding more job opportunity.

During his recent visit, Dr. Richard Weinerman, public health expert, made a tour of the industrial area. Dr. Weinerman and Jim Orrick, manager, are talking with Tom Sueda, journeyman steelworker.

Public Health Expert Visits Here

Dr. F. Richard Weinerman, M. D., Master of Public Health and head of the Department of Medical Economics at the University of California, paid Ewa a visit recently.

The trip to Ewa is part of a survey of medical and health facilities in Hawaii. Dr. Weinerman is paying much attention to the economic factors in relation to medical and health services. He has done similar work on the West Coast.

Licenses Sold Sunday At E.P.Co. Office

Your 1952 auto plates will be easy to get this year. Sunday, January 6th, the Treasurer's office will send representatives to Ewa. During the hours 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., they will be in the Ewa Plantation Company offices. Bring your auto registration with you. It has the cost of your 1952 plates printed on it.

If you miss out Sunday, you must get your plates from Honolulu. New licenses must be on your car by March 1.

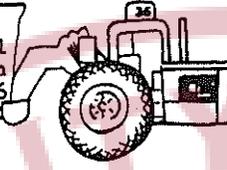

His trip to the islands is sponsored by the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union. Mr. Takeshi Ishihara, I.L.W.U. Business Agent, accompanied Dr. Weinerman during his visit at Ewa.

First stop was manager Jim Orrick's office for a discussion of Ewa's facilities. Later, Mr. Orrick took Dr. Weinerman on a tour of the industrial area where he was able to discuss health and medical services with employees.

An inspection of Ewa Hospital and a chat with Dr. Garton E. Wall wound up the Ewa part of Dr. Weinerman's survey.

Dr. Weinerman is a graduate of Yale. He took his M.D. at Georgetown School of Medicine, graduating magna cum laude and received his master's degree from Harvard School of Public Health. During the war he was a captain in the medical corps, chief of a medical combat shock team and winner of a Presidential citation and the Bronze Star.

GREEN CANE--GREEN PEOPLE

Despite a grand show of fireworks in the community over the holidays, Ewa suffered no fires. The rains before New Year's eve seemed to wet the fields enough to prevent an occasional skyrocket from starting a blaze.

People didn't fare as well as houses and cane fields. Ewa hospital had four cases of injury from fireworks. One required hospitalization, a Mikilua thirteen-year-old, who suffered bad burns on the thigh. Of the four cases three were children and one was an adult.

MORE SECURITY

A new section of pipe was added to the hydroseparator sludge line recently. The extra length is 1,000 feet and runs through Field 83.

The extent of new land increases more and more with every day the hydroseparator works. In a short time of operation, the green fields of Ewa have been extended to waste lands, providing more security to all Ewa employees.

Soto YBA Has Party And Election

Ewa Soto Y.B.A. held their year-end party on Sunday, December 23, at the church hall. Highlights of the evening were pot-luck supper, games and a grab bag.

On November 9 the election of officers for the new year was held at the Smile Cafe. Elected were: Kelly Kiriu, president; Tadashi Tazawa, vice-president; Eleanor Igarashi, recording secretary; Esther Sugai, corresponding secretary, and Jane Sato, treasurer. The new officers took over their duties on December 1.

Bob Cushnie Elected ERA Prexy

New officers of the Ewa Recreation Association were elected recently. Robert A. Cushnie, who has been active in many community activities, was chosen to serve as president of the association.

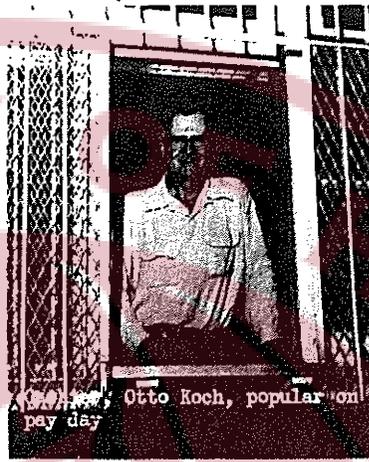

Kojiro Nakamura was elected vice-president. Successful candidates for the board of directors are Ed Bryan, Allen Lum, Tsutomu Tarasawa, Takeo Yasui, Charles Nakamatsu and Miss Jane Numasaki. Robert Takamoto is the holdover member of the board.

Other officers are Charles Aina, secretary; Charles Ygloria treasurer; Charles Tanaka, assistant treasurer; Joseph Budge, advisor.

Kitchen Komment

Cookies from the Pupua Ewa Club's cooks is this month's treat. (Parenthetical ad libs by a frustrated hubby who tried. He's recuperating). When you're all through, you should end up with delicious macaroons. Temperature: 325° F. (Oven—not husband.) Time: 20 minutes (our clock stopped—started all over)
 2 Cups prepared breakfast flakes (Who prepares 'em?)
 2 Egg whites (save the yolks for next Xmas)
 1/2 Tsp. Vanilla (drink the rest)
 1/4 Tsp. Salt (try it. Our salt shaker was clogged.)
 1 Cup Sugar (easy!)
 1 Cup Shredded coconut (I didn't know this came in packages. I swiped 6 nuts, ended up with 4 cuts, shredded nose and knees, 1 cup shredded coconut.)

1. Crush cereal slightly. (Broke two bowls.)
2. Beat egg whites with vanilla and salt until stiff and dry; add sugar gradually. (Wow! It can't be done! I grabbed the vanilla and salt and beat those egg whites until I was stiff but not dry. The sugar would not pour gradually, the rest of the 10-lb. bag overflowed into the sink.)
3. Fold in coconut and toasted flakes. (How? The coconut did not come with sealed flaps and I did not have the flakes toasted.)
4. Drop by teaspoonsful on an oiled paper and bake in a moderate oven. Cookies should be well set and golden brown. (How high should you drop it from? Mine splattered all over the walls. They're a golden brown and I'm well set—in the doghouse.)

Lots Of Interest In Figures

Any story about the "front office" would be interesting to Ewa employees. This is the gang that figures our pay. But that isn't all. Every type of record keeping goes on here. Every type of job gets done.

Insurance and taxes are confusing to most of us. Not to those who handle all the figures for Ewa.

Records of all equipment—what we have, how it works, when will it have to be replaced—all easy to answer by these experts with figures.

Fully aware of all that goes on about Ewa—using short-wave radio if necessary—the office staff gets a mountain of work done each year.

The historians will know how much sugar Ewa made in 1951. Also, they will know exactly how much it costs to run a Tournahauler, how many tons of cane a Tournahauler carries. These figures are important when we are buying new equipment. They can save many thousands of dollars. Buying is based on actual records of performance and need.

Accuracy in keeping employe's time, in figuring taxes and in keeping records of Ewa's tools is a big job well done. Thanks.

C&C Nut Farm News On Mainland

The August 18 issue of "Business Week" has an article about Castle & Cooke's macadamia nut project on the Big Island. The article, "Macadamia: Castle & Cooke's Hawaiian Experiment" tells how the agency has gone into a risky venture in hopes of adding another crop to Hawaii's economy.

In 1949 when C. & C. decided to try the nuts only 1,100 acres were growing. Their plans include nearly 3,000 acres. Five hundred and fifty acres of jungle land have been cleared and 335 planted with the first harvest scheduled for 1955.

Managing the new outfit is John Cross, former relief division overseer at Ewa. It is quite a change from the green fields of Ewa to growing trees in a bed of rough lava near Hilo.

C&H Lowers Price Of Refined Sugar

With low New York spot raw sugar prices, C. & H. Sugar has dropped their price on granulated sugar 25 cents per 100 pounds.

Last Friday, the New York spot price went up another $1.40. The third rise recently set the price at $117.40 a ton. This is only $4.40 above the year's low and is nearly $19.00 below the year's high mark.

Ewa G.I. News

More For Your Money With ERA

As often as the new year comes around, so does the E.R.A. membership drive. For Ewa residents the E.R.A. drive is, perhaps, the most important.

During the past year, the Ewa Recreation Association has done a fabulous job with a small budget. The $3.00 that each member contributes goes a long way.

With plans for even more community service during 1952, it is important that all of us join. The $3.00 will be less than most spend to celebrate the New Year but it will be there working for Ewa's children long after memories of parties are gone.

Chip in with those three bucks.

E.A.C. Wins; Title Play-Off Tonite

The Ewa Athletic Club evened up the E.R.A. inter-club softball series on Wednesday night, eking out a 2-1 win over the rampaging 20th Century nine. The final tussle of the season will be played tonight.

A tight pitching duel between Norbert Mendes and Hal Oshiro kept hits scattered and meager. E.A.C. had three safeties and 20th Century banged out five.

The Athletics tallied the winning margin in the second stanza when 4 free passes, wild pitches and miscues allowed the 2 runs. Then in the 4th inning, the losers retaliated with their lone scoring effort. Three successive hits by Seigi Adaniya, Toshiro Tomita and Shin Suzuki chased home Charley Nakamatsu who had gained life on a walk.

No one had more than one bingle. Johnny Manoloyo, Sylvano Rodrigues and Albert Ornelas hit for E.A.C. while Adaniya Tomita, Suzuki, Oshiro and Melvin Hirano got aboard once for the vanquished.

Pantohan New E.R.A. Assistant

You'll be seeing more of Victor Pantohan around our wonderful recreation plant. "Doc" was recently transferred to serve you as recreation assistant.

He will help Charles Aina, recreation supervisor, in putting across our E.R.A. program. "Doc's" biggest asset is his pleasing personality. Many remember his athletic prowess in basketball and softball.

He joined the Ewa family last June, coming from the Naval Air Station at Barber's Point. He is a veteran of World War II, with a five-year hitch in the army in the South Pacific area.

Now, he makes his home at Filipino Village, with his new commanding officer, Mrs. Virginia Pantohan and their two children, Beverly Ann and Victor Jr.

One white topper (girl's coat) at Xmas Eve services, Ewa Catholic Church. Of great sentimental value to owner, graduation gift. Please return to Mrs. Jack Jose.

Pirates Cop Junior Cage Crown

The Pirates finally lived up to pre-season predictions. Last night they flashed bigtime form in defeating Kei Kokus 31-28 for the E.R.A. junior basketball title.

The tussle was nip and tuck all the way. Kei Kokus garnered the van early in the fray and held a 12-10 lead in the first quarter. Cautious play maintained the advantage at half 18 to 14.

After the intermission, the Pirates came to life, pulling ahead in the 3rd period 24-22 and held it in the final stanza.

Donald Oya raided the nets for 8 points to pace the winners aided by Stan Sawamoto and Robert Abe with 7 and 6. Frank Endo, Shige Okoji and Melvin Tsurumaki tallied 8 digits apiece.
