THIS WEEK AT UHWO

a bulletin for UH West O'ahu faculty and staff

Week of November 16

Attend a behavior intervention team workshop this week, Nov. 17-20

Campus disruptions and students exhibiting "concerning" behaviors have become a common occurrence across college campuses today. All UHWO faculty and staff are encouraged to attend a workshop about behavior intervention teams to learn about this national best practice for addressing employees and students who exhibit disrupting and concerning behavior. UH West O'ahu Director of Compliance and Title IX Coordinator, Bev Baligad will host behavior intervention team workshops on:

- Tuesday, Nov. 17 from 2-3:30 p.m. in C158
- Wednesday, Nov. 18 from 2:30-4 p.m. in B217
- Thursday, Nov. 19 from 8-9:30 a.m. in E109
- Friday, Nov. 20 from 8-9:30 a.m. in B217

RSVP as soon as possible to krae@hawaii.edu with your preferred workshop date.

Your feedback needed on UHWO emergency preparedness, active threat by Nov. 20

Take a moment to fill out a brief survey about the Nov. 13 active threat drill, UH Alert communications, and the recent emergency preparedness training sessions. Your input is important in ensuring the health and safety of our campus community. The survey deadline is Nov. 20.

Encourage your students to take the Culturally Engaging Campus Environments Survey by Nov. 30

The Culturally Engaging Campus Environments (CECE) online survey was disseminated to UHWO undergraduates on Monday, Nov. 2. The CECE survey seeks to better understand students' experiences at UH West O'ahu and how college environments shape diverse students' undergraduate experiences and outcomes. The CECE survey was developed by Dr. Samuel D. Museus, associate professor of higher education and student affairs at Indiana University, Bloomington, and director of the Culturally Engaging Campus Environments (CECE) Project. Your support in encouraging students to complete the survey is greatly appreciated. The survey will close on Monday, Nov. 30. For questions, contact Library Director, Sarah Sur at sgilman@hawaii.edu.

Library Workshops

November 2015

Mondays, 2pm,
Library Computer
Lab

11/2/15 - Hawaii Pacific Research

In this workshop, you will discover various resources for doing research on Hawaiian and Pacific topics. We will cover resources available in the UHWO Library collection, along with some available on the open web. We will also highlight the collections of 'Ulu'ulu, Hawai'i's official state archive for moving images.

11/9/15 - Research with Primary Sources

In this workshop, you will learn techniques and resources for finding primary sources for your academic research. We will also discuss various types of primary sources, including film footage in the collections of 'Ulu'ulu, Hawai'i's official state archive for moving images. You will also learn strategies for incorporating primary sources into your writing, and how to create citations for various types of primary sources.

11/16/15 - Reading and Writing Scholarly Essays (with Dr. Carmen Nolte, Assistant Professor of English)

In this workshop, you will learn specific reading strategies that will help you to better understand and evaluate scholarly articles, allowing you to summarize, paraphrase, and quote from these sources. You will also learn various search techniques for locating scholarly articles in library databases.

11/23/15 - Choosing a Research Topic

In this workshop, you will learn how to develop an idea for a research topic into a specific research question. We will discuss techniques for narrowing or broadening a topic, ways to develop keywords, and strategies for using those keywords to find relevant resources in UHWO Library Databases.

11/30/15 - Incorporating Sources into Research Papers

(Paraphrasing, Quoting, Summarizing, and Citation Styles)

In this workshop, you will learn specific techniques for incorporating sources into your academic research papers, including paraphrasing, summarizing, and quoting. We will also demonstrate the use of EndNote, a citation management tool, and we will discuss various citation styles and resources available for citation help.
