Student Success Peer Mentors

The Student Success Peer Mentor Program is here for you! Would you like to meet a peer who can help navigate you through your educational journey at Kapi'olani Community College? Our peers are students in the UH system just like you, who understand the trials and tribulations of being a student. They are empathetic, patient, and knowledgeable resources who can steer you in the "right direction."

The Peer Mentors serve as the "Ho'okele," which is the Hawaiian word for "Navigator." Our mission is to guide you and provide support to reach student engagement, learning, and achievement.

We have 2 general "Ho'okele Help Desks" on campus to assist you

1. Student Engagement Center, 'Iliahi (where Subway is, across from the Office of Student Activities)
2. Lama Library (near the librarians' reference desk)

Our peers can also be found at the following locations:

- Kekaulike Information and Service Center (KISC) ('Ilima 102)
- First Year Experience Office (FYE) ('Iliahi 127)
- Center for Learning, Teaching, and Technology Lab (CELTT) (Naio 207)
- 'Imiloa Studio (Kahikoluamea)

Our Peer Mentors offer assistance regarding general campus information, getting you started with financial aid/admissions/registration, help with using technological software (the KCC website, Lailima, My UH Portal, Microsoft Office applications, e-mail, etc.). . .or they're available if you just need someone to talk to.

Because we offer such a wide array of support services, we may not have the answer to every question on hand, but we will help you find a solution/answer to your concern. As a part of the KCC Ohana, we must all remember to Kūlia I Ka Nu'u. Our Peer Mentors are here to support you in this endeavor.

Stop by to meet a Peer Mentor today!
