E.R.A.'s 17th Annual Carnival & Fair Draws 35,000/40,000 Visitors to Ewa

The huge annual event that took place during the past week end, once again eclipsed the results of the preceeding year to maintain an unbroken string of a new high each year since 1949.

Although the estimated figures - $37,521.00 gross and $17,400.00 net were below the Committee's expectations, the results were nevertheless highly gratifying, according to General Chairman Bill Worden.

The huge Industrial and Commercial Exhibits Section, the sprawling midway, the tops in food concessions, the entertaining shows--every successful part of the successful whole was possible only because of the superb teamwork by the entire community.

A complete report will be published in this paper as soon as the final tally becomes available.

New Experimental Seed Cane Harvester

A new Massey Ferguson 515 cane harvester was tried at Ewa this week. The 515 was designed and built in Australia and is normally used on crop cane. We want to find out if it can be used to cut seed. Alan Randall is up from down under to show us how to operate the new cutter. It is mounted on our International TD-6 tractor. The machine tops the stalk, cuts it at the base and then chops it into short seed pieces. The machine will be tried here at Ewa for about 2 months then it will go to the outer islands.

Citizenship Day

To Bishop Museum

Malcolm MacNaughton, HSPA president, recently announced that a $250,000 collection of insects is being donated by the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association to the Bishop Museum.

The valuable collection gathered by HSPA entomologists from all over the world over a period of some 60 years, consists of three major groups and other items.

They are known as "Fauna Hawaiiensis," the "Type collection" and the "Hadden Philippine collection".

The specimens being donated to the museum are those not directly connected with sugar cane. Those dealing with sugar are being kept at the station under the supervision of F. A. Bianchi, HSPA's principal entomologist.

MacNaughton said the HSPA believes that by transferring the collections to the museum "the broad, long-range good of entomological research in the Pacific will be served."

Ewa, Hawaii

September 10, 1964

TO THE PEOPLE AND FRIENDS OF EWA!

In the course of doing your part for the Ewa Recreation Association, you have done several other things.

You--the people of Ewa--have demonstrated to all your willingness - even your strong desire - to work with one another for a worthwhile cause.

You--the people of Ewa--disrupted your family schedules to put on a record-breaking Carnival and Fair, the financial returns from which will provide a balanced recreation program for all E.R.A. members and keep our recreation facilities operating for the use of our neighbors.

You--the friends, merchants and businessmen interested in our community--donated your time, money and goods, and exhibited your wares in a splendid display. And in the process renewed old friendships and made new acquaintances for yourselves and your products.

You--in military and government service, with your exhibits and patronage; office-seekers and a host of others from far and wide--supported this community project, reminding us of our civic responsibilities and informing us of new and astounding trends in military science.

It is indeed a privilege to live where there are people who make these things happen. To the many of you who helped, and in behalf of the many who will enjoy and benefit from E.R.A.'s activities for another year, thank you--Mahalo!

Yours very sincerely,

E. C. BRYAN
Vice President and Manager

Dear Friends,

The 17th Annual Ewa Carnival and Fair is over and the results are in. The preliminary figures of $37,521 gross and a net of $17,400 indicate another successful community project.

I wish to extend my sincere gratitude and thanks to the Committee Chairmen and all the people who worked so hard to make the Carnival and Fair a success. The self-sacrifice you made for your community was certainly above and beyond the normal call of duty. If they issued a distinguished service medal for community service all of you should receive one.

The wonderful cooperation of all the hard working volunteers was really appreciated. It was a pleasure to have worked with all of you on this worthwhile Community Project.

Mahalo,

Bill Worden
