What is eCAFE?

eCAFE is the Official University of Hawaii Course And Faculty Evaluation System. eCAFE is an entirely online evaluation system, everything from setting the questions to filling out the evaluations and viewing the results is done online.

There are 5 phases to eCAFE:

Staff Setup	Tuesday, January 17, 2012 - Thursday, February 16, 2012	An officially authorized user turns on evaluations and sets questions that will appear on all evaluations for courses/instructors under their control.
Instructor Setup	Monday, March 5, 2012 - Thursday, April 5, 2012	Instructors turn on/off their personal evaluations and select questions.
Evaluation	Monday, April 16, 2012 - Thursday,	Students submit their completed evaluations.

	May 3, 2012
Results	Thursday, May 17, 2012	Evaluation results are available for viewing by instructors.
Publish	Monday, June 4, 2012	Published results are released for public viewing.

How can I use eCAFE?

If your campus, college, division, department, or subject would like to use eCAFE, please contact your campus coordinator to set up an account.

If you are an instructor who wants to use eCAFE, log in using your UH username and password during the instructor period (posted above) and enable and edit your surveys. You may also log in at any time to sign up to receive automated setup reminder notices.
