Dayton M. Nakanelua

UPW State Director

The United Public Workers extends a warm welcome from Our Union, Our Family. The Henry B. Epstein Building, our headquarters named for the first State Director of United Public Workers, is on Oahu at 1426 North School Street. Our building distinguished with murals by world famed artist Jean Charlot, tells our story. The murals, featuring our founding members in action, chronicle the struggle by the United Public Workers to win fair wages and benefits for workers in the blue collar non-supervisory and institutional healthcare fields. It is a story of families and extended families who came together, as a community, to fight for a basic human right: fair treatment on the job. We live by our motto, "Our Union, Our Family", and if you are a part of our community, you are a part of our family and our history ...read more
