A BULLETIN FOR UH WEST O'AHU FACULTY AND STAFF
This Week at UH West O'ahu
Week of Feb. 26

BOR Association of Emeritus Regents, Mayor Caldwell at UH West Oahu

The UH Board of Regents - Association of Emeritus Regents held one of its meetings at UH West O'ahu on Friday, with Mayor Kirk Caldwell making a presentation to the group regarding the City and County of Honolulu and the rail project. The group received a pre-meeting tour of the campus, with stops at the Academy for Creative Media, the Cyber Security Coordination Center, and the 'Ulu'ulu Moving Image Archive, where they remained in the exhibition area.

Getting ready for the opening of new fitness center

Intramural Sports' Ryan Perreira

Equipment for the new fitness space at Campus Center arrived last week as the new fitness room at Campus Center began to take shape. Freemotion Fitness machines were delivered, ranging from treadmills that can angle upwards by 20 degrees, to a Tour De France Bike that riders can put through the paces on interactive routes, and weight machines. There will also be dumbbells and weights for students, faculty, and staff who can use the facility. The fitness space also has an office for Ryan Perreira, head of UH West Oahu's intramural sports program. Perreira said the new facility will officially open in April.

Students sought for Marshal, Speaker and Emcee for Spring 2018 Commencement

The Commencement Committee is putting out a call for nominations for student marshal who lead the students from their division during commencement and are recognized in the commencement program. The committee is also seeking nominations from students for the ceremony's student speaker and student emcee. may make nominations for student marshal to their respective division chair if the student is graduating, has at least a 3.0 GPA, and provides service to UH West O'ahu and/or the community. Each division can nominate no more than one student. The due date is April 5.

Faculty should encourage their students to apply for student speaker and student emcee. Students must apply for these roles. Applications for student speaker and student emcee are due March 9 with auditions tentatively set for the week of April 1. Candidates for both roles must have a minimum GPA of 3.0, a record of meaningful university and/or community service, and public communication skills. The student speaker also must be a graduating senior; the emcee must have a minimum of 60 credits (30 at UH West O‘ahu).

The criteria and application forms can be found at <http://www.uhwo.hawaii.edu/campus-life/student-affairs/commencement/student-speaker/>

C&H Pure Home Movies: California and Hawaii connections through home movies

On Thursday, March 8, Prof. Dan Boylan’s Humanities 300 class watch home movies to gain insight into and discuss the connections between California and Hawai‘i via travel, tourism, military, and agriculture. The class will be open to the public and meet in the ‘Ulu‘ulu exhibition area from 11 a.m. to 12:20 p.m.. Pamela Vadakan, California Revealed manager, and Janel Quirante, head archivist of the ‘Ulu‘ulu Moving Image Archive, will join Boylan to talk about the work of the two organizations and screen examples of home movies from Hawai‘i and California.

UH President David Lassner recognizes UH West O‘ahu’s role in “Moana” production

UH President David Lassner cited the work of UH West O‘ahu faculty and staff in discussing the collaboration occurring between UH campuses in the production of a Hawaiian language version of “Moana.” “One of the very cool projects that we've adopted across the university system is the translation of the 'Moana' movie," said Lassner in his February report to the UH Board of Regents. "It is an amazing opportunity for the University of Hawai'i as a system to step up with our resources and our human capacity to do something really quite amazing."

Lassner named contributors at UH Mānoa and Honolulu Community College, along with citing the roles being played by UH West O'ahu faculty and staff. He cited Chris Lee, director of the Academy for Creative Media, who is executive producer of the project. Also cited were Heather Giugni 'Ulu'ulu archive cultural collections specialist, Sharla Hanaoka, director of Creative Media at UH West O'ahu, and ethnomusicologist Aaron J. Salā, and their roles in the project.

ASUHWO asks for help in urging students to become student government candidates

Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i-West O'ahu student government is asking faculty and instructors to encourage students to run for office. ASUHWO would like faculty and instructors to identify students they feel could best serve the campus and to forward names to current President Kelley Lehua Gould at kgould4@hawaii.edu. Gould will reach out to the students directly.

All student government executive and senator positions are open to all UHWO students who will be enrolled in the 2018-2019 academic year. Download the application, here: <https://www.asuhwo.com/general-elections.html>

Distance Education Tip of the Week News from E Kamakani Hou

StayFocusd is an app that can limit the amount of time you can spend on time-wasting websites. The program can be accessed by adding the StayFocusd extension to your Google Chrome browser. Once installed, you can add websites and time frames to be blocked. If you try to visit that site during the blocked time, the page will ask, "Shouldn't you be working?" If you are interested in learning more about using other online tools, consider attending one of our weekly workshops. You can find more information about workshops and read other tech tips by visiting uhwo.hawaii.edu/distancelearning or emailing uhwode@hawaii.edu.
