Social Security Benefits

Are you getting Social Security benefits even though you are still working? Beginning in 1966, if you earn no more than $1,500 in a year, you can still get a Social Security check just as if you were fully retired. If you make more than $1,500, your benefits will be reduced. But no matter what your total earnings are for the year, you will get a check for every month in which you do not earn $125 or more or do much work in your own business. Of course, none of this applies if you are 72 years of age or older. Then you will get a benefit check every month no matter what you make for the year.

Spark Matsunaga to Speak Here

Representative Spark Matsunaga will be the guest speaker at the 22nd Lincoln Program at Ewa School on February 11.

The traditional program will be held, as usual, in front of the Lincoln statue, beginning at 10:15 A.M.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will provide the music while Ewa School students will offer vocal arrangements.

The statue of "Lincoln, the Frontiersman," is the fulfillment of the dream of Katherine McIntosh Burke, who, like Lincoln was a "frontiersman" in her own time. She taught in Kansas and later moved westward with the frontier to Arizona, Nevada, and California.

She went north to Alaska for four years, then later, with the acquisition of Hawaii by the United States, another frontier was opened to her. She taught on the island of Kauai for six years before coming to Oahu, and Ewa. She retired in 1929 as Principal of Ewa School.

It was in her final years of teaching in Hawaii that Katherine Burke dreamed of providing a statue of Abraham Lincoln for the school children of Hawaii. When she died in 1938, at the age of seventy-six, she willed that her estate, worth about $8,000 be used for the purchase of the statue.

In 1940, one of the best known sculptors in the nation, Dr. Avard T. Fairbanks, offered to do the statue for $8,000. Delayed because of war-time priorities, the statue was finally set in place, and at 10:30 in the morning, February 12, 1944, as the school children sang a choral recitation of the Gettysburg Address, "Lincoln the Frontiersman" was unveiled to look out across the Ewa School campus and new frontiers for all time. The dream of Katherine Burke had been fulfilled.

Your Blood Is Needed

WHILE YOU ARE READING THIS SOMEONE IS RECEIVING A BLOOD TRANSFUSION

If you, or a member of your family required a transfusion today, do you know what it would mean to you in dollars and cents?

You would be charged $30.00 for each pint of blood furnished you. You would then have several alternatives by which this obligation could be discharged.

You could pay the $30.00.

You could send one acceptable donor to the Blood Bank and receive a $15.00 credit or refund.

The remaining $15.00 cover the Blood Bank's processing costs.

If you're a member of Blood Service Plan-Hawaii your obligations are discharged automatically.

HOW DOES THE PLAN WORK?

If you receive blood in Hawaii, all blood bank charges are eliminated.

You do not have to pay any cash or furnish replacement donors.

There is no limit to the number of transfusions.

For blood used elsewhere, charges are either eliminated or substantially reduced. Apply at the Ewa I.R. Office.

Mike Oxley's 3 for 3 led a 14 hit barrage for Ewa with Roy Nishioka's single and double also counted for 3 RBIs. Wayne Ishimoto, Ray Higa, and Bob Tokunaga also hit safely twice for Ewa. Walter Omoto and Norman Hoshino scattered five Pearl City hits in the easy win.

Ewa meets undefeated Waipahu in the second game this Sunday at Waialua in a crucial tilt.
