The comprehensive instructional program review contains an executive summary, program description, quantitative indicators for program review, assessment results, curriculum revision, survey results, analysis of program, action plan, and budget implications. Click here to download the Comprehensive Instructional Program Review Template. As such, program review drives budgetary and tactical planning decisions in subsequent years. Based on the program review data in these reports, each unit created a department tactical plan for the 2009-2012 planning period (available for viewing and download in the OFIE website Tactical Planning page).
