March 14, 2016 Monday 6:00pm to 8:00pm Ohia
auditorium (118)

Synopsis: A murder mystery drama based on a novel by the famed Japanese novelist Kanae Minato deconstructs a seemingly open-and-shut crime case involving the murder of a beautiful cosmetics company employee by her less attractive co-worker by adopting a "Rashomon"-style narrative structure. This film illustrates the destructive power of today's social mediacentric world by demonstrating the devastating effects of online-fueled rumors and how they can deceive our perception of the truth. In this age of 24 hour global-spanning social media and twitter world, the heroes and villains can change in matter of seconds!
