Veranda

Sheraton
Moana Sutfrider

Throughout our hotel's history, this veranda has been the scene of countless social gatherings and lively entertainment. Visitors have assembled here to share in good conversation, to watch the activity on famous Waikiki Beach and to gaze on the Pacific waters for which the Moana is named.

The centerpiece of our veranda is the expansive banyan tree which you see before you. Planted in 1885, it has been lovingly tended over the years, so that it now measures 75 feet high and 150 feet across. The Banyan Court was also the original home of the popular "Hawaii Calls" radio show, which originated in 1935. For more than 30 years, audiences gathered in the shade of this time-honored tree to enjoy the soothing music of the islands as it was broadcasted live from Waikiki to mainland America.

Now as you relax on The Banyan Veranda with your favorite cocktail, we invite you to savor this special taste of Moana history which has been carefully preserved for your enjoyment.
